CHAPTER 41.

AN ACT to amend sections 3, 5 and 12 of chapter 154 of the laws of 1927, relating to the county court of Barron county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 3, 5 and 12 of chapter 154 of the laws of 1927 are amended to read: (Chapter 154, laws of 1927) Section 3. Appeals from judgments of justices of the peace and of municipal judges in said county * * * may hereafter be taken to either the circuit court or the county court of said county, as appellant may elect, and such appeals if taken to said county court shall be tried and determined therein in the same manner as is by law required in the circuit court of Barron county, and in accordance with the rules and practice of said circuit court in force at the time of said trial, except as herein provided, and all laws providing for taking appeals in civil actions from justices of the peace or municipal judges, or justices courts or municipal courts shall hereafter be construed to apply equally to such appeals taken to said county court. * * *

SECTION 5. All appeals and examinations, recognizances and commitments from or by any examining magistrate of said county in bastardy cases and in all criminal actions within the jurisdiction of this court, shall be certified and returned within the time prescribed by law to such county court, or to the circuit court if demanded by the appellant in civil actions or by the defendant in criminal actions, and the attendance of witnesses upon the trial of any person so committed shall be procured in the same manner as provided by law in the circuit court, and the said court shall have power to appoint an attorney to defend a person charged with an offense in the same manner and upon the same conditions as the circuit court may now or hereafter appoint an attorney to defend a person charged with an offense.

SECTION 12. The provisions of law applicable to change of venue in the circuit courts of this state, shall be applicable to said county court. * * * When the venue of any action shall be changed pursuant to section 261.04 of the statutes it shall be changed to the circuit court of the proper county; and such change of venue shall not prevent the granting by said circuit court of a further change of venue as provided in said section

261.04 or 261.08 of the * * * statutes. * * * When the venue of any action shall be changed by said county court pursuant to section 261.08 or section 356.03 of the statutes it shall be changed to the circuit court of Barron county or the judge of said county court may call upon the circuit judge of the circuit in which Barron county is located or upon the county judge of any county court having civil and criminal jurisdiction to attend, hold court and try said action and while so doing he shall have the powers of the judge of said county court of Barron county. * * * If any person charged upon indictment or information with a criminal offense shall have procured a change of venue to the circuit court of Barron county, said county court shall commit or hold the party to bail to appear at the next term of the circuit court and the clerk of said county court shall transmit all papers and a copy of the records and proceedings in said case, properly certified to be such under the seal of said court, to the said circuit court which shall then have full jurisdiction of the action; all recognizances previously given in such cases and returned to said county court may be enforced in said circuit court as fully as if they had been originally returned thereto. In like manner may all such cases which might originally have been brought in said county court or appealed thereto, where a change of venue is allowed or directed by the circuit court on the grounds of prejudice of the judge thereof, be removed to said county court, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as abrogating the power conferred upon the circuit court by section 261.08 of the * * * statutes * * *.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 19, 1929.
