CHAPTER 379.

AN ACT to create section 231.33 of the statutes, relating to the right of executors, administrators, guardians or trustees to retain in their possession stocks, bonds or securities possessed by any deceased person at the time of his death, and exempting the same from the provisions of section 231.32 under certain conditions.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read:
 231.33 RETENTION OF SECURITIES BY EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS, GUARDIANS AND TRUSTEES. Every executor, administrator, guardian or trustee may continue to hold any stocks, bonds or securities which may have been possessed by any deceased person at the time of his death, and which shall pass to such executor, administrator, guardian or trustee by virtue of any will or instrument of trust, if in the judgment of such executor, administrator, guardian or trustee the sale or disposition of the same is not advantageous to said estate or trust, upon obtaining an order from the county court in which said estate or trust is being administered, authorizing the holding of the same for such period of time as shall be designated in said order, notwithstanding any of the provisions of section 231.32 of the statutes. Any heir or beneficiary shall have the right at any time to file an application with the county court in which said estate or trust is being administered for the purpose of compelling the sale of such stocks, bonds or securities so held, and to compel the investment of the proceeds in accordance with the provisions of section 231.32 of the statutes. Upon the filing of such application said county court shall conduct a hearing, after giving to all persons interested in said estate or trust such notice as shall be designated by said court, and upon such hearing said court shall enter an order thereon directing the retention or sale of such stocks, bonds or securities as may be for the best interests of said estate or trust.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 380.

AN ACT to amend subsection (8) of section 48.07 of the statutes, relating to appeals from juvenile courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (8) of section 48.07 of the statutes is amended to read: (48.07) (8) In any case where a child is found, determined or adjudged by the juvenile court to be dependent, neglected or delinquent or in case of the transfer of the permanent control, care and custody of a child or the termination of the rights of the parents with reference to such child, appeal may be taken to the circuit court *of the same county * * * or if the circuit judge is the judge of the juvenile court, directly to the supreme court. In the case of an appeal to the circuit court the appellant shall have a new trial which shall be without a jury unless a jury is demanded. Such appeal may be taken within forty days from the date of said finding, determination, or judgment in the manner in which appeals are taken from judgments in civil actions.* No undertaking shall be required on such appeal. The finding, determination or judgment of said juvenile court shall stand, pending the determination of * * * such appeal but the circuit or supreme court may, upon application and in its discretion, stay said finding, determination or judgment pending such appeal, upon the giving of a suitable bond for the care and maintenance of * * * such child in wholesome and proper surroundings to be approved by the court.
