such terms as the conservation commission may determine, and for the direct planting of trees by the conservation commission.

SECTION 2. A new subsection is added to section 20.20 to read: (20.20) (14) Annually, beginning July 1, 1929, all of the proceeds of the tax for forestry purposes which is levied in subsection (2) of section 20.205 in excess of the total of the appropriations made in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and in subsections (5), (10) and (12) and that portion of the appropriations in subsections (2) and (3) which is used for the forestry division, for the acquisition of lands owned by counties by virtue of any tax deed and other lands suitable for state forests, and for the development of lands so acquired and the conduct of forestry thereon, including the planting of trees thereon.

SECTION 3. Section 20.205 is renumbered to be subsection (1) of section 20.205 of the statutes.

SECTION 4. Two new subsections are added to section 20.205 of the statutes to read: (20.205) (2) There is appropriated annually to the conservation fund, as authorized by section 10 of article VIII of the constitution, an amount equal to one-twentieth of a mill for each dollar of the valuation of the property of the state as determined by the tax commission pursuant to section 70.57 of the statutes, for the purpose of acquiring, preserving and developing the forests of the state. Such amount shall be payable direct from an annual tax which is hereby levied on all taxable property of the state specified in section 70.57 of the statutes.

(3) There is appropriated from the general fund to the conservation fund on July 1, 1929, and annually thereafter, all moneys appropriated from the conservation fund for the payment of bounties chargeable against the state and for predatory animal control.

SECTION 5. Subsection (8) of section 20.77 of the statutes, as amended by chapter 97 of the laws of 1929, is amended to read: (20.77) (8) All appropriations or balances of appropriations remaining unexpended and unencumbered at the end of the fiscal year for which they are made, shall revert to the * * * fund from which appropriated, but this shall not apply to revolving appropriations, highway appropriations, appropriations from the conservation fund, appropriations of moneys received from the federal government, or to appropriations for the purchase of land and for permanent property and improvements, nor shall it affect subsection (19) of section 20.17 or section 20.52. Appropriations for the purchase of land and for permanent property and improvements shall continue to be available until the attainment of the object or the completion of the work for which such appropriations were made, and except as otherwise provided by law all balances remaining shall revert to the fund from which appropriated.

SECTION 6. All unexpended and unencumbered balances on June 30, 1929, in any of the appropriations made in section 20.20, statutes of 1927, to the conservation commission, which under section 5 of chapter 97 of the laws of 1929 reverted to the conservation fund, are appropriated to the conservation commission for the same purposes for which these appropriations were originally made.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved August 22, 1929.
