CHAPTER 422

AN ACT to create 61.74 of the statutes, relating to detachment of farm lands from villages.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

61.74 of the statutes is created to read:

61.74 DETACHMENT OF FARM LANDS FROM VILLAGES. Land of an area of 200 acres or more contiguous to the boundary of any village which has been within the corporate limits of such village for 20 years or more and which during all of said time has been used exclusively for agricultural purposes may be detached from such village and annexed to an adjoining town or towns in a proceeding as provided by s. 62.075 in the case of such detachments from cities. For the purpose of this section, the provisions of s. 62.075 govern wherever applicable, except the word "village" is substituted for the word "city" as used therein.

Approved July 2, 1953.
