

2023 SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 48

May 24, 2023 – Introduced by Senators COWLES, JACQUE, MARKLEIN and WIMBERGER, cosponsored by Representatives STEFFEN, BEHNKE, JOERS, KITCHENS, MACCO, MURPHY, SCHMIDT, SHELTON and SORTWELL. Referred to Committee on Senate Organization.

1 Relating to: honoring 2023 as the 100th anniversary of the Green Bay & De Pere
2 Antiquarian Society.

3 Whereas, the Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society was founded in 1923
4 by Jessie Hurlbut Buchanan and a small group of women from Green Bay and De 5 Pere dedicated to retaining the early history of Brown County; and

6 Whereas, these women, concerned about the auctioning and loss of provincial 7 artifacts and heirlooms from inside one of Wisconsin’s earliest French fur trader
8 homes, the “Roi-Porlier” Tank Cottage, united to preserve the site for public viewing
9 to the present day, including acquiring a table owned by President Zachary Taylor; 10 and

11 Whereas, for their efforts and the preservation of Tank Cottage, the Green Bay 12 Press-Gazette celebrated the Antiquarians as “the group of remarkable women who 13 dedicated themselves many years ago to the protection and restoration in Green Bay 14 of some of the most important historical buildings in the Middle West”; and

1 Whereas, following their preservation of Tank Cottage, the Antiquarians were 2 instrumental in furnishing and decorating the Cotton House, the Baird Law Office, 3 the Hazelwood Historic House, and the Fort Howard Hospital Museum; and

4 Whereas, the group was legally incorporated on May 15, 1934, with the purpose 5 “to hold, to purchase, and acquire real estate and antiquities; and to perpetuate the 6 history of the locality surrounding Green Bay, and the State of Wisconsin”; and

7 Whereas, in 1957, members of the society created the first annual Green Bay
8 & De Pere Antique Show and Sale, which raised funds for the society’s local grant 9 program, which continues each year to this day; and

10 Whereas, to date, the grant program has gifted nearly $800,000 to many local 11 historical museums and societies for the preservation and restoration of historic 12 artifacts and sites, including Heritage Hill State Historical Park and Green Bay’s 13 Old City Stadium, the first home of the Green Bay Packers; and 14 Whereas, in December 2006, the Antiquarians initiated a one-year, $1.3 15 million community-wide fundraising campaign to protect 69 appraised items from 16 an out-of-state auction house, including rare artworks and a photograph of 17 President Abraham Lincoln and his son Tad, personally signed “A. Lincoln and son,” 18 one of two known to exist; and

19 Whereas, the group has continued as one of the nation’s oldest member-based 20 philanthropic historical preservation organizations; and

21 Whereas, 2023 will mark the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Green 22 Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society, continuing in their mission to retain and 23 safeguard artifacts with national and regional historical importance to Wisconsin’s
24 first European settlement through its local support; now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the Wisconsin
2 Legislature declares October 4, 2023, as Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society
3 Day, honoring their outstanding service and generous role in the preservation, 4 restoration, and perpetuation of the history of Brown County and the State of 5 Wisconsin for 100 years.
