CHAPTER 236.

AN ACT to amend 40.21 (7) of the statutes, relating to the computation of tuition for nonresident students during periods when schools are closed because of contagion.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

40.21 (7) of the statutes is amended to read:

40.21 (7) Tuition pupils shall have all the rights and privileges enjoyed by resident pupils. In computing tuition, 5 school days, including the legal holidays, shall constitute a school week; 20 school days, including legal holidays, shall constitute a school month. No deduction of tuition shall be made on account of absence on the part of any pupil, unless such pupil shall have been absent 10 consecutive school days. In case of a longer absence at one time, deduction shall be made only for the absence in excess of 10 days, provided that when a school is closed pursuant to an order of the health officer during the term regularly established by the school board, and the expenses of instruction and maintenance are incurred by the district the same as if the school were operating, tuition shall be charged the same as if the school had been in session. This amendment (1945) shall be applicable to the 1944-1945 school year.
