CHAPTER 238

AN ACT granting to the city of Kenosha all the right, title and interest of this state in and to land submerged beneath that portion of Pike creek which lies between 52nd Street and Washington Park in said city.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

All right, title and interest of the state in and to land submerged beneath the waters of that portion of Pike creek which lies between 52nd Street and Washington Park in the city of Kenosha, is hereby granted to the city of Kenosha. This grant is made to make clear that the grant made by this state to the city of Kenosha by chapter 40, laws of 1957, included the land submerged beneath Pike creek above the Sixth Avenue bridge, said city, and up to said Washington Park, the grant being made pursuant to act of congress (P. L. 169, 84th Congress, 1st session) which declared Pike creek above the easterly side of the highway bridge at Sixth Avenue in the city of Kenosha to be a nonnavigable stream within the meaning of the constitution and laws of the United States.

Approved July 11, 1961.
