CHAPTER 330.

AN ACT to renumber subsections (3), (4), and (5) of section 51.01 and subsections (1), (2), and (3) of section 51.02, to become, respectively, subsections (2), (1), (3), (4), (5), and (6) of section 51.02, and to amend subsections (1), (2), (4), and (5) (as renumbered) of said section 51.02 of the statutes, relating to commitments to hospitals for the insane.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsections (3), (4), and (5) of section 51.01 are renumbered to be subsections (2), (1), and (3), respectively, of section 51.02, and subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section 51.02 are renumbered to be subsections (4), (5), and (6) of said section of the statutes.

SECTION 2. Subsections (1), (2), (4), and (5) of section 51.02, as renumbered in section 1, are amended to read: (51.02) (1) * * * *The judge shall * * * give notice to the person to be examined that application has been made for an inquiry into his mental condition, withholding the names of the applicants if * * * he deems wise, and that * * * a preliminary hearing on such application will be held at a time and place specified in the notice at which such person can be heard in respect to the same.*
* * *

(2) * * * *Such preliminary hearing shall be without a jury. If from evidence presented at such hearing the judge shall be satisfied that there is good reason to believe that the person alleged to be insane is in fact insane, such judge shall appoint two disinterested physicians to examine * * * such person * * * who shall have been duly licensed to practice and shall have had at least two years' experience in the practice of their profession, or one year's experience after graduation as physicians in an insane hospital, and shall be registered by the county judge as thus qualified on a list which shall be kept for that purpose in his office.*

Such physicians shall prepare a statement of facts alleged, and shall make a written report of their findings.

(4) If it appears from the report of the examining physicians that the * * * person examined is in their opinion insane the judge * * * shall appoint a time and place for hearing the application, and shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the alleged insane person in the manner a summons is required to be served as prescribed in subsection (1) of section 262.08. * * *

(5) If * * * a jury trial be not awarded, as provided in section 51.03, the judge may proceed at the time and place specified in such notice, or if such notice be not ordered, then upon the report of the physicians, he may proceed summarily, to make such further investigation as may seem to him necessary and proper; and if he shall be satisfied by all the evidence adduced that said person is insane, he may order him to be committed to the hospital or asylum for the insane as provided in section 51.05, stating in such order that the same was made without personal notice to the person adjudged insane, and the reasons, in brief, for failure to require such notice.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 28, 1933.

CHAPTER 331.

AN ACT to amend section 70.06 of the statutes, relating to assessment of real and personal property.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70.06 of the statutes is amended to read:
70.06 The assessor of each assessment district shall begin as soon as practicable after the April election, in assessment districts where an assessor is elected at such election, and in other assessment districts as soon as practicable after the first day of January in each year, and proceed to assess all the real and personal property liable to taxation in such district. Such assessment shall be completed, if possible, before the day set for the meeting of the board of review in each district but in any event, except in cities of the first class, shall be finally completed before the first Monday in August. All real and personal property shall be assessed as of the
