CHAPTER 449.

AN ACT to amend chapter 293, laws of 1943, relating to the appropriations of certain accrued balances for the state office building, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Chapter 293, laws of 1943, is amended to read:

(Chapter 293, Laws of 1943) All construction or equipment balances accruing under chapter 385, laws of 1931; chapter 120, laws of 1937 and chapter 54, laws of 1939, are reappropriated as a nonlapsible appropriation to the state office building commission to be applied toward the completion and equipment of the state office building project in accordance with the original design and intent and such incidental services in connection with the completion of the state office building project as the commission may deem proper and for the best interest of the state and for which it may contract with the approval of the governor. The used portion of this appropriation, together with the used portion of any subsequent appropriation for the completion and equipment of said project, shall be amortized to reimburse the state insurance fund in a period of not to exceed 20 years, with simple interest of 3 per cent per annum to begin from dates of withdrawals. Said amortization shall begin when the project is completed, occupied and income-producing.

Approved July 10, 1945.
