CHAPTER 506.

AN ACT to create sections 96.60 to 96.66 and section 20.73, of the statutes, relating to the development of centralized systems of the co-operative marketing of the farm and dairy products of Wisconsin, and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Eight new sections are added to the statutes to read: 96.60 The history of the farm marketing problem in the state and nation, as well as throughout the world, points to a solution chiefly through co-operative marketing efforts of producers. It is, hence, declared to be the policy of this state, in advancing the general good and public welfare, to assist in the organization and development of co-operative associations for production and marketing purposes along lines of dairy and other farm products.

96.61 (1) It shall be the duty of the department of agriculture and markets to promote the efficient marketing of the dairy and farm products of Wisconsin, through co-operative marketing associations now in operation or which may be organized hereafter, and it shall have authority to do all things reasonably necessary to the discharge of this duty.

(2) The department of agriculture and markets shall study the possibilities for increasing the markets for Wisconsin dairy and farm products and shall through publications, advertising and other appropriate methods endeavor to extend and improve these markets.

(3) The department of agriculture and markets may set aside a portion of its funds as a co-operative educational fund. The money so set aside shall be used to acquaint producers and consumers with the advantages to the general public of co-operative
