CHAPTER 270.

AN ACT to amend 34.03 (1) (j) (as renumbered) and to renumber 34.03 (introductory paragraph) and 34.03 (j) of the statutes, relating to the powers and duties of the board of deposits.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 34.03 (Introductory paragraph) of the statutes is renumbered to be 34.03 (1).

SECTION 2. 34.03 (j) of the statutes is renumbered 34.03 (1) (j) and amended to read:

34.03 (1) (j) To and shall designate public depositories for deposits of state funds * * * and public money coming into the hands of the state treasurer, prescribe and allocate the deposits of state moneys and * * * limit the amount of public moneys which may be deposited in any public depository so designated. It shall have all the powers and duties with relation to the state treasurer and state moneys that are herein granted and imposed upon other governing boards, and only such banks as have been named by the board of deposits as working banks shall carry state deposits on which checks are drawn to conduct the daily business of the state, all of which deposits shall be payable on demand. The board of deposits may designate banks as special depositories in which the state treasurer may make special deposits of funds, not exceeding the amount limited by the board of deposits, which are not currently needed for the conduct of the daily business of the state, which special deposits shall be deposited subject to such bank's rules and regulations relative to either savings accounts, time certificates of deposit or open time accounts, as the case may be, and shall bear interest at the rate of 1-1/2 per cent per annum, payable quarterly, until changed by the board of deposits. Public depositories heretofore designated as state depositories shall continue as such until further action by the board of deposits and special deposits heretofore made by the state treasurer shall be transferred by such special depositories from demand accounts to either savings accounts, time certificates of deposit or open time accounts as directed by the state treasurer.

CHAPTER 271.

AN ACT to amend 83.015 (1) (a) of the statutes, relating to the compensation of members of county highway committees.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

83.015 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

83.015 (1) (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) each county board at the annual meeting shall by ballot elect a committee of not less than 3 nor more than 5 persons, to serve for one year, beginning either as soon as elected or on January 1 following their election, as designated by the county board, and until their successors are elected. Any vacancy in the committee may be filled until the next meeting of the county board by appointment made by the chairman of the board. The committee shall be known as the "County Highway Committee," and shall be the only committee representing the county in the expenditure of county funds in constructing or maintaining, or aiding in constructing or maintaining highways. The members of such committee shall be reimbursed for their necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, and shall
