CHAPTER 443.

AN ACT to extend for one month the time for the payment of income taxes in 1931.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The taxes on incomes of persons who report on a calendar year basis which under the provisions of subsection (4) of section 71.10 of the statutes became due and payable on June 1, 1931, shall not become delinquent if paid at any time prior to August 1, 1931, and the county treasurers shall not be required to pay to the state treasurer and to the local treasurers the share of such income taxes to which the state and the several cities, towns and villages within the county, respectively, are entitled until August 20, 1931. It is the purpose of this act that the time for the payment of income taxes in the year 1931 shall be extended for one month, due to the existing industrial and agricultural depression, and all provisions of the statutes shall be construed to give effect to this intent.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
