1 AN ACT to renumber 425.401; and to create subchapter VI of chapter 422
2 [precedes 422.601] and 425.401 (2) of the statutes; relating to: disclosure of 3 credit reports and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Wisconsin law currently does not specifically regulate the disclosure of credit reports to consumers by a credit reporting agency (agency). However, under current federal law, an agency must provide a consumer with five pieces of information upon request: all nonmedical information contained in the agency's files on the consumer, the sources of that information, the recipients of any credit report concerning the consumer, information regarding any checks that form the basis of an adverse characterization of the consumer, and a record of certain inquiries received by the agency that identified the consumer. Generally, unless the consumer's request is pursuant to a denial of credit or to a notice that the consumer's credit may be adversely affected, the agency may charge up to $8 for this disclosure. In certain circumstances, federal law prohibits an agency from disclosing the sources of information in a consumer's file.

This bill requires an agency, upon request, to provide one free written disclosure report to a consumer per year. In addition to the disclosure required by the federal law, this bill requires the agency to provide the consumer with a current credit report and a clear and concise explanation of the contents of the written disclosure report. This bill prohibits an agency from making certain disclosures prohibited under federal law. A person who violates this bill may be fined up to $500 for a first offense
