

convicted of treason, murder in the first degree as defined by law, rape, kidnaping, or * * * of any crime for which a minimum penalty is fixed by statute at twenty years or more, the court may fix a term less than the maximum * * * prescribed by law for the offense, and the form of the sentence shall be substantially as follows:

“You are hereby sentenced to the state prison at Waupun at hard labor for a general indeterminate term of not less than (the minimum as fixed by the * * * law for the offense) years, and not more than (the maximum as fixed by the court) years” and shall have the force and effect of a sentence of the maximum term, subject to the power of actual release from confinement by the board of control or actual discharge of the governor upon recommendation of the board of control or by pardon as provided by law. If, through mistake or otherwise, any person shall be sentenced for a definite period of time for any offense for which he may be sentenced under the provisions of this section, such sentence shall not be void, but the person shall be deemed to be sentenced nevertheless as defined and required by the terms of this section. Persons convicted of treason, murder in the first degree as defined by law, rape, kidnaping, or in the case of any other crime for which a minimum penalty is fixed by statute at twenty years or more, shall be sentenced for a certain term of time. Nothing herein shall be construed to extend or modify the term of imprisonment of any person sentenced prior to the enactment of this statute.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
