CHAPTER 637.

AN ACT to amend 42.28 and to create 42.35 (3) of the statutes, relating to the university retirement association and the state retirement system.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 42.28 of the statutes is amended to read:

42.28 The university retirement association shall include as members all senior teachers in the university and all teachers and former teachers in the university who have a credit in the retirement deposit fund or have a reserve in the annuity reserve fund, but shall exclude all part-time teachers at the university below the grade of instructor and all teachers who are or may be entitled to any benefit from the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching under any plan in force prior to the seventeenth day of November, 1915.

SECTION 2. 42.35 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

42.35 (3) Persons on leave from an educational institution not under the state retirement system and who are visiting professors, visiting associate professors, visiting assistant professors, or visiting lecturers at the university of Wisconsin shall not come under the provisions of the state retirement system provided their employment at the university is for not more than one year. If their employment at the university is continued for more than one year they will, at the start of the second year of such employment, come under the provisions of the state retirement system.

Approved July 13, 1951.
