CHAPTER 361

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 20.530 (1) (e) of the statutes, relating to salary payments of deceased members of the legislature.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

20.530 (1) (e) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

20.530 (1) (e) The salary of any member who dies during his term of office shall be paid monthly to a beneficiary named by him in writing and filed with the clerk of the house of which he is a member, until a personal representative has been appointed and qualified, and then to such personal representative until his successor has been elected and qualified. When any person elected a member dies before commencement of the term of office to which he is elected, he shall be deemed a member dying during such term of office and his salary shall be paid monthly to his estate or personal representative until his successor is elected and qualified.

Approved August 4, 1961.
