Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the pension benefits of certain public employees are exempt from state taxation. The pensions that are exempt include payments received from the U.S. civil service retirement system, the U.S. military employee retirement system, the Milwaukee city and county retirement systems, the Police Officer's Annuity and Benefit Fund of Milwaukee, the Milwaukee Public School Teachers' Retirement Fund, the Wisconsin State Teachers' Retirement Fund, and the Sheriff's Annuity and Benefit Fund of Milwaukee County. For all of these pension plans, the exemption applies only to persons who were members of or retired from the plans as of December 31, 1963.

This bill exempts from taxation certain amounts of payments or distributions received each year by an individual from a retirement plan, if such payments are not already exempt from taxation. The exemption in the bill relates to all qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans under the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), deferred compensation plans offered by state and local governments and tax-exempt organizations under the IRC, self-employed plans, tax-sheltered annuities, plans that are not qualified under the IRC, and individual retirement accounts. The bill first applies to taxable year 2006, and the maximum allowable exemption is $2,500. The exemption amount increases each year from $2,500 to $5,000 in 2007, $10,000 in 2008, $15,000 in 2009, and $20,000 in 2010 and thereafter.
