1 Relating to: proclaiming May 2017 as Mental Health Awareness Month.

2 Whereas, one in five Americans lives with a mental illness; and

3 Whereas, May has been observed as National Mental Health Awareness Month 4 since 1949; and

5 Whereas, Mental Health Awareness Month is a time to raise awareness about 6 mental illnesses, such as major depression, schizophrenia, and bipolar disorder, and 7 draw attention to suicide, which may be precipitated by mental illness; and

8 Whereas, we must empower first responders, doctors, and families to help those 9 with the most severe mental illnesses to ensure that people with mental illness have 10 access to evidence-based treatment and services; and

11 Whereas, the stigma associated with mental illness prevents many individuals 12 from seeking help for themselves or loved ones; and

13 Whereas, treatments for mental illnesses are highly effective; and
