CHAPTER 355.

AN ACT to appropriate a certain sum of money to B. J. Hughes for damages arising out of a certain automobile accident.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is appropriated from the general fund to B. J. Hughes of Mendota, Wisconsin, the sum of one hundred sixty-eight dollars and ninety cents to reimburse him for damages to his automobile as the result of a collision with an automobile owned by the Wisconsin Memorial Hospital on February 25, 1929. Acceptance of the appropriation herein named by the said B. J. Hughes shall operate as a full and complete discharge of all claims of said B. J. Hughes against the state of Wisconsin arising out of said collision.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 356.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 59.97 and to create subsection (2a) of section 59.97 of the statutes, relating to zoning power of counties.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 59.97 of the statutes is amended to read: (59.97) (1) The county board of any county may by ordinance regulate, * * * restrict and determine the areas within which agriculture, forestry and recreation may be conducted, the location of roads, schools, trades and industries, and the location of buildings designed for specified uses, and establish districts of such number, shape and area, and may also establish set-back building lines, outside the limits of incorporated villages and cities, as such county board may deem best suited to carry out the purposes of this section. For each such district, regulations may be imposed designating the trades, • • • industries or purposes that shall be included or subjected to special regulations and designating the uses for which buildings may not be erected or altered; provided, however, that the said county board shall before it adopts such ordinance or ordinances, submit the same to the town board or town boards of the town or towns in which may be situated any lands affected by such ordinance, and thereupon obtain the approval of said town board or town boards, so far as the same affects the lands in such town or towns, and in like manner any and all ordinances, which may amend any ordinance, which have been adopted as herein provided, shall be submitted to the said town boards and their approval obtained before the same shall be adopted by the county board. Such ordinance or amendments thereto may be adopted as to such town or towns which shall have given their approval thereto.

SECTION 2. A new subsection is added to section 59.97 of the statutes to read: (59.97) (2a) When any county acquires lands by tax deeds, the county board may exchange any such lands for other lands in the county for the purpose of promoting the regulation and restriction of agricultural and forestry lands.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
