The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 85.08 (2) (c) of the statutes is created to read:

85.08 (2) (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, when so ordered by the court wherein the conviction occurred or wherein a judgment for damages was had or pursuant to petition of the registrant to the court when there is no conviction or judgment, the commissioner shall not revoke or suspend registration or require the surrender or direct any person to take possession of, the registration plates, registration certificates, registration plate inserts or windshield regulation stickers of the registrant involved. Upon receiving information, other than of a conviction or judgment for damages in a court of this state, that would be cause for suspension or revocation of registration, the commissioner shall notify the registrant of his intention to suspend or revoke such registration. The registrant may thereupon petition any court of record in his county for an order enjoining the commissioner's contemplated action, whereupon the judge of such court shall grant an order restraining the commissioner in the matter until the petition is finally determined by the court. If such petition and order are served upon the commissioner within 10 days after the date of such commissioner's notice, or before the commissioner has taken any action, the commissioner shall await the final determination of the court. The commissioner shall be given notice of the hearing. Upon a showing that it would result in undue hardship upon the petitioner to have any such registration revoked or suspended the court shall issue an order restraining the commissioner from revoking or suspending the registration.

85.09 (2) (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, when so ordered by the court wherein the conviction occurred or wherein a judgment for damages was had or pursuant to petition of the registrant to the court when there is no conviction or judgment, the commissioner shall not revoke or suspend registration or require the surrender or direct any person to take possession of, the registration plates, registration certificates, registration plate inserts or windshield regulation stickers of the registrant involved. Upon receiving information, other than of a conviction or judgment for damages in a court of this state, that would be cause for suspension or revocation of registration, the commissioner shall notify the registrant of his intention to suspend or revoke such registration. The registrant may thereupon petition any court of record in his county for an order enjoining the commissioner's contemplated action, whereupon the judge of such court shall grant an order restraining the commissioner in the matter until the petition is finally determined by the court. If such petition and order are served upon the commissioner within 10 days after the date of such commissioner's notice, or before the commissioner has taken any action, the commissioner shall await the final determination of the court. The commissioner shall be given notice of the hearing. Upon a showing that it would result in undue hardship upon the petitioner to have any such registration revoked or suspended the court shall issue an order restraining the commissioner from revoking or suspending the registration.
