CHAPTER 127.

AN ACT to create section 29.136 of the statutes, relating to the licensing of taxidermists and providing a penalty.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 29.136 (1) No person shall engage in the business of a taxidermist, as the term is generally understood, nor, for a consideration, mount, preserve, or prepare the dead body of any bird, animal, or fish, or any part thereof unless he shall first have secured a taxidermist's license from the state conservation commission. Such license shall be renewed annually and shall expire on the thirtieth day of September of each year. The fee therefor shall be five dollars.

(2) Every taxidermist shall keep a record and make an annual report to the state conservation commission, on forms which it shall supply, of all articles received in his business as a taxidermist, the kind and number of each, by whom owned, the residence of the owner; and of all shipments of such articles, by and to whom and where shipped, and the owner's address. All such records of taxidermists shall be subject to inspection by the conservation commission at any time.

(3) Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be fined not less than fifty or more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten nor more than sixty days.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
