CHAPTER 117.

AN ACT to amend section 247.37 of the statutes, relating to judgments or decrees of divorce.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 247.37 of the statutes is amended to read: 247.37 (1) When a judgment or decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony is granted so far as it affects the status of the parties it shall not be effective until the expiration of one year from the date of the * * * granting of such judgment or decree; excepting that it shall immediately bar the parties from cohabitation together and that it may be reviewed on appeal during said period. But in case either party dies within said period, such judgment or decree, unless vacated or reversed, shall be deemed to have entirely severed the marriage relation immediately before such death. Should the parties cohabit together after * * * granting of such judgment or decree and before vacation or reversal of same, they shall be subject to the penalties provided by section 247.39.

(2) So far as said judgment or decree affects the status of the parties the court shall have power to vacate or modify the same for sufficient cause shown, upon its own motion, or upon the application of either party to the action, at any time within one year from the * * * granting of such judgment or decree, provided both parties are then living. But no such judgment or decree shall be vacated or modified without the service of notice of motion, or order to show cause on the divorce counsel, and on the parties to the action, if they be found. If the judgment or decree shall be vacated it shall restore the parties to the marital relation that existed before the * * * granting of such judgment or decree.

(3) It shall be the duty of every judge, who shall * * * grant a judgment or decree of divorce, to inform the parties appearing in court that the judgment or decree, so far as it affects
