CHAPTER 363.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money therein named to J. E. Kennedy.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is appropriated from the general fund to J. E. Kennedy, deputy commissioner of insurance, the sum of eleven hundred and thirty dollars to reimburse him for sums paid by him in the satisfaction of three judgments rendered against him on December 22, 1927, in three actions commenced against him by Zala Miller, F. W. Gilman and Mrs. Carpenter, all of Evansville, Wisconsin, which actions were tried in the county court of Walworth county as a result of an automobile accident near Delavan in said county on June 22, 1927, while the said J. E. Kennedy was driving his automobile from Madison to Delavan at the request and direction of the commissioner of insurance.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 364.

AN ACT to amend paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of section 67.05 of the statutes, relating to the issuance of bonds by cities.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of section 67.05 of the statutes is amended to read: (67.05) (5) (b) No city shall issue any bonds for any purposes other than for waterworks, lighting works, gasworks, bridges, street improvements, street improvement funding, hospitals, harbor improvements, breakwaters and protection piers, sewerage, parks, and public grounds, street railway property, or paying the city's portion of the cost of abolishing grade crossings, apparatus or equipment for fire protection, school purposes or vocational school purposes, until the proposition for their issue for the special purpose thereof shall have been submitted to the electors of such city and adopted by a majority voting thereon. Whenever the common council of any city shall declare its purpose to raise money by issuing bonds for any purpose other than those above specified, it shall direct, by resolution, which shall be recorded at length in the record of its proceedings, the city clerk to call a special election for the purpose of submitting the question of bonding the city to the electors thereof. Such elections shall be noticed, conducted, canvassed and the result declared as provided in this subsection, except that the notice of such special election and the ballot used thereat need not embody a copy of the resolution, but shall contain a statement of the purpose and the amount of the bonds proposed to be issued.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved August 7, 1929.

CHAPTER 365.

AN ACT to create subsection (8) of section 20.06, and section 72.26 of the statutes, providing for a refund by the state and counties of such inheritance taxes as were received by them under that portion of subsection (3) of section 72.01, which has been held unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States, and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 20.06, and a new section is added to the statutes, to read: (20.06) (8) Inheritance taxes paid into the state treasury in excess of lawful taxation when claims therefor have been established in the manner provided in section 72.26 of the statutes.

72.26 (1) The amount received by the state and the several counties from executors, administrators, trustees and other persons, as inheritance taxes under that part of subsection (3) of section 72.01 of the statutes which has been declared by the supreme court of the United States unconstitutional and void, to wit: "Every transfer by deed, grant, bargain, sale or gift, made within six years prior to the death of the grantor, vendor or
