CHAPTER 262, LAWS OF 1969

AN ACT to create 947.06 (4) and (5) of the statutes, relating to criminal penalties for causing, attempting to cause or participating in unlawful assemblies at public institutions of higher education.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

947.06 (4) and (5) of the statutes are created to read:

947.06 (4) Whoever causes, attempts to cause, or participates in an unlawful assembly upon any property of a public institution of higher education or upon any highway abutting on such property, is punishable under sub. (3) if he fails to withdraw from the assembly promptly upon issuance of an order to disperse, if such order is given in such manner that such person can reasonably be expected to hear or read such order.

(5) Whoever, being employed in any capacity by or enrolled as a student in such institution, is convicted under subs. (1) to (4) may be sentenced additionally or alternatively to not to exceed 6 months suspension without pay from his employment by such institution if he is an employe, or suspension from enrollment in such institution if he is a student, or both if he is both. If such suspension is thus imposed, the institution shall not thereafter either impose any other discipline upon him for his connection with the unlawful assembly. Any period of suspension from employment by or enrollment in the institution already served shall be deducted by the court in imposing this sentence. Any period of imprisonment, whether or not he is authorized under s. 56.08 to continue as an employe or student while imprisoned, shall count as a period of suspension from employment or enrollment or both hereunder.
