CHAPTER 191.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 9 of chapter 396, Laws of 1937, relating to the establishment and administration of retirement systems in cities of the first class and providing benefits for employes of such cities and their widows and children.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Subsection (1) of section 9 of chapter 396, Laws of 1937 is amended to read:

(Chapter 396, Laws of 1937) (Sections 9) (1) The board shall be the trustees of the several funds of the system and shall have full power in its sole discretion to invest and reinvest, alter and change these funds, and the board shall not be held liable for the exercise of more than ordinary care and prudence in the selection of such investments and shall not be limited to so-called "legal investments for trustees", but all funds of the system, except as hereinafter set forth, shall be invested subject to all of the conditions, limitations and restrictions imposed by law upon life insurance companies in the state of Wisconsin in the making and disposing of their investments. The board may cause to be invested such funds as it deems advisable in tax sale certificates of any city of the first class and shall be vested with the same rights as other purchasers. Whenever investments shall be made in tax sale certificates of such city, the city treasurer shall repurchase all certificates the board may desire to dispose of upon proper assignment being made. The board may also invest its funds in any short term notes issued by any city of the first class.
