

requirements of this chapter shall be ground for annulment of the order of adoption within 2 years after date of entry thereof. Except as provided in subsection (2), an order for adoption made by a court of this state which had jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject matter shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and in all proceedings after 2 years from the date of entry thereof.

(2) If the adopted person develops mental illness, mental deficiency, epilepsy or venereal disease before he is 14 years of age and from conditions existing prior to adoption, of which conditions the parents by adoption had no knowledge or information, they may petition the county court of the county in which they reside, before the adopted person is 15 years of age, for the annulment of the adoption, and if the court finds that the facts bring the petitioners within this subsection, it shall revoke the adoption and make the state department of public welfare the legal guardian of the child.

(3) The department shall be made a party to proceedings in which the validity of an adoption is an issue. Notice of the proceedings shall be served upon the department in the same manner as upon an adverse party.
