

CHAPTER 57.

PROBATION, PAROLES AND PARDONS.

57.01 Probation of felons.	57.078 Civil rights restored to convicted persons satisfying sentence.
57.02 Control of probationer.	57.08 Applications for pardon; regulations.
57.025 Probation in Milwaukee county.	57.09 Notice of application.
57.03 Return to court discharge.	57.10 Pardon application papers.
57.04 Probation of misdemeanants.	57.11 Conditional pardon; enforcement.
57.06 Paroles from state prison and house of correction.	57.115 Emergency removal.
57.07 Paroles from state reformatory and home for women.	57.12 Execution and record of warrants.
57.071 Military parole.	57.13 Out-of-state parolee supervision; state compacts.
57.072 Period of probation or parole tolled.	57.135 Out-of-state parolee supervision without compact.
57.075 Absconding probationers' and parolees' fund.

57.01 Probation of felons. (1) When a person is convicted of a felony (convictions under s. 52.05 excepted) and it appears to the court from his character and the circumstances of the case that he is not likely again to commit crime and that the public welfare does not require that he shall suffer the penalty of the law, the court may, by order, withhold sentence or impose sentence and stay its execution and in either case place him on probation to the department for a stated period, stating in the order the reasons therefor, and may impose as a condition of such order or of continuing it in effect that he shall make restitution or pay the costs of prosecution or do both. The period of probation may be made consecutive to a sentence of imprisonment on a different charge, whether imposed at the same time or previously. Consecutive periods of probation may be imposed. In case the conditions of probation are violated, the current probation and all subsequent consecutive probations shall be revoked.

(2) Prior to the expiration of any probation period the court may by order extend his probation for a stated period.

(3) The original term of probation shall not be less than the statutory minimum nor more than the statutory maximum term of imprisonment for the crime.

(4) If the defendant is a minor at the time of conviction, the court may, in lieu of placing him in the custody of the department, order that he be in the custody of a juvenile probation officer of the county, on the same conditions as though he were in the custody of the department. Such probation officer shall report to the court at such times as the court orders and if the probationer violates the conditions of his probation shall bring him before the court for revocation thereof. The court may at any time transfer the custody of the probationer to the department and may extend the period of probation as provided in subsection (2).

(5) The department shall furnish to the several courts forms setting forth the requirements and conditions applicable to probation.

History: 1953 c. 31.

No authority to remit fines. See note to 353.25, citing 41 Atty. Gen. 338.

57.02 Control of probationer. Except as provided otherwise in section 57.025, every probationer in the custody of the department shall be subject to the control of the department under regulations applicable to paroled persons. Upon the entry of the order of probation the court or the clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the record in the case to the department, whereupon the custody of the probationer vests in the department.

57.025 Probation in Milwaukee county. (1) SCOPE OF SECTION. This section applies only to counties having a population of over 500,000.

(2) JURISDICTION OF MUNICIPAL AND DISTRICT COURTS. The municipal court and the district court, respectively, shall have charge of persons on probation from each such court under this section and under sections 57.01 and 57.04.

(3) REGULATIONS. Regulations governing probation shall be made jointly by the judges of such courts, without discrimination as to probation from either court.

(4) PROBATION OFFICERS; APPOINTMENT; POWERS; COMPENSATION. The judge of the municipal court shall appoint a chief probation officer for said courts. The chief and additional probation officers shall receive such salaries and necessary expenses as determined by the county board. They shall be officers of both courts but subject to the control of the municipal court, except as to matters pertaining exclusively to the probationers of the district court, as to which the district court shall have control. The chief shall have power to arrest and shall execute the orders of such courts affecting their probationers.

(5) ADDITIONAL PROBATION OFFICERS. Additional probation officers may be appointed by the judge of the municipal court. They shall be subordinate to the chief and shall have power to arrest. The judge may appoint one of them as deputy chief probation officer to perform the duties of the chief during his absence or inability to perform them.

(6) DUTIES OF OFFICERS. Probation officers shall make presentence and preprobation investigations and report thereon as required by either court. To prevent absconding, to enforce discipline and for violation of probation, an officer may arrest any probationer and hold him in the county jail for a reasonable time.

(7) OFFICE AND SUPPLIES. The county board shall provide quarters and supplies for the adequate administration of probation under this section.

(8) DUTIES OF CLERK OF COURT. The clerk of court shall transmit to the department a copy of the reports required by section 57.04 (4).

(9) PROBATION OF MISDEMEANANTS. When a person is convicted of a misdemeanor or violation of a county or city ordinance the district court or the municipal court may place him on probation as prescribed by section 57.04 (1) for not to exceed 2 years and upon such conditions as the court determines, including the payment of a fine. He may be returned to the court for sentence at any time within the probation period. Upon the expiration of such period or before, he may be sentenced or discharged or continued under probation subject to like sentence or discharge or probation.

On an appeal from an order of the municipal court of Milwaukee county, revoking a probation, the supreme court cannot accept the defendant's statement, unsupported by anything in the record, that no regulations governing probation in Milwaukee county have been promulgated jointly by the judges of the municipal court and the district court. The presumption would be that the judges have proceeded according to the statute. An order of the municipal court of Milwaukee county, placing a violator of 351.30 on probation was not invalid under 57.025 (2), 57.04, for placing the defendant on probation subject to the control of the judge of such court and on the condition that the defendant cease certain improper associations and, if erroneous in such respects, was not prejudicial. An order of the municipal court of Milwaukee county revoking the probation of a violator of 351.30 was not invalid for being based on a violation of an allegedly invalid condition that the defendant cease certain improper associations; the announced reason for the revocation—improper associations—being expressly authorized by 57.04 (2), pursuant to which the revocation was handled. State v. Schlueter, 262 W 602, 55 NW (2d) 873.

57.03 Return to court; discharge. (1) If a probationer in its charge violates the conditions of his probation, the department may order him brought before the court for sentence which shall then be imposed without further stay or if already sentenced may order him to prison; and the term of sentence shall begin on the date he enters the prison. A copy of the order of the department shall be sufficient authority for the officer executing it to take the probationer to court or to prison.

(2) When in the judgment of the department the probationer has satisfied the conditions of his probation, he shall be discharged and the department shall issue to him a certificate of final discharge.

57.04 Probation of misdemeanants. (1) When a person is convicted of a misdemeanor or of a violation of s. 52.05 the court having jurisdiction (whether a court of record or otherwise) may, by order, withhold sentence or impose sentence and stay its execution and in either case place him on probation for a period not less than one year nor more than 2 years (except that in counties having a population of over 500,000 a shorter minimum period of probation may be ordered) and may, as a condition of such order or continuing it, require him to pay the costs of prosecution, to pay a fine and costs, to make restitution, or any combination, as the court determines, and the court may authorize the probation officer to accept payment in instalments. The court may also require that the probationer be confined in the county jail between the hours or periods of his employment during such portion of his term of probation as the court shall specify, not to exceed the maximum time for which he might have been sentenced. The court may also require the payment of support by persons convicted under s. 52.05 and may require a recognizance, as provided in s. 52.05 (4). The period of probation may be made consecutive to a sentence of imprisonment on a different charge, whether imposed at the same time or previously. Consecutive periods of probation may be imposed. In case the conditions of probation are violated, the current probation and all subsequent consecutive probations shall be revoked.

(2) The order shall place the probationer in charge of the department or shall designate some person as probation officer, who shall be entitled to necessary expenses in the performance of his duties, to be paid by the county. If the probationer is a minor, the order may place him in charge of a juvenile probation officer. The department or officer may, at any time, take the probationer into physical custody to prevent his escape, to enforce discipline for violation of probation and may take the probationer into court and in the latter case, if the court has reason to believe that he has violated the conditions of his probation or is engaging in criminal practices or has formed improper associations or is leading a vicious life, it may revoke his probation and pronounce sentence, or if sentence has been pronounced, order its execution, without deduction of the period of probation. A defendant on probation to a probation officer shall be subject to the probation conditions prescribed by the department so far as applicable. If such a probation officer has been appointed in any case, the court may transfer the custody of the probationer to the department.

(3) After revocation the court may again stay further execution on any conditions which it could have imposed originally. If justice is served and the good conduct and the reform of the probationer warrants it, the court may terminate the probation and discharge him.

(4) The probation officer shall report to the court, at such times as the court designates, concerning the conduct of the probationer. Blanks for such reports shall be supplied by the department, upon request.

(5) When a person is placed on probation to the department, the clerk of the court or the court shall mail to the department certified copies of the complaint, information or indictment, the plea, the sentence, if any, and the probation order. The clerk or court shall receive for such services the compensation provided for certifying copies of papers, which compensation shall be paid by the county.

History: 1951 c. 243, 318; 1953 c. 31, 631, 632.
See note to 57.025, citing State v. Schlue- No authority to remit fines. See note to ter, 262 W 602, 55 NW (2d) 873. 353.25, citing 41 Atty. Gen. 338.

57.06 Paroles from state prison and house of correction. (1) Upon 10 days' written notice to the district attorney and the judge who tried an inmate of the Wisconsin state prison or any felon or any person serving at least one year or more in the Milwaukee county house of correction or a county reforestation camp organized under s. 56.07, the department may parole him when he has served the minimum or one-half of the maximum of an indeterminate term or 2 years, whichever is least; or when he has served one-half of a determinate term which is less than life or 2 years, whichever is least; or when he has served 20 years of a life term, less the deduction earned for good conduct as provided in s. 53.11.

(2) No such prisoner shall be paroled until the department is satisfied that suitable employment has been secured for him, unless otherwise provided for by the department. The paroled prisoner shall report to the department in such manner and at such times as it requires.

(3) Every paroled prisoner remains in the legal custody of the department unless otherwise provided by the department; and all prisoners under its custody may be returned to prison at any time, on the order of the department, and shall be returned whenever found exhibited in any show. A certified copy of the order shall be sufficient authority for any officer to take the prisoner to the institution from which he was paroled; and the officer shall execute such order as a warrant for arrest but any officer may, without order or warrant, take the prisoner into custody whenever it appears necessary in order to prevent escape or enforce discipline or for violation of parole.

History: 1951 c. 242, 318; 1953 c. 72.

57.07 Paroles from state reformatory and home for women. (1) The department may parole prisoners in the state reformatory and the home for women whenever suitable employment has been secured for them, unless otherwise provided by the department, and their conduct for a reasonable time has satisfied the department that they will be law-abiding, temperate, honest and industrious. But women serving life sentences at the home for women shall be subject to the provisions of section 57.06.

(2) Such paroled persons remain in the legal custody of the department, and may be returned to the institution from which paroled, in the manner prescribed in section 57.06.

57.071 Military parole. The department may at any time grant a parole to or suspend the parole of any prisoner in any penal institution of this state, or suspend the supervision of any person who is on probation to the state department of public welfare, who is eligible for induction into the armed forces of the United States. Such suspension of parole or probation shall be for the duration of his service in the armed forces; and said parole or probation shall again become effective upon his discharge from the armed forces in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department. If he receives an honorable discharge from the armed forces, the governor may discharge him and such discharge shall have the effect of a pardon. Upon such suspension of parole or probation by the department, an order shall be issued by the director of the department setting forth the conditions under which the parole or probation is suspended, including instructions as to where and when and to whom such paroled person shall report upon his discharge from the armed forces.

History: 1953 c. 117.

57.072 Period of probation or parole tolled. The period of probation or parole ceases running upon the offender's absconding or committing a crime or some other violation of the terms of his probation or parole which is sufficient in the opinion of the court or the department to warrant revocation of probation or parole. It remains tolled until the happening of one of the following events: Receipt of the offender at the penal institution to which he has been sentenced or from which he has been paroled; in cases supervised by the department, reinstatement of the offender's parole or probation by order of the department; in cases of misdemeanants and in cases under section 57.025, reinstatement of probation by order of the court. The date of the order of reinstatement is the date on which the period of probation or parole again begins to run.

History: 1951 c. 244.

57.075 Absconding probationers' and parolees' fund. The department shall create a revolving fund out of any moneys in its hands belonging to probationers and parolees who absconded, or whose whereabouts are unknown. Said funds shall be used to defray the expenses of clothing and other necessities and for transporting probationers and parolees who are without means to secure the same. All payments made from such funds shall be repaid by probationers or parolees for whose benefit they are made whenever possible; and any moneys belonging to them so paid into the revolving fund shall be repaid to them in accordance with law, in case a claim therefor is filed with the department upon showing the legal right of the claimant to such money.

57.078 Civil rights restored to convicted persons satisfying sentence. Every person who is convicted of crime obtains a restoration of his civil rights by serving out his term of imprisonment or otherwise satisfying his sentence. The certificate of the department or other responsible supervising agency that a convicted person has served his sentence or otherwise satisfied the judgment against him is evidence of that fact and that he is restored to his civil rights.

57.08 Applications for pardon; regulations. All applications for pardon of any convict serving sentence of one year or more, except for pardons to be granted within 10 days next before the time when the convict would be otherwise entitled to discharge pursuant to law, shall be made and conducted in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and according to such additional regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the governor.

57.09 Notice of application. Notice of such application, stating the name of the convict, the crime of which he was convicted, the date and term of his sentence, the place of his imprisonment, and the date when the application will be filed with the governor, shall be served upon the judge and the district attorney, if they can be found, who participated in the trial of the convict, at least 3 weeks before the hearing of the application and shall be published at least once each week for 2 successive weeks before such hearing in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the offense was committed, or, if there be no such newspaper such notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the door of the courthouse of such county for 3 weeks before such hearing and published once each week for 2 consecutive weeks before such hearing in some newspaper published in an adjoining county.

57.10 Pardon application papers. An application for pardon shall be accompanied by the following papers:

(1) Notice of application and acknowledgments or affidavits showing due service and affidavits showing due publication and posting whenever required;

(2) A certified copy of the docket entries, the indictment or information, pleas, transcript of the testimony and all other papers on file in the court, if obtainable, relating to the case;

(3) A full sworn statement by the applicant of all facts and reasons upon which the application is based;

(4) Written statements by the judge and the district attorney who tried the case, if obtainable, indicating their views regarding the application and stating any circumstances within their knowledge in aggravation or extenuation of the applicant's guilt;

(5) A certificate of the keeper of the prison where he has been confined showing whether the applicant has conducted himself in a peaceful and obedient manner.

57.11 Conditional pardon; enforcement. (1) In case a pardon is granted upon conditions the governor may issue his warrant to carry the conditions into effect.

(2) If it appears to the governor during the term of the sentence that the convicted person violated or failed to comply with any such condition, he may issue his warrant to any sheriff commanding him to arrest the convicted person and bring him before the governor.

(3) If upon inquiry it further appears to the governor that the convicted person has violated or failed to comply with any of such conditions, he may issue his warrant remanding him to the institution from which he was discharged, and he shall thereupon be confined and treated as though no pardon had been granted except that he loses the good time which he had earned; otherwise he shall be discharged subject to the conditional pardon.

57.115 Emergency removal. When an emergency exists which in the opinion of the director of the department makes it advisable he may permit the temporary removal of a convicted person for such period and upon such conditions as he determines. The director may delegate this authority to the deputy director, the director of corrections, the warden of the state prison, the superintendent of the home for women, or the superintendent of the state reformatory.

History: 1951 c. 440.

57.12 Execution and record of warrants. When a convicted person is pardoned or his sentence commuted, or he is remanded to prison for the violation of any of the conditions of his pardon, the officer to whom the warrant is issued after executing it shall make return thereon to the governor forthwith and shall file with the clerk of the court in which the offender was convicted a certified copy of the warrant and return, and the clerk shall enter and file the same with the records of the case.

57.13 Out-of-state parolee supervision; state compacts. The governor of this state is authorized and directed to enter into a compact on behalf of this state with any state of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

A COMPACT

Entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of the congress of the United States of America, granted by an act entitled "An act granting the consent of congress to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for co-operative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes".

The contracting states solemnly agree:

(1) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this contract (herein called "sending state") to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, if

(a) Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there; or

(b) Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there.

(c) Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.

(d) A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than 6 continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

(2) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

(3) That the duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are expressly waived on the part of states party hereto, as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; provided, however, that if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

(4) That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all such states parties to this compact, without interference.

(5) That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

(6) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratifying. When ratified it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of ratification to be in accordance with the laws of the ratifying state.

(7) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon such ratifying state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal or until finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which ratified it, by sending 6 months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw the compact to the other states party thereto.

(9) This section may be cited as the "Uniform Act for Out-of-State Parolee Supervision".

History: 1951 c. 261 s. 10.

57.135 Out-of-state parolee supervision without compact. The department is authorized to permit any person convicted of an offense within this state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state not a party to the compact authorized by section 57.13 whenever the authorities of the receiving state agree to assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over such probationer or parolee, governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees, on the same terms as are provided in section 57.13 (1) and (2) in the case of states signatory to said compact. But before permitting any probationer or parolee to leave this state pursuant to this section, the department shall obtain from him a signed agreement to return to this state upon demand of the department and an irrevocable waiver of all procedure incidental to extradition. The department may, in like manner, receive for supervision probationers and parolees convicted in states not signatory to said compact, and shall have the same custody and control of such persons as it has over probationers and parolees of this state.