CHAPTER 422.

AN ACT to confer civil and criminal jurisdiction on the county court of Kenosha county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby conferred on the county court of Kenosha county, jurisdiction in all civil actions and proceedings in law and in equity, concurrent with and equal with the jurisdiction of the circuit court in said county, for all claims, demands and sums and to and concerning all property, not exceeding the sum or value of fifty thousand dollars; provided, that said county court shall have jurisdiction in all actions in said county for the foreclosure of mortgages and mechanics' liens, in which the amount claimed does not exceed the sum above mentioned, although the property to be affected by the judgment exceeds the sum of fifty thousand dollars in value; and of all actions for divorce or for affirmance or annulment of marriage contracts; and all actions for removing clouds and quieting title to real estate and all actions for partition of real estate; and in all bastardy actions and in all criminal cases except murder, manslaughter and homicide; and to the amount and within the limits aforesaid the county court shall be a court of general jurisdiction, with the same power and jurisdiction in all civil and criminal actions and proceedings, and including the power of review of records on certiorari, discharging mortgages of record, and such other special powers as are now or may hereafter be conferred by the statute upon the circuit court, coming within the above limitations, as belong to and are exercised by the circuit court in and for said county.

SECTION 2. There is hereby conferred on the county court of Kenosha county, jurisdiction concurrent with the circuit branch of the municipal court of Kenosha county, as contained in chapter 18 of the laws of 1909, and all acts amendatory thereof, and supplemental thereto; and the same is hereby adopted with all of the powers, duties and restrictions of said municipal court, to the same intent and purpose as if said chapter 18 of the laws of 1909 and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto were fully set forth herein; except that said county court shall not have jurisdiction of matters now cognizable by the justice branch of the said municipal court, and while the judge of said court holds the office of county judge he shall not practice his profession.

SECTION 3. In all examinations held before said county court for crimes and offenses not triable before the justice branch of said municipal court, the defendant, (if the evidence warrants), shall be bound over to the municipal or circuit court of Kenosha county, and in all cases of murder, manslaughter and homicide, (if the evidence warrants), the defendant shall be bound over to the circuit court of Kenosha county. ▽

SECTION 4. There shall be held by said county court, at the county seat, two jury terms of court; one on the second Monday in May and one on the second Monday in November of each year; special terms of said court may be called and held at any time by order of the judge thereof.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 423.

AN ACT to amend section 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, 17 and 18 of chapter 18 of the laws of 1909, relating to municipal court of Kenosha county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, 17 and 18 of chapter 18 of the laws of 1909 are amended to read: (Chapter 18, Laws of 1909) Section 3. The municipal court of Kenosha county shall have and exercise powers and jurisdiction concurrent with and equal to the circuit court of Kenosha county in bastardy cases and in all cases of crimes and misdemeanors arising in said county, * * * except homicide.

Section 4. Said municipal court shall have and exercise powers and jurisdiction in all civil actions and special proceedings within the county of Kenosha in law and equity, concurrent with, and equal to the jurisdiction of the circuit court for Kenosha county, where the value of the property in controversy, or the amount of money claimed or sought to be recovered, after deducting all payments and set-offs, shall not exceed * * * fifty thousand dollars, and also of all actions for the foreclosure of mortgages, and mechanic's liens, in which the amount claimed does not exceed the sum aforesaid, although the value of the property to be affected exceed that sum.

Section 6. The municipal judge, in addition to the powers vested in said municipal court, as aforesaid, shall have all the powers and jurisdiction of a justice of the peace in said county in all civil and criminal actions and proceedings, and the power to hear and determine any such cases although the title to land may come into question therein, and shall have power to hold preliminary examinations in criminal cases; and shall have ex-
