Upon the establishment of the program, a party may request the department to arrange for mediation of a dispute at any time. 1. An explanation of the mediation process and its advantages.

2. A statement that participation in mediation is voluntary and that agreement or refusal to participate will not affect the resolution of the dispute in any pending or potential adjudicative process, or the timing of that process, unless the parties agree otherwise.

3. A request that the party notify the department within 5 business days after receiving the notice regarding the party's consent or refusal to participate in mediation.

(c) If the department does not receive a timely response under par. (b) 3. or if the other party notifies the department under par. (b) 3. of its refusal to participate in mediation, the department shall so notify the party that requested mediation.

(c) Whenever the department proposes a mediator under par. (b) 2. or 3., it shall send information about the mediator's training and experience to both parties. The mediator may recess a mediation session to consult privately with a party. If the mediator does so, he or she shall disclose the general purpose of the consultation but may not reveal other information about the consultation without the consent of the party consulted.

(e) Unless both parties and the mediator agree otherwise, no person may record a mediation session.

(f) The mediator and either party may withdraw from mediation at any time.

(g) No adverse inference may be drawn by any hearing officer or adjudicative body from the fact that a party did not consent to mediation, that a mediator or party withdrew from mediation or that mediation did not result in settlement of the dispute.

(6) AGREEMENTS. If the parties resolve the dispute or a portion of the dispute, or agree to use another procedure to resolve the dispute, the mediator shall ensure that the resolution or agreement is reduced to writing, that it is signed by the parties and that a copy is given to each party. The resolution or agreement is legally binding upon the parties.

(8) PROGRAM EVALUATION. The department may require that mediators, and may request that parties, participate in the evaluation of the mediation program. The department shall ensure that mediators and parties may participate in evaluating the program without being required to identify themselves or the other mediation participants. The department may not disclose a party's or mediator's evaluation to any other mediation participant without the party's or mediator's consent.
