1 AN ACT to create 97.19 of the statutes; relating to: serving maple syrup in a
2 public eating place.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under this bill, a public eating place may not serve a food product identified as maple syrup unless the product is made entirely of maple syrup, as the term is defined in federal regulations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 97.19 of the statutes is created to read:

4 97.19 Maple syrup requirements. (1) DEFINITIONS. In this section:

5 (a) "Maple syrup" has the meaning given in 21 CFR 168.140.

6 (b) "Public eating place" means any premise that prepares and sells food for the 7 general public's consumption.

8 (2) REQUIREMENTS FOR SERVING MAPLE SYRUP IN PUBLIC EATING PLACES. The
9 serving of a product identified as maple syrup at a public eating place is prohibited

SENATE BILL 567
