CHAPTER 479.

AN ACT to create 188.18 of the statutes, relating to corporate powers of the reserve officers association of the United States.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

188.18 of the statutes is created to read:

188.18 CORPORATE POWERS OF RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION.

(1) The department of Wisconsin and any chapter or unit of the reserve officers association of the United States, organized in this state pursuant to the constitution, by-laws and rules and regulations of such association or such department, shall have full corporation power to transact business in this state and to take over the assets and liabilities of the existing department, chapters or other units upon filing with the secretary of state, a statement of its intention so to do, its name, location and a full and complete list of its duly elected officers, and by so doing shall become a body corporate. Each such chapter, department or other unit shall file with the secretary of state on or before June 1 of each calendar year thereafter, a like statement and list of its duly elected officers. No filing fees shall be charged by the secretary of state for so doing.

(2) All acts done by the department or any chapter or other unit so incorporated or its constituted authorities, shall be considered acts of such department, chapter or other unit as a body corporate and no personal liability shall be attached to any member thereof. The provisions of section 180.02 (2) shall not apply to corporations organized under this section.

(3) Any department, chapter or other unit which has become a body corporate under the provisions of this section, whenever its constitution or by-laws do not provide the manner in which its name shall be changed or the dissolution effected, may change its name or dissolve by a majority vote of its members at a meeting called for that purpose. A certificate signed by the president and secretary stating the facts shall be filed with the secretary of state, and thereupon the name shall be changed or the corporation shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs. No filing fee shall be charged for such filing.
