CHAPTER 444.

AN ACT to amend 48.07 (6) (a) of the statutes, relating to chargeability for the support of children.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

48.07 (6) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

48.07 (6) (a) Whenever a child is committed by the court to custody other than that of his parent and no provision is otherwise made by law for the support of such child, compensation for the care of such child, when approved by order of the court, shall be a charge upon the county, except in counties maintaining a county home for dependent children. In counties in which such a home is being maintained, the county board may authorize the payment for care of children in private homes or private institutions and fix the maximum rate to be paid thereof. But the court may, after giving a parent a reasonable opportunity to be heard, adjudge that such parent shall pay in such manner as the court may direct such sum as will cover in whole or in part the support of such child at the county home for dependent children or at any private home or private institution in which such child is being cared for, and if such parent shall wilfully fail or refuse to pay such sum he may be proceeded against as for contempt of court.
