

officer, or who shall, in any way, knowingly and intentionally counsel, advise or procure any other person to resist any such officer so lawfully engaged in the execution of such process or in lawfully doing such other act as such officer, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year or by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

SECTION 2. A new section is added to the statutes to be numbered and to read: 29.64 Any person who shall assault or otherwise wilfully resist or obstruct any conservation warden in the performance of his duty shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 19, 1931.

No. 121, S.]

[Published June 20, 1931.

CHAPTER 279.

AN ACT to create section 14.205 of the statutes, authorizing the governor to accept on behalf of the state any funds which may hereafter be made available to the state of Wisconsin by the federal government for the education, health, relief of indigency, or promotion of agriculture among Wisconsin Indians, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 14.205 (1) Whenever the United States government shall make available funds for the education, the promotion of health, the relief of indigency, the promotion of agriculture or for any other purpose other than the administration of the tribal or any individual funds of Wisconsin Indians, the governor on behalf of the state is authorized to accept the funds so made available. In exercising the authority herein conferred, the governor may stipulate as a condition of the acceptance of the act of Congress by this state such conditions as in his discretion may be necessary to safeguard the interests of the state of Wisconsin.

(2) Whenever funds shall be made available to the state of Wisconsin through an act of Congress and acceptance thereof as provided in subsection (1), the governor shall designate the state board, commission or department to administer any of such funds, and the board, commission or department so designated by the governor is hereby authorized and directed to administer such fund for the purpose designated by the act of congress making an appropriation of such funds, or by the department of the United States government making such funds available to the state of Wisconsin.

(3) Any and all funds which may be paid to the state of Wisconsin under the authority of this section, shall, upon receipt, be paid into the state treasury, and the same shall be and hereby are appropriated to the state board, commission or department designated by the governor to administer the same. Expenditures of such funds shall be made in the same manner and subject to the laws, rules and regulations governing payments made by the state treasury, and further such expenditures shall be made in accord with federal rules and regulations. If funds made available be retained by the government of the United States, then the officers and employes of the state of Wisconsin designated to administer same shall be governed by the act of congress and the rules and regulations of the federal government.

(4) Any board, commission or department of the state government designated to administer any such fund, shall, in the administration of such fund, comply with the requirements of the act of congress making such appropriation and with the rules and regulations which may be prescribed by the United States government or by the department of the federal government making such funds available.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 19, 1931.

No. 177, S.]

[Published June 20, 1931.

CHAPTER 280.

AN ACT to create section 285.06 of the statutes, relating to the jurisdiction of state courts in cases in which state statutes or administrative orders are attacked in the federal courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows: