CHAPTER 80.

AN ACT to create section 180.12 of the statutes, relating to transfer of property and powers of corporations without capital stock.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 180.12 (1) Whenever the board of directors of any domestic corporation organized without capital stock shall determine that a sale or mortgaging of the whole or any part of its property is desirable, and that by reason of the removal, nonresidence of a great number of its members, or the loss of its records of membership, or other cause, it is impossible to call or hold any regular meeting at which a majority of the members can be represented in person or by proxy, the said board may cause a verified petition to be made in behalf of said corporation and presented to the circuit judge of the county in which said corporation shall have its location. Such petition shall set forth the date of the organization and the purpose of said corporation, the nature and extent of its property, reasons for the sale or mortgaging of the whole or any part thereof, the facts preventing the calling or holding of a meeting of a majority of its members and such other matters as may be deemed material. Upon presentation thereof the circuit judge shall by order fix a time and place for a meeting of the members of such corporation and prescribe the time and manner of giving, and contents of a notice of said meeting, and direct the publication thereof in a newspaper designated in said order as the one most likely to give general notice of such meeting.

(2) A majority of the members present at any meeting so called shall have power to sell, convey or mortgage or authorize to be sold, conveyed or mortgaged the whole or any part of the property described in such petition.

(3) If such sale or mortgaging be approved or authorized, the officers of said corporation shall cause the petition, the order of the judge, proof by affidavit of the giving of notice of said meeting as required by said order and a certified copy of the minutes of the said meeting to be promptly filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of said county upon payment to said clerk of the fees properly chargeable in a special proceeding. Upon such filing, such property may be conveyed or mortgaged with the same right and authority as if such sale or mortgaging had been authorized by a majority in number of all members of said corporation.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 13, 1933.

CHAPTER 81.

AN ACT to extend date of tax sales in the year 1933.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The county treasurer shall, on the fourth Monday of June in the year 1933, make out a statement of all lands upon which the taxes have been returned as delinquent and which then remained unpaid, except public lands held on contract and lands mortgaged to the state, containing a brief description thereof, with an accompanying notice stating that so much of each tract or parcel of land described in said statement as may be necessary therefor will, on the first Tuesday in August next thereafter and the next succeeding days, be sold by him at public auction at some public place, naming the same, at the seat of justice of the county, for the payment of taxes, interest and charges thereon; and if in any county no seat of justice shall be established then at such public place therein as he may select; and cause such statement and notice to be published in a newspaper printed in his county, if there be one, and if there be none, then in a newspaper printed in an adjoining county, if there be one, but if there be no newspaper printed in the same or an adjoining county, then such statement and notice shall be published in the official state paper, which statement and notice shall in all cases be published once in each week for four successive weeks prior to said first Tuesday in August, and such treasurer shall also, at least four weeks previous to said
