1 AN ACT to create 995.60 of the statutes; relating to: substitute address for a
2 victim of domestic abuse.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill authorizes a victim of domestic abuse (victim), or a victim's representative, to file an application with the secretary of state (secretary), on a form provided by the secretary, to use the secretary as a substitute address. The application must include an address to which the secretary must forward mail that the secretary receives on behalf of the victim, a telephone number that the secretary may use to contact the victim, and the signature of the victim or victim's representative. The secretary may charge an applicant a one-time fee of not more than $75, which the secretary may waive if the victim is indigent, and must keep a confidential record of all applications received from victims of domestic abuse. The secretary may disclose the name and address of a victim, however, with the permission of the victim or his or her representative, or if the requester is a law enforcement officer who requests the information in writing for the performance of an investigation or for serving a warrant. Use of the secretary as a substitute address is effective for no more than two years, but may be extended any number of times for up to two more years by filing another application and paying the fee, if applicable.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
