

Wisconsin Session Laws, 1931

No. 36, S.]

[Published February 5, 1931.]

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT relating to expert and clerical assistants or other expenses for the joint committee on finance and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The joint committee on finance of the legislature of the session of 1931 is empowered to employ trained experts in accounting and statistics, and such other assistants as may be necessary; such experts and assistants shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 16 and subsection (1) of section 13.14 of the statutes.

SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general fund for the legislative session of 1931 to carry out the provisions of this act not to exceed ten thousand dollars, to be paid upon the approval and order of the chairman of the senate and assembly divisions of the joint committee on finance, said appropriation to be available for any bills incurred for help or other expenses by the joint finance committee since the date of its organization.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved February 3, 1931.

CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT making an appropriation for compensation to the hold-over members of the state senate.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Each state senator elected in 1928 shall receive for services for and during the 1931 regular session of the legislature the sum of five hundred dollars, and ten cents for every mile he shall travel to and from the meeting place of the legislature on the most usual route. Should it be subsequently legally determined that such holdover senators are or may be entitled to the salary allowed by law to senators elected in 1930, the acceptance of the sum herein provided shall be no bar to such additional compensation. In case of an extra session of the legislature, no additional compensation shall be allowed to any such state senator except for mileage to be computed at the same rate as for a regular session.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved February 12, 1931.
