CHAPTER 324.

AN ACT to amend 192.01 of the statutes, relating to stations maintained and train stops.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

192.01 of the statutes is amended to read:

192.01 Every corporation operating a railroad shall maintain a station at every village, whether incorporated or not, having a post office and containing 200 inhabitants or more, through or within one-eighth of a mile of which its line of road runs, and shall provide the necessary arrangements, receive and discharge freight and passengers, and shall stop at least one passenger train each day each way at such station, if trains are run on such road to that extent. Every such corporation neglecting or refusing fully to comply with this section, after demand therefor by any resident of such village, shall forfeit not less than $25 nor more than $50 for each and every day such neglect or refusal shall continue, one-half to the use of the person prosecuting therefor; but the public service commission may by order relieve any railroad corporation from compliance with all or any part of this section as to any such village.

Approved June 18, 1945.
