302.05 Officer to write names. Upon demand for a jury the justice shall direct the sheriff or any constable of the county present to write the names of 18 persons of the county, eligible as jurors in courts of record and not of kin to any party or interested in the action.

302.07 Jurors, how chosen. From the names listed each party, commencing with the party demanding a jury, may strike alternately 6 names; and in case of the failure of either party to strike, the justice shall strike out 6 names.

302.08 Venire to issue. The justice shall issue a venire requiring the officer to summon the 6 persons whose names remain upon the list to appear at a time and place mentioned therein to make a jury for the trial of the action.

302.09 Agreed jury. The parties may agree upon 6 or any less number of jurors to try the action, and in such case the justice shall direct, in the venire, the summoning of the persons agreed upon, who shall compose the jury.

302.10 Talesmen. If any juror fails to attend at the time he is summoned to appear or if legal objections are raised to any who appear the justice shall order the officer to summon talesmen to supply the deficiency.

State of Wisconsin, } In Justice Court

302.12 Jurors, how summoned. The officer shall summon the jurors personally by reading the venire to them and shall certify and return his doings thereon to the justice.

302.13 Failure to appear contempt; penalty; proceedings. Every person duly summoned as a juror who fails to appear or who refuses to serve is guilty of contempt; and the justice shall fine him not less than $5 nor more than $10 and commit him to the county jail until the fine is paid; and if any person so duly summoned refuses to appear, the justice shall issue an attachment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of his county, requiring the officer to arrest the person so summoned and to bring him before the justice to serve as a juror. The fees for issuing and executing the attachment shall be the same as for a civil warrant and they shall be paid by the person attached. If any person summoned as a juror appears and shows good cause therefor the justice may excuse him from serving.

302.14 Challenges for cause. Either party may challenge any juror for cause and may have him sworn to answer concerning the challenge and may prove the cause by other evidence. The justice shall decide the challenge.

302.16 Jury to hear the parties in public. The jurors shall sit together and hear the proofs and allegations of the parties. The trial shall be public.

302.18 Return of verdict; judgment accordingly. When the jurors have agreed upon their verdict they shall deliver it to the justice publicly and he shall enter it in his docket and enter judgment according to the verdict. A verdict is valid if agreed to by 5 jurors.

302.19 Jury unable to agree, discharge of jury; new trial. When a justice is satisfied that a jury, after having been out a reasonable time, cannot agree on their verdict, he may discharge them and issue a new venire, unless the parties consent that the justice render judgment on the evidence before him or that a new trial be had before him.

302.20 Trial without jury. When an action has been submitted to a justice for his decision he shall not receive or consider further evidence or any communication about it, except on due notice to the parties, until he has rendered judgment.

302.21 Rules of evidence; judicial notice of ordinances. The rules of evidence shall be the same in actions before justices as in courts of record. In any prosecution for violation of the ordinances of the town, village or city wherein he was elected, the justice shall take judicial notice of the ordinances thereof.

302.23 Default judgment. If the defendant fails to appear at the time specified for the return of process duly served or at the hour of adjournment the justice shall proceed to hear the proofs of the plaintiff and render judgment thereon.

302.24 Nonsuit. (1) Judgment of nonsuit shall be rendered against the plaintiff if he discontinues his action before the argument to the jury has been concluded or waived; or if he fails to appear at the return hour; or at the hour of adjournment.

(2) A compulsory nonsuit shall not be ordered after evidence has been submitted to the jury.

302.245 Contents of judgments. Each judgment for money damages shall specify clearly the relief granted and the place of abode, and occupation, trade or profession of each party as accurately as can be ascertained.

302.25 Judgments generally. (1) Judgment shall be for the plaintiff for the amount of damages found by the jury or the justice, less any offset established by the defendant.

(2) Judgment shall be for the defendant if the justice or jury finds that the plaintiff has no cause of action or that the defendant's counterclaim exceeds the plaintiff's damages.

302.26 Costs. Unless herein otherwise provided, judgment shall be with costs of the action.

302.27 Judgment, when rendered. If the plaintiff is nonsuited or a verdict is rendered or the defendant is in custody, the justice shall forthwith render judgment; otherwise he may adjourn the action not more than 72 hours and at the adjourned hour shall enter judgment.

302.29 Release of sum in excess of jurisdiction. If any sum found in favor of a party exceeds the sum for which a justice is authorized to give judgment such party may remit or release the excess and take judgment for the residue.

302.31 New trial. A new trial may be granted a defendant at any time within one year from the rendition of judgment upon a publication of notice where no service has been had and the defendant did not appear. But if notice of entry of judgment is personally served on such defendant his time to move for a new trial is limited to 20 days.

302.32 Application for new trial; procedure. Such new trial shall be granted upon a petition, subscribed and sworn to by the defendant or his attorney, addressed to the justice who rendered the judgment, or the justice to whom or the court into which the action has been removed, and setting forth a valid defense, in whole or in part, to the complaint; and if the court is satisfied that the petition sets forth a valid defense, in whole or in part, it shall make an order setting the time and place and the court before which a new trial will take place. A copy of the petition and order shall be served on the plaintiff at least 10 days previous to the time fixed for the new trial. The petition shall stand as the answer to the complaint; and thereafter the same proceedings shall be had as in other trials.

302.33 Action on judgment, limitation. No action on a judgment rendered by a justice shall be brought in the same county within 5 years after its rendition, except in case of his incapacity to act, or in case the process was not personally served on some defendant, or in case of the death of some party, or in case the docket or record of such judgment has been lost or destroyed.

302.34 Transcript of judgment. 302.36 Setoff of judgments. If there be mutual justice's judgments equitably belonging to the same parties, upon which the time of appealing has elapsed on which there is no existing execution, one judgment, on the application of either party and reasonable notice given to the adverse party, may be set off against the other by the justice before whom the judgment against which the setoff is proposed may be.

302.37 When judgments before different justices. If the judgment proposed as a setoff was rendered before another justice the party proposing such setoff must produce before the justice a transcript of such judgment, upon which there is a certificate of the justice rendering the judgment that it is unsatisfied in whole or in part and that there is no appeal or existing execution thereon, and that such transcript was obtained for the purpose of being set off against the judgment to which it is offered as a setoff.
