- 1 AN ACT to create 71.07 (8m) and 71.10 (4) (cs) of the statutes; relating to:
2 creating a nonrefundable individual income tax credit for certain expenses
3 incurred by a family caregiver to assist a qualified family member.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates a nonrefundable individual income tax credit for qualified expenses incurred by a family caregiver (claimant) to assist a qualified family member. Subject to a number of limitations, a claimant may claim 50 percent of the costs of qualified expenses the claimant paid for in the year to which the claim relates. These expenses include amounts spent to improve the claimant's primary residence to assist the family member, equipment to help the family member with daily living activities, and obtaining other goods or services to help the claimant care for the family member. To be qualified, a family member must be at least 18 years of age, must require assistance with one or more daily living activities as certified by a physician, and must be the claimant's spouse or related to the claimant by blood, marriage, or adoption within the third degree of kinship.

The maximum amount of credit that may be claimed each year for a particular family member is $1,000. If more than one claimant may file a claim related to that family member, the amount of credit each may claim is based on the percentage of the family member's qualified expenses for which each claimant paid during the year. No credit may be claimed by a claimant who is single, or married and filing separately, whose Wisconsin adjusted gross income in the year to which the claim relates exceeds $75,000 or, if the claimant is married and files jointly, $150,000.

ASSEMBLY BILL 631

Generally under the bill, qualified expenses may not include general food, clothing, transportation, or household repair costs, or amounts that are paid or reimbursed by an insurance company or the government. Because the credit is nonrefundable, it may be claimed only up to the amount of the claimant's tax liability.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
