CHAPTER 62

AN ACT to create 67.04 (1) (y) of the statutes, relating to municipal borrowing by counties.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

67.04 (1) (y) of the statutes is created to read:

67.04 (1) (y) To acquire sites and to erect or acquire and to improve and equip buildings or additions to buildings to be used as instructional centers or special schools for handicapped children under s. 41.01; provided that taxes for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds shall be levied only against taxable property in such county other than that which, at the time of the issuance of such bonds, was situated within a city operating its schools under the city school plan provided by ss. 40.80 to 40.827, or within territory attached to said city for school purposes only, and which city was not then participating in the county's program for handicapped children under s. 41.01.

Approved May 12, 1961.
