CHAPTER 434

AN ACT to amend 103.49 (2) of the statutes, relating to the prevailing wage rate on state work.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

103.49 (2) of the statutes is amended to read :

103.49 (2) The prevailing wage rate in any trade or occupation in any county shall be the rate paid per hour plus the hourly contribution for health and welfare benefits, vacation benefits, pension benefits and any other economic benefit, whether paid directly or indirectly, to a majority of all persons employed in such trade or occupation in such county, or if there is no rate at which a majority are employed then the prevailing wage rate shall be the rate which is paid to a larger number of employes than any other rate paid in such county for work in such trade or occupation.

Approved September 5, 1961.
