CHAPTER 279.

AN ACT to create section 14.205 of the statutes, authorizing the governor to accept on behalf of the state any funds which may hereafter be made available to the state of Wisconsin by the federal government for the education, health, relief of indigency, or promotion of agriculture among Wisconsin Indians, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 14.205 (1) Whenever the United States government shall make available funds for the education, the promotion of health, the relief of indigency, the promotion of agriculture or for any other purpose other than the administration of the tribal or any individual funds of Wisconsin Indians, the governor on behalf of the state is authorized to accept the funds so made available. In exercising the authority herein conferred, the governor may stipulate as a condition of the acceptance of the act of Congress by this state such conditions as in his discretion may be necessary to safeguard the interests of the state of Wisconsin.

(2) Whenever funds shall be made available to the state of Wisconsin through an act of Congress and acceptance thereof as
