CHAPTER 622

AN ACT to create 20.800 (1) (a) of the statutes, relating to the establishment of a contingent fund to redeem bad checks.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

20.800 (1) (a) of the statutes is created to read:

20.800 (1) (a) Contingent fund. Out of the appropriation for the operation of the individual income tax division, there is allotted to each district office, subject to the approval of the emergency board, such sums as may be necessary to be used as a contingent fund to be expended to redeem bad checks returned to the state treasurer or the bank in which the district office deposits individual income tax revenues.

Approved August 14, 1957.
