

health, or county boards, in any public health or educational capacity.

(b) The qualifications of all public health dental hygienists or instructors in dental hygiene hereafter entering such employment shall be determined by a committee of 3 examiners, one selected by the state board of health, who is a dental employe of that board, one member of the state board of dental examiners to be named by that board and one selected by the state superintendent of public instruction who is an employe of that department.

(c) Candidates recommended by the committee of examiners shall be certified by the state board of health to the local appointing body upon request and appointment shall be made from the certified list.

(d) Public health dental hygienists or instructors shall make a written report monthly in triplicate, one copy to the employing board, one to the local directing committee or officer, and one to the state board of health, showing the work done. The state board of health, through its department of dental education, shall examine the report and make recommendations for the improvement and the development of the dental hygiene service.

(e) The state board of health shall prescribe forms and equipment and notify the public dental hygienists where they can be purchased.

(f) This subsection shall not apply to cities of the first class.

(g) Any violation of this subsection shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100.

CHAPTER 113.

AN ACT to create 221.04 (7) of the statutes, relating to the powers of state banks.

Subsection (7) of section 221.04 of the statutes is created to read:

(221.04) (7) Any state bank, mutual savings bank or trust company bank may, by resolution of its board of directors authorizing such action, act whenever designated by the secretary of the treasury of the United States or by any other instrumentality of the United States, as agent for said secretary of the treasury or other instrumentality of the United States in the sale of bonds or other obligations of the United States or in such other matters as said secretary of the treasury or other instrumentality of the United States may designate. Any of said institutions may enter into such contracts, incur such obligations or make such investment or pledge of its assets, and generally do and perform all such acts and things whatsoever as may be necessary or appropriate in order to exercise the powers hereby granted. Provided, however, that any state bank, mutual savings bank or trust company bank may exercise such powers only upon express approval previously granted by the banking commission of Wisconsin, and in such manner and to such extent as said banking commission may in its discretion approve, and with such limitations upon the exercise of said powers as said banking commission may in its discretion impose.
