CHAPTER 357.

AN ACT to create subsection (4) of section 57.02 of the statutes, relating to probation of offenders.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (57.02) (4) In all counties having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand or more, the district court shall have charge of all persons placed on probation by that court pursuant to sections 57.04 and 57.05 of the statutes instead of the state board of control; and said court shall appoint one chief probation officer, who shall be a resident of said county, at a salary of not less than fifteen hundred dollars per annum and such necessary expenses as may from time to time be allowed by the county board, to be paid as other county officers are paid. Said probation officer shall be an officer of said court and subject to its control, shall have power of arrest, and shall execute all orders of the court affecting such probationers. The county board shall provide quarters and stationery for the use of said chief probation officer and may, from time to time, provide for and fix the salaries of additional probation officers, who shall be subordinate to said chief probation officer. Said chief probation officer shall report to the court as provided in subsection (4) of section 57.04 and the clerk of the court shall transmit a copy of such reports to the state board of control.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 25, 1931.
