1 AN ACT to amend 250.10 of the statutes; relating to: the provision of dental
2 services by the Marquette University School of Dentistry.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the department of health and family services (DHFS) provides funding for the Marquette University School of Dentistry to provide dental services in correctional centers in Milwaukee County and in clinics in the city of Milwaukee. This bill requires DHFS to also provide funding for the Marquette University School of Dentistry to provide dental services in Waushara and Monroe counties.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
