

mail, but no voting by proxy shall be allowed at any election or upon any question except as provided in subsection (3). Notice of such election shall be published once in each week for 4 successive weeks immediately preceding the date fixed therefor in at least 2 newspapers of general circulation in this state, one published in the city of Madison, and one at the place where the home office of the company is located.

SECTION 2. 206.04 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

206.04 (3) A domestic mutual life insurance company which, by its articles of incorporation and bylaws, is limited to writing insurance on the lives of members of one or more of the groups set forth in section 201.04 (3) (c) may provide in its bylaws for the selection of representatives or delegates from specific districts as fixed in the bylaws, and may provide therein that there shall be no voting by mail. Such delegates or representatives may exercise all the voting powers, rights and privileges of the policyholders they represent, except the right of signing and acknowledging for them the nomination certificate as provided in sections 206.05, 206.06 and 206.07 with the same force and effect as if such voting rights, powers and privileges had been exercised by the policyholders. Except as herein provided, the elections conducted by mutual life insurance companies operating in accordance with this subsection shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER 122.

AN ACT to amend 319.37 (2) of the statutes, relating to persons who may act as guardians of funds or estates of incompetent veterans.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

319.37 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

319.37 (2) Compensation payable to guardians of war veterans shall not exceed 5 per cent of the income of the ward during any year. In the event of extraordinary services rendered by any guardian, the court may upon petition and after notice to the veterans' administration and hearing thereon, authorize reasonable additional compensation therefor payable from the estate of the ward. Notice of such petition and hearing shall be given to the veterans' administration. No commission or compensation shall be allowed on the estate received from a preceding guardian of a war veteran. No official of the state or federal government, whether elective or appointive, shall act as the guardian of funds or the estate of an incompetent veteran, but a state court commissioner or a notary public may act as such guardian.

CHAPTER 123.

AN ACT to create 20.34 (1a) and (6) of the statutes, relating to sums received from the federal government for operating expenses at Stout institute, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

20.34 (1a) and (6) of the statutes are created to read:

20.34 (1a) All moneys received since July 1, 1942 from the federal government whether directly or indirectly through the agencies of state or local government in payment of charges for extra janitor, watchman, and engineer services, heat and light and other services in connection with vocational training for war production workers shall be deposited within one week of receipt into the general fund and are appropriated to the board of trustees of Stout institute for operating expenses.

(6) (a) On the effective date of this subsection, a sum sufficient to set up revolving funds for administering educational courses for war service under the direction of the United States. Money from the appropriation made by this paragraph shall not become available until released by the emergency board. The money shall be made available by the emergency board at such times and in such amounts as the board may determine to be necessary to adequately provide for the purposes for which it is appropriated. If the provision relating to release by the emergency
