SUBCHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

48.01 Title and legislative purpose. (1)

This chapter may be cited as "The Children's Code". This chapter shall be interpreted to effectuate the following express legislative purposes:

(a) To provide judicial and other procedures through which children and all other interested parties are assured fair hearings and their constitutional and other legal rights are recognized and enforced, while protecting the public safety.

(b) To provide for the care, protection and wholesome mental and physical development of children, preserving the unity of the family whenever possible.

(c) Consistent with the protection of the public interest, to remove from children committing delinquent acts the consequences of criminal behavior and to substitute therefore a program of supervision, care and rehabilitation.

(d) To divert children from the juvenile justice system to the extent this is consistent with protection of children and the public safety.

(e) To respond to children's needs for care and treatment through community-based programs and to keep children in their homes whenever possible.

(f) To assure that children pending adoptive homes will be placed in the best homes available and protected from adoption by persons unfit to have responsibility for raising children.

(g) To provide children in the state with permanent and stable family relationships. The courts and agencies responsible for child welfare should assist parents in changing any circumstances in the home which might harm the child or which may require the child to be placed outside the home.

(2) This chapter shall be liberally construed to effect the objectives contained in this section. The best interests of the child shall always be of paramount consideration, but the court shall also consider the interest of the parents or treated as an adult for sentencing purposes except that the court may disregard any minimum period of incarceration specified for the offense.

(2) CIVIL LAW AND ORDINANCE VIOLATIONS.

(a) Except as provided in sub. (1), municipal courts have concurrent jurisdiction with the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter in proceedings against children aged 14 or older for violations of county, town or other municipal ordinances. When a child is alleged to have violated a municipal ordinance, the child may be:

1. Issued a citation directing the child to appear in municipal court or make a deposit or stipulation and deposit in lieu of appearance;

3. Referred to intake for a determination whether a petition should be filed in the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter pursuant to s. 48.125.

(b) When a child 14 years of age or older is alleged to have violated a civil law punishable by a forfeiture or where a child is alleged to have violated a municipal ordinance but there is no municipal court in the municipality, the child may be:

1. Issued a citation directing the child to appear in the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter or make a deposit or stipulation and deposit in lieu of appearance as provided in s. 48.237; or

2. Referred to intake for a determination whether a petition should be filed in the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter pursuant to s. 48.125.

(c) The citation procedures described in ch. 800 shall govern proceedings involving children in municipal court, except that this chapter shall govern the taking and holding of a child in custody. When a child is before the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter upon a citation alleging the child to have violated a civil law or municipal ordinance, the procedures specified in s. 48.237 shall apply. If a citation is issued to a child, the issuing agency shall, within 7 days, notify the child's parent or guardian. The agency issuing a citation to a child who is 14 or 15 years of age for a violation of s. 66.054 (19), (20), (22) or (24), 176.29, 176.30 (2), 176.31 or 176.32 (1) or an ordinance conforming to one of those statutes shall send a copy to an intake worker under s. 48.24 for informational purposes only.

(d) If a municipal court finds that the child violated a municipal ordinance other than an ordinance which conforms to s. 66.054 (19), (20), (22) or (24), 176.29, 176.30 (2), 176.31 or 176.32 (1), it shall enter any of the dispositional orders permitted under s. 48.343 (1), (2), (5), (6), (7) or (8). If a child fails to pay the forfeiture imposed by the municipal court, the court shall not impose a jail sentence but may suspend any license issued under ch. 29 for not less than 30 nor more than 90 days, or suspend the child's operating privilege, as defined in s. 340.01 (40), for not less than 30 nor more than 90 days. If a court suspends a license under this section, it shall immediately take possession of the suspended license and forward it to the department which issued the license, together with the notice of suspension clearly stating that the suspension is for failure to pay a forfeiture imposed by the court. If the forfeiture is paid during the first 30 days after the license is suspended, the suspension shall be reduced to the minimum period of 30 days. If it is paid thereafter, the court shall immediately notify the department, which shall thereupon return the license to the person. If it is paid after the end of the 30 days, the suspension shall be reduced to the time period which has already elapsed and the court shall immediately notify the department which shall then return the license to the child.

(e) If a municipal court finds that a child violated a municipal ordinance which conforms to s. 66.054 (19), (20), (22) or (24), 176.29, 176.30 (2), 176.31 or 176.32 (1), it shall enter a dispositional order under s. 48.344.

History: 1971 c. 40, 278; 1975 c. 39; 1977 c. 354, 449; 1979 c. 300, 331; 1979 c. 333 s. 5; 1979 c. 359

48.18 Jurisdiction for criminal proceedings for children 16 or older; waiver hearing.

(1) If a child is alleged to have violated a state criminal law on or after his or her 16th birthday, the child or district attorney may apply to the court to waive its jurisdiction under this chapter. The judge may initiate a petition for waiver if the judge disqualifies himself or herself from any future proceedings on the case.

(2) The waiver hearing shall be brought on by filing a petition alleging delinquency drafted under s. 48.255 and a petition for waiver of jurisdiction which shall contain a brief statement of the facts supporting the request for waiver. The petition for waiver of jurisdiction shall be filed prior to the plea hearing.

(3) (a) The child shall be represented by counsel at the waiver hearing. Written notice of the time, place and purpose of the hearing shall be given to the child, any parent, guardian or legal custodian, and counsel at least 3 days prior to the hearing. The notice shall contain a statement of the requirements of s. 48.29 (2) with regard to substitution of the judge. Where parents entitled to notice have the same address, notice to one constitutes notice to the other. Counsel for the child shall have access to the social records and other reports consistent with s. 48.293.

(b) The child has the right to present testimony on his or her own behalf including expert testimony and has the right to cross-examine witnesses at the hearing.

(c) The child does not have the right to a jury at a hearing under this section.

(4) The judge shall determine whether the matter has prosecutive merit before proceeding to determine if it should waive its jurisdiction.

(5) If prosecutive merit is found, the judge, after taking relevant testimony which the district attorney shall present and considering other relevant evidence, shall base its decision whether to waive jurisdiction on the following criteria:

(a) The personality and prior record of the child, including whether the child is the mentally ill or developmentally disabled, whether the child has been previously found delinquent, whether such delinquency involved the infliction of serious bodily injury, the child's motives and attitudes, the child's physical and mental maturity, the child's pattern of living, prior offenses, prior treatment history and apparent potential for responding to future treatment.

(b) The type and seriousness of the offense, including whether it was against persons or property, the extent to which it was committed in a violent, aggressive, premeditated or wilful manner, and its prosecutive merit.

(c) The adequacy and suitability of facilities, services and procedures available for treatment of the child and protection of the public within the juvenile justice system, and, where applicable, the mental health system.

(d) The desirability of trial and disposition of the entire offense in one court if the juvenile was allegedly associated in the offense with persons who will be charged with a crime in circuit court.

(6) After considering the criteria under sub. (5), the judge shall state his or her finding with respect to the criteria on the record, and, if the judge determines on the record that it is established by clear and convincing evidence that it would be contrary to the best interests of the child or of the public to hear the case, the judge shall enter an order waiving jurisdiction and referring the matter to the district attorney for appropriate criminal proceedings in the circuit court, and the circuit court thereafter has exclusive jurisdiction.

(8) When waiver is granted, the child, if held in secure custody, shall be transferred to an appropriate officer or adult facility and shall be eligible for bail in accordance with chs. 968 and 969.

In either case, the court may, upon a motion and for good cause shown, transfer the case, along with all appropriate records, to the county of residence of the child or parent.

If the child is alleged to be in need of protection or services and is 12 years of age or older, the intake worker shall inform the child of his or her right to counsel.

(b) The intake worker shall review the need to hold the child in custody and shall make every effort to release the child from custody under s. 48.205 and criteria promulgated under s. 48.06 (1) or (2).

1. To a parent, guardian or legal custodian, or, if the parent, guardian or legal custodian is unavailable, unwilling or unable to provide supervision for the child, release the child to a responsible adult, counseling or warning the child as may be appropriate, or, if a child is 15 years of age or older, release the child without immediate adult supervision, counseling or warning the child as may be appropriate; or

2. In the case of a runaway child, to a home authorized under s. 48.227.

(d) If the child is released from custody, the intake worker shall immediately notify the child's parent, guardian and legal custodian of the time and circumstances of the release and the person, if any, to whom the child was released.

(8) The intake worker shall base his or her decision to hold a child in custody on the criteria specified in s. 48.205 and criteria promulgated under s. 48.06 (1) or (2). If a child is held in custody, the intake worker shall notify the child's parent, guardian and legal custodian of the reasons for holding the child in custody and of the child's whereabouts unless there is reason to believe that notice would present imminent danger to the child. The parent, guardian and legal custodian shall also be notified of the time and place of the detention hearing required under s. 48.21, the nature and possible consequences of that hearing, the right to counsel under s. 48.23 regardless of ability to pay, and the right to present and cross-examine witnesses at the hearing. If the parent, guardian or legal custodian is not immediately available, the intake worker or another person designated by the court shall provide notice as soon as possible. Where the child is possibly involved in a delinquent act, and where the child is alleged to be in need of protection or services and is 12 years of age or older, the child shall receive the same notice about the detention hearing as the parent, guardian or legal custodian. The intake worker shall notify both the child and the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian.

(a) Probable cause exists to believe that if the child is not held he or she will commit injury to the person or property of others or cause injury to himself or herself or be subject to injury by others;

(b) Probable cause exists to believe that the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child or other responsible adult is unavailable, unwilling or unable to provide adequate supervision and care; or

(c) Probable cause exists to believe that the child will run away or be taken away so as to be unavailable for proceedings of the court or its officers or proceedings of the department for revocation of aftercare supervision.

(2) The criteria for holding a child in custody specified in this section shall govern the decision of all persons responsible for determining whether the action is appropriate.

If no authorized rate has been established, a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court shall be paid by the county for the supervision or care of the child.

48.208 Criteria for holding a child in a secure detention facility. A child may be held in a secure detention facility if the intake worker determines that one of the following conditions applies:

(1) Probable cause exists to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act and either presents a substantial risk of physical harm to another person or a substantial risk of running away as evidenced by a previous act or attempt so as to be unavailable for a court or revocation hearing for children on departmental aftercare. For children on departmental aftercare, the delinquent act referred to in this section may be the act for which the child was committed to a secured correctional facility.

(2) Probable cause exists to believe that the child is a fugitive from another state or has run away from a secured correctional facility and there has been no reasonable opportunity to return the child.

(3) The child consents in writing to being held in order to protect him or her from an imminent physical threat from another and such secure custody is ordered by the judge in a protective order.

(4) Probable cause exists to believe that the child, having been placed in nonsecure custody by an intake worker under s. 48.207 or by the judge or juvenile court commissioner under s. 48.21 (4), has run away or committed a delinquent act and no other suitable alternative exists.

(5) Probable cause exists to believe that the child has been adjudged or alleged to be delinquent and has run away from another county and would run away from nonsecure custody pending his or her return. A child may be held in secure custody under this subsection for no more than 24 hours unless an extension of 24 hours is ordered by the judge for good cause shown. Only one extension may be ordered by the judge.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

(c) The child is not held in a cell designed for the administrative or disciplinary segregation of adults;

(d) Adequate supervision is provided; and

(e) The judge reviews the status of the child every 3 days.

(2) The child presents a substantial risk of physical harm to other persons in the secure detention facility, as evidenced by previous acts or attempts, which can only be avoided by transfer to the jail. The provisions of sub. (1) (a) to (e) shall be met. The child shall be given a hearing and transferred only upon order of the judge.

(3) The restrictions of this section do not apply to the use of jail for a child waived to adult court.

History: 1977 c. 354.

48.21 Hearing for child in custody. (1) HEARING; WHEN HELD. (a) If a child who has been taken into custody is not released under s. 48.20, a hearing to determine whether the child shall continue to be held in custody under the criteria of ss. 48.205 to 48.209 shall be conducted by the judge or juvenile court commissioner within 24 hours of the time the decision to hold the child was made, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays. By the time of the hearing a petition under s. 48.25 shall be filed, except that no petition need be filed where a child is taken into custody under s. 48.19 (1) (b) or (d) 2, 6 or 7 or where the child is a runaway from another state, in which case a written statement of the reasons for holding a child in custody shall be substituted if the petition is not filed. If no hearing has been held within 24 hours or if no petition or statement has been filed at the time of the hearing, the child shall be released except as provided in par. (b). A parent not present at the hearing shall be granted a rehearing upon request.

(b) If no petition has been filed by the time of the hearing, a child may be held in custody with approval of the judge or juvenile court commissioner for an additional 48 hours from the time of the hearing only if, as a result of the facts brought forth at the hearing, the judge or juvenile court commissioner determines that probable cause exists to believe that the child is an imminent danger to himself or herself or to others, or that probable cause exists to believe that the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child or other responsible adult is unwilling or unavailable to provide adequate supervision and care. The extension may be granted only once for any petition. In the event of failure to file a petition within the 48-hour extension period provided for in this paragraph, the judge or juvenile court commissioner shall order the child's immediate release from custody.

(2) PROCEEDINGS CONCERNING RUNAWAY OR DELINQUENT CHILDREN. Proceedings concerning a child who comes within the jurisdiction of the court under s. 48.12 or 48.13 (7) or (12) shall be conducted according to this subsection.

(a) A child held in a nonsecure place of custody may waive in writing the hearing under this section. After any waiver, a hearing shall be granted upon the request of the child or any other interested party. Any child transferred to a secure detention facility shall thereafter have a hearing under this section.

(b) A copy of the petition shall be given to the child at or prior to the time of the hearing. Prior notice of the hearing shall be given to the child's parent, guardian and legal custodian and to the child in accordance with s. 48.20 (8).

(c) Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the child shall be informed by the judge or juvenile court commissioner of the allegations that have been or may be made, the nature and possible consequences of this hearing as compared to possible future hearings, the provisions of s. 48.18 if applicable, the right to counsel under s. 48.23 regardless of ability to pay if the child is not yet represented by counsel, the right to remain silent, the fact that the silence may not be adversely considered by the judge or juvenile court commissioner, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and the right to present witnesses.

(d) If the child is not represented by counsel at the hearing and the child is continued in custody as a result of the hearing, the child may request through counsel subsequently appointed or retained or through a guardian ad litem that the order to hold in custody be reheard. If the request is made, a rehearing shall take place as soon as may be possible. Whether or not counsel was present, any order to hold the child in custody shall be subject to rehearing for good cause.

(3) PROCEEDINGS CONCERNING CHILDREN IN NEED OF PROTECTION OR SERVICES. Proceedings concerning a child who comes within the jurisdiction of the court under s. 48.13 (1) to (5) or (8) to (11) shall be conducted according to this subsection.

(a) The parent, guardian or legal custodian may waive the hearing under this section. Agreement in writing of the child is required if he or she is over 12. After any waiver, a hearing shall be granted at the request of any interested party.

(b) If present at the hearing, a copy of the petition shall be given to the parent, guardian or legal custodian, and to the child if he or she is 12 years of age or older, before the hearing begins. Prior notice of the hearing shall be given to the child's parent, guardian and legal custodian and to the child if he or she is 12 years of age or older in accordance with s. 48.20 (8).

(d) Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the parent, guardian or legal custodian shall be informed by the court of the allegations that have been made or may be made, the nature and possible consequences of this hearing as compared to possible future hearings, the right to counsel under s. 48.23 regardless of ability to pay, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and the right to present witnesses.

(e) If the parent, guardian or legal custodian or the child is not represented by counsel at the hearing and the child is continued in custody as a result of the hearing, the parent, guardian, legal custodian or child may request through counsel subsequently appointed or retained or through a guardian ad litem that the order to hold the child in custody be reheard. If the request is made, a rehearing shall take place as soon as may be possible. Any order to hold the child in custody shall be subject to rehearing for good cause, whether or not counsel was present.

(4) CONTINUATION OF CUSTODY. If the judge or juvenile court commissioner finds that the child should be continued in custody under the criteria of s. 48.205, he or she shall enter one of the following orders:

(a) Place the child with a parent, guardian, legal custodian or other responsible person and may impose reasonable restrictions on the child's travel, association with other persons or places of abode during the period of placement, including a condition requiring the child to return to other custody as requested; or subject the child to the supervision of an agency agreeing to supervise the child. Reasonable restrictions may be placed upon the conduct of the parent, guardian, legal custodian or other responsible person which may be necessary to ensure the safety of the child.

(b) Order the child held in an appropriate manner under s. 48.207, 48.208 or 48.209.

(5) ORDERS IN WRITING. All orders to hold in custody shall be in writing, listing the reasons and criteria forming the basis for the decision.

(6) AMENDMENT OF ORDER. An order placing a child under sub. (4) (a) on conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice, so as to return the child to another form of custody for failure to conform to the conditions originally imposed. A child may be transferred to secure custody if he or she meets the criteria of s. 48.208.

(7) INFORMAL DISPOSITION. If the judge or juvenile court commissioner determines that the best interests of the child and the public are served, he or she may enter a consent decree under s. 48.32 or order the petition dismissed and refer the matter to the intake worker for informal disposition in accordance with s. 48.245.

History: 1977 c. 354, 447; 1979 c. 300.

See note to Art. I, sec. 8, citing State ex rel Bernal v. Hershmen, 54 W (2d) 626, 196 NW (2d) 721.

48.22 Establishment of secure detention facilities and shelter care facilities. (1)

(a) The county board of one county may establish a secure detention facility or a shelter care facility or both or 2 or more counties may join together and establish a secure detention facility or a shelter care facility or both in accordance with ss. 46.16 and 46.20.

(b) In counties having a population of less than 500,000, the policies of the secure detention facility or shelter care facility shall be determined by the judge of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter with the approval of the chief judge of the judicial administrative district or, in the case of a secure detention facility or shelter care facility established by 2 or more counties, by a committee of the judges of the courts in the participating counties assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter with the approval of the chief judge of the judicial administrative district.

(c) In counties having a population of 500,000 or more, the nonjudicial operational policies of the secure detention facility and the detention section of the children's court center shall be established by the county board of public welfare as specified in s. 48.06 (1), and the execution thereof shall be the responsibility of the director of the children's court center.

(2) (a) Plans for the secure detention facility, juvenile portion of the county jail or shelter care facility shall be approved by the department. The department shall adopt rules establishing minimum requirements for the approval of the operation of secure detention facilities and the juvenile portion of county jails. The plans and rules shall be designed to protect the health, safety and welfare of the children in these facilities.

(b) If the department approves, the secure detention facility may be a part of a public building in which there is a jail or other facility for the detention of adults if it is so physically segregated from the jail or other facility that it may be entered without passing through areas where adults are confined and that children detained in the facility cannot communicate with or view adults confined therein.

(c) A shelter facility shall not be in the same building as a facility for the detention of adults and shall be used for the temporary care of children.

(3) (a) In counties having a population of less than 500,000, public secure detention facilities and public shelter care facilities shall be in the charge of a superintendent. The judge of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter with the approval of the chief judge of the judicial administrative district or, where 2 or more counties operate joint public secure detention facilities or public shelter care facilities, the committee of judges of the courts assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter with the approval of the chief judge of the judicial administrative district shall appoint the superintendent and other necessary personnel for the care and education of the children in secure detention or shelter care facilities, subject to civil service regulations in counties having civil service.

(b) In counties having a population of 500,000 or more, the director of the children's court center under the direction of the county board of public welfare as specified in s. 48.06 (1) shall be in charge of and responsible for public secure detention facilities, the secure detention section of the center and the personnel assigned to this section, including a detention supervisor or superintendent. The director of the children's court center may also serve as superintendent of detention if the county board of supervisors so determines.

(5) A county board, or 2 or more county boards jointly, may contract with privately operated shelter care facilities or home detention programs for purchase of services. The county board may delegate this authority to county social services departments.

(6) (a) On or after July 1, 1978, a county shall be reimbursed by the state for 50% of the per capita cost of care of the children who are in a shelter care facility. Reimbursement shall be limited to the first 20 days of care per episode and shall not exceed $15 per day. Payments shall be made from the appropriation under s. 20.435 (2) (c).

(b) Eligibility for state reimbursement under par. (a) shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. A plan demonstrating the need for shelter care in that location and the need for the number of beds proposed, and outlining specific methods for the reduction of the number of children held in jail or detention shall be submitted to and approved by the department;

2. The facility shall be licensed under s. 48.66;

3. The county in which the facility is located shall have a 24-hour-a-day screening service for all children taken into custody;

4. The facility may not receive any other form of federal or state reimbursement for the per capita cost of care of children in the shelter care portion of the facility's program.

(7) No person may establish a shelter care facility without first obtaining a license under s. 48.66.

48.225 State-wide plan for detention homes. The department shall assist counties in establishing detention homes under s. 48.22 by developing and promulgating a state-wide plan for the establishment and maintenance of suitable detention facilities reasonably accessible to each court.

History: 1977 c. 354 s. 54; 1977 c. 447 s. 210.

48.227 Runaway homes. (1) Nothing contained in this section prohibits a home licensed under s. 48.48 or 48.75 from providing housing and services to a runaway child with the consent of the child and the consent of the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian, under the supervision of a county social services agency, a child welfare agency or the department. When the parent, guardian or legal custodian and the child both consent to the provision of these services and the child has not been taken into custody, no hearing as described in this section is required.

(2) Any person who operates a home under sub. (1) and licensed under s. 48.48 or 48.75, when engaged in sheltering a runaway child without the consent of the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian, shall notify the intake worker of the presence of the child in the home within 12 hours. The intake worker shall notify the parent, guardian and legal custodian as soon as possible of the child's presence in that home. A hearing shall be held under sub. (4). The child shall not be removed from the home except with the approval of the court under sub. (4). This subsection does not prohibit the parent, guardian or legal custodian from conferring with the child or the person operating the home.

(3) For runaway children who have been taken into custody and then released, the judge may, with the agreement of the persons operating the homes, designate homes licensed under ss. 48.48 and 48.75 as places for the temporary care and housing of such children. If the parent, guardian or legal custodian refuses to consent, the person taking the child into custody or the intake worker may release the child to one of the homes designated under this section; however, a hearing shall be held under sub. (4). The child shall not be removed from the home except with the approval of the court under sub. (4). This subsection does not prohibit the parent, guardian, or legal custodian from conferring with the child or the person operating the home.

(4) (a) If the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian does not consent to the temporary care and housing of the child at the runaway home as provided under sub. (2) or (3), a hearing shall be held on the issue by the judge or juvenile court commissioner within 24 hours of the time that the child entered the runaway home, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays. The intake worker shall notify the child and the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian of the time, place and purpose of the hearing.

(b) If, in addition to jurisdiction under par. (c), the court has jurisdiction over the child under ss. 48.12 to 48.14, excluding s. 48.14 (8), a hearing may be held under s. 48.21.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the court has jurisdiction over a runaway child only to the extent that it may hold the hearings and make the orders provided in this section.

(d) At the hearing, the child, the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian and a representative of the runaway home may present evidence, cross-examine and confront witnesses and be represented by counsel or guardian ad litem.

(e) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court may order:

1. That the child be released to his or her parent, guardian or legal custodian; or

2. That, with the consent of the child and the runaway home, the child remain in the care of the runaway home for a period of not more than 20 days. Without further proceedings, the child shall be released whenever the child indicates, either by statement or conduct, that he or she wishes to leave the home or whenever the run-away home withdraws its consent. During this time period not to exceed 20 days ordered by the court, the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian may not remove the child from the home but may confer with the child or with the person operating the home. If, at the conclusion of the time period ordered by the court the child has not left the home, and no petition concerning the child has been filed under s. 48.12 or 48.13, the child shall be released from the home. If a petition concerning the child has been filed under s. 48.12 or 48.13, the child may be held in temporary physical custody under ss. 48.20 to 48.21.

(5) No person operating an approved or licensed home in compliance with this section is subject to civil or criminal liability by virtue of false imprisonment.

History: 1977 c 354; 1979 c 300.

48.23 Right to counsel. (1) RIGHT OF CHILDREN TO LEGAL REPRESENTATION. Children subject to proceedings under this chapter shall be afforded legal representation as follows:

(a) Any child alleged to be delinquent under s. 48.12 or held in a secure detention facility shall be represented by counsel at all stages of the proceedings, but a child 15 years of age or older may waive counsel provided the court is satisfied such waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made and the court accepts the waiver. If the waiver is accepted, the court may not transfer legal custody of the child to the subunit of the department administering corrections for placement in a secured correctional facility or transfer jurisdiction over the child to adult court.

(b) 1. If a child is alleged to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13, the child may be represented by counsel at the discretion of the court. Except as provided in subd. 2, a child 15 years of age or older may waive counsel if the court is satisfied such waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made and the court accepts the waiver.

2. If the petition is contested, the court may not place the child outside his or her home unless the child is represented by counsel at the fact-finding hearing and subsequent proceedings. If the petition is not contested, the court may not place the child outside his or her home unless the child is represented by counsel at the hearing at which the placement is made. For a child under 12 years of age, the judge may appoint a guardian ad litem instead of counsel.

(c) Any child subject to the jurisdiction of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter under s. 48.14 (5) shall be represented by counsel. No waiver of counsel may be accepted by the court.

(d) If a child is the subject of a proceeding involving a contested adoption or the involuntary termination of parental rights, the court shall appoint legal counsel or a guardian ad litem for the child.

(2) RIGHT OF PARENTS TO COUNSEL. (a) Whenever a child is alleged to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13, or is the subject of a proceeding involving a contested adoption or the involuntary termination of parental rights, any parent under 18 years of age who appears before the court shall be represented by counsel; but no such parent may waive counsel. A minor parent petitioning for the voluntary termination of parental rights shall be represented by a guardian ad litem. If a proceeding involves a contested adoption or the involuntary termination of parental rights, any parent 18 years old or older who appears before the court shall be represented by counsel; but the parent may waive counsel provided the court is satisfied such waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made.

(b) If a petition under s. 48.13 is contested, no child may be placed outside his or her home unless the nonpetitioning parent is represented by counsel at the fact-finding hearing and subsequent proceedings. If the petition is not contested, the child may not be placed outside his or her home unless the nonpetitioning parent is represented by counsel at the hearing at which the placement is made. However, the parent may waive counsel if the court is satisfied such waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made and the court may place the child outside the home even though the parent was not represented by counsel.

(3) POWER OF THE COURT TO REQUIRE REPRESENTATION AND APPOINT GUARDIANS AD LITEM. At any time, upon request or on its own motion, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the child or any party and may appoint counsel for the child or any party, unless the child or the party has or wishes to retain counsel of his or her own choosing.

(3m) GUARDIANS AD LITEM OR COUNSEL FOR ABUSED OR NEGLECTED CHILDREN. The court shall appoint counsel for any child alleged to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 (3), (10) and (11), except that if the child is less than 12 years of age the court may appoint a guardian ad litem instead of counsel. The guardian ad litem or counsel for the child shall not be the same as counsel for any party or any governmental or social agency involved.

(4) PROVIDING COUNSEL. In any situation under this section in which a child has a right to be represented by counsel or is provided counsel at the discretion of the court, except for situations arising under sub. (2) where the child entitled to representation is a parent; and counsel is not knowingly and voluntarily waived; and it appears that the child is unable to afford counsel in full, or the child so indicates; the court shall refer the child to the authority for indigency determinations specified under s. 977.07 (1). In any situation under sub. (2) in which a parent is entitled to representation by counsel; counsel is not knowingly and voluntarily waived; and it appears that the parent is unable to afford counsel in full, or the parent so indicates; the court shall refer the parent to the authority for indigency determinations specified under s. 977.07 (1). The court may appoint a guardian ad litem in any appropriate matter. In any other situation under this section in which a person has a right to be represented by counsel or guardian ad litem or is provided counsel or guardian ad litem at the discretion of the court, competent and independent counsel or guardian ad litem shall be provided and reimbursed in any manner suitable to the court regardless of the person's ability to pay.

(5) COUNSEL OF OWN CHOOSING. Regardless of any provision of this section, any party is entitled to retain counsel of his or her own choosing at his or her own expense in any proceeding under this chapter.

(6) DEFINITION. For the purposes of this section, "counsel" means an attorney acting as adversary counsel who shall advance and protect the legal rights of the party represented, and who may not act as guardian ad litem for any party in the same proceeding.

History: 1977 c. 354, 355, 447, 449; 1979 c. 300, 356.

48.235 Guardian ad litem. A guardian ad litem appointed under this chapter shall be appointed under s. 879.23. On order of the court, the guardian ad litem shall be allowed reasonable compensation to be paid by the county in which the proceeding is held. The guardian ad litem has none of the rights of a general guardian. No person who is an interested party in a proceeding, appears as counsel in a proceeding on behalf of any party, or is a relative or representative of an interested party, may be appointed guardian ad litem in that proceeding.

History: 1977 c. 354.

48.237 Civil law and ordinance proceedings initiated by citation in the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter. (1) The citation forms under s. 23.54, 66.119, 778.25 or 800.02 may be used to commence an action for a violation of civil laws and ordinances in the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter.

(2) The procedures for issuance and filing of a citation, and for forfeitures, stipulations and deposits set forth in ss. 23.50 to 23.67, 23.75 (3) and (4), 66.119, 778.25 and 800.01 to 800.04 except s. 800.04 (2) (b), when the citation is issued by a law enforcement officer, shall be used as appropriate, except that this chapter shall govern taking and holding a child in custody, s. 48.37 shall govern costs and penalty assessments, and a capias shall be substituted for an arrest warrant. Sections 66.119 (3) (c), 66.12 (1) and 778.10 as they relate to collection of forfeitures do not apply.

(3) If a child to whom a citation has been issued does not submit a deposit or a stipulation and deposit, the child shall appear in the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter for a plea hearing under s. 48.30 at the date, time and place for the court appearance specified on the citation. If the child does not submit a stipulation and deposit or if the court refuses to accept a deposit unaccompanied by a stipulation, the child may be summoned to appear and the procedures which govern petitions for civil law or ordinance violations under s. 48.125 shall govern all proceedings initiated by a citation, except that the citation shall not be referred to the court intake worker for an intake inquiry and if the citation issued is a uniform municipal citation issued under ch. 800, the child may request a jury trial at any time prior to the fact-finding hearing and within 20 days after the plea hearing. If the court finds that a child violated a municipal ordinance or a civil law punishable by a forfeiture under this section, the court shall enter a dispositional order under s. 48.344, if applicable, or if s. 48.344 does not apply, the court may enter any of the dispositional orders under s. 48.343.

History: 1979 c. 300, 359.

SUBCHAPTER V*PROCEDURE

48.24 Receipt of jurisdictional information; intake inquiry. (1) Except where a citation has been issued under s. 48.17 (2), information indicating that a child should be referred to the court as delinquent, in need of protection or services or in violation of a civil law or a county, town or municipal ordinance shall be referred to the intake worker, who shall conduct an intake inquiry on behalf of the court to determine whether the available facts establish prima facie jurisdiction and to determine the best interests of the child and of the public with regard to any action to be taken.

(2) As part of the intake inquiry, intake conferences may be conducted with notice to the child, parent, guardian and legal custodian. No child or other person may be compelled to appear at any conference, produce any papers or visit any place by an intake worker.

(3) If the intake worker determines as a result of the intake inquiry that the child should be referred to the court, the intake worker shall request that the district attorney, corporation counsel or other official specified in s. 48.09 file a petition.

(4) If the intake worker determines as a result of the intake inquiry that the case should be subject to an informal disposition, or should be closed, the intake worker shall so proceed. If a petition has been filed, informal disposition may not occur or a case may not be closed unless the petition is withdrawn by the district attorney, corporation counsel or other official specified in s. 48.09, or is dismissed by the judge.

(5) The intake worker shall recommend that a petition be filed, enter into an informal disposition or close the case within 40 days or sooner of receipt of referral information. If the case is closed or an informal disposition is entered into, the district attorney, corporation counsel or other official under s. 48.09 shall receive written notice of such action. A notice of informal disposition of an alleged delinquency case shall include a summary of facts surrounding the allegation and a list of prior intake referrals and dispositions. If a law enforcement officer has made a recommendation concerning the child, the intake worker shall forward this recommendation to the district attorney, corporation counsel or other official under s. 48.09. With respect to petitioning a child to be in need of protection or services, information received more than 40 days before filing the petition may be included to establish a condition or pattern which, together with information received within the 40-day period, provides a basis for conferring jurisdiction on the court. Notwithstanding the requirements of this section, the district attorney may initiate a delinquency petition under s. 48.25 within 20 days after notice that the case has been closed or that an informal disposition has been made. The judge shall dismiss with prejudice any such petition which is not referred or filed within the time limits specified within this subsection.

(6) The intake worker shall perform his or her responsibilities under this section under general written policies which the judge shall promulgate under s. 48.06 (1) or (2).

(7) If a citation is issued to a child, the citation shall not be the subject of an intake inquiry or a review by an intake worker for the purpose of recommending informal disposition.

History: 1975 c. 430; 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300, 331, 355, 359

48.243 Basic rights: duty of intake worker. (1) Before conferring with the parent or child during the intake inquiry, the intake worker shall personally inform a child alleged to have committed a delinquent act, and parents and children 12 years of age or older who are the focus of an inquiry regarding the need for protection or services, that the referral may result in a petition to the court and:

(a) What allegations could be in the petition;

(b) The nature and possible consequences of the proceedings including the provisions of s. 48.17 or 48.18 if applicable;

(c) The right to remain silent and the fact that in a delinquency proceeding the silence of the child shall not be adversely considered by the court or jury, although silence of any party may be relevant in any nondelinquency proceeding;

(d) The right to confront and cross-examine those appearing against them;

(e) The right to counsel under s. 48.23;

(f) The right to present and subpoena witnesses;

(g) The right to a jury trial; and

(h) The right to have the allegations of the petition proved by clear and convincing evidence unless the child comes within the court's jurisdiction under s. 48.12 or 48.13 (12), in which case the standard of proof shall be beyond a reasonable doubt.

(2) This section does not apply if the child was present at a hearing under s. 48.21.

(3) If the child has not had a hearing under s. 48.21 and was not present at an intake conference under s. 48.24, the intake worker shall inform the child, parent, guardian and legal custodian as appropriate of basic rights under this section. This notice shall be given verbally, either in person or by telephone, and in writing. This notice shall be given so as to allow the child, parent, guardian or legal custodian sufficient time to prepare for the plea hearing. This subsection does not apply to cases of informal disposition under s. 48.245.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

48.245 Informal disposition. (1) The intake worker may enter into a written agreement with all parties which imposes informal disposition under this section if the intake worker has determined that neither the interests of the child nor of the public require filing of a petition for circumstances relating to ss. 48.12 to 48.14. Informal disposition shall be available only if the facts persuade the intake worker that the jurisdiction of the court, if sought, would exist and upon consent of the child, parent, guardian and legal custodian.

(2) Informal disposition may provide that the child appear with a parent, guardian or legal custodian for counseling and advice, or that the child and a parent, guardian and legal custodian abide by such obligations as will tend to ensure the child's rehabilitation, protection or care. Informal disposition may not include any form of residential placement and may not exceed 6 months.

(3) The obligations imposed under an informal disposition and its effective date shall be set forth in writing. The child and a parent, guardian and legal custodian shall receive a copy, as shall any agency providing services under the agreement.

(4) The intake worker shall inform the child and the child's parent, guardian and legal custodian in writing of their right to object at any time to the fact or terms of the informal disposition, and if the objection arises the intake worker may alter the terms of the agreement or recommend to the district attorney or corporation counsel that a petition be filed.

(5) Informal disposition shall be terminated upon the request of the child, parent, guardian or legal custodian.

(6) An informal disposition arising out of an alleged delinquent act is terminated if the district attorney files a delinquency petition within 20 days after receipt of notice of the informal disposition under s. 48.24 (5). In such case statements made to the intake worker during the intake inquiry are inadmissible.

(7) If at any time during the period of informal disposition the intake worker determines that the obligations imposed under it are not being met, the intake worker may cancel the informal disposition. Within 10 days after the cancellation of the informal disposition, the intake worker shall notify the district attorney, corporation counsel or other official under s. 48.09 of the cancellation and recommend whether or not a petition should be filed. In delinquency cases, the district attorney may initiate a petition within 20 days after the date of the notice regardless of whether the intake worker has recommended that a petition be filed. The judge shall dismiss with prejudice any petition which is not filed within the time limit specified in this subsection.

(8) If the obligations imposed under the informal disposition are met, the intake worker shall so inform the child and a parent, guardian and legal custodian in writing, and no petition may be filed or citation issued on the charges that brought about the informal disposition nor may the charges be the sole basis for a petition under ss. 48.13 to 48.14.

(9) The intake worker shall perform his or her responsibilities under this section under general written policies which the judge shall promulgate under s. 48.06 (1) or (2).

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300, 331, 359

48.25 Petition: authorization to file. (1) A petition initiating proceedings under this chapter shall be signed by a person who has knowledge of the facts alleged or is informed of them and believes them to be true. If a petition under s. 48.12 is to be filed, it shall be prepared, signed and filed by the district attorney. The district attorney, city attorney or corporation counsel or other appropriate official specified under s. 48.09 may file the petition if the proceeding is under s. 48.125 or 48.13. The counsel or guardian ad litem for a parent, relative, guardian or child may file a petition under s. 48.13 or 48.14. The district attorney, corporation counsel or other appropriate person designated by the court may initiate proceedings under s. 48.14 in a manner specified by the court.

(2) (a) If the proceeding is brought under s. 48.12, 48.125 or 48.13, the district attorney, corporation counsel or other appropriate official shall file the petition, close the case, or refer the case back to intake within 20 days after the date that the intake worker's recommendation was filed. A referral back to intake may be made only when the district attorney, corporation counsel or other appropriate official decides not to file a petition or determines that further investigation is necessary. If the case is referred back to intake upon a decision not to file a petition, the intake worker shall close the case or enter into an informal disposition within 20 days. If the case is referred back to intake for further investigation, the appropriate agency or person shall complete the investigation within 20 days. If another referral is made to the district attorney, corporation counsel or other appropriate official, it shall be considered a new referral to which the time limits of this subsection shall apply. The time limits in this subsection may only be extended by a judge upon a showing of good cause under s. 48.315. If a petition is not filed within the time limitations set forth in this subsection and the court has not granted an extension, the petition shall be accompanied by a statement of reasons for the delay. The court shall dismiss with prejudice a petition which was not timely filed unless the court finds at the plea hearing that good cause has been shown for failure to meet the time limitations.

(b) In delinquency cases where there has been a case closure or informal disposition, the petition shall be filed within 20 days of receipt of the notice of closure or informal disposition. Failure to file within 20 days invalidates the petition and affirms the case closure or informal disposition. If a petition is filed within 20 days, the district attorney shall notify the parties to the agreement and the intake worker as soon as possible.

(3) If the district attorney, city attorney or corporation counsel or other appropriate official specified in s. 48.09 refuses to file a petition, any person may request the judge to order that the petition be filed and a hearing shall be held on the request. The judge may order the filing of the petition on his or her own motion. The matter may not be heard by the judge who orders the filing of a petition.

(4) Section 939.74 applies to delinquency petitions filed under this chapter.

(5) A citation issued under s. 48.17 (2) may serve as the initial pleading and is sufficient to confer the court with jurisdiction over the child when the citation is filed with the court.

History: 1977 c. 354; 447; 1979 c. 300, 331, 355, 359.

48.255 Petition; form and content. (1) A petition initiating proceedings under this chapter shall be entitled, "In the interest of (child's name), a person under the age of 18", and shall set forth with specificity:

(a) The name, birth date and address of the child.

(b) The names and addresses of the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or spouse, if any; or if no such person can be identified, the name and address of the nearest relative.

(c) Whether the child is in custody, and, if so, the place where the child is being held and the time he or she was taken into custody unless there is reasonable cause to believe that such disclosure would result in imminent danger to the child or physical custodian.

(d) If violation of a criminal statute, an ordinance or another law is alleged, the citation to the appropriate law or ordinance as well as facts sufficient to establish probable cause that an offense has been committed and that the child named in the petition committed the offense.

(e) If the child is alleged to come within the provisions of s. 48.13 (1) to (11) or 48.14, reliable and credible information which forms the basis of the allegations necessary to invoke the jurisdiction of the court and to provide reasonable notice of the conduct or circumstances to be considered by the court together with a statement that the child is in need of supervision, services, care or rehabilitation.

(2) If any of the facts in sub. (1) (a), (b) or (c) are not known or cannot be ascertained by the petitioner, the petition shall so state.

(3) If the information required under sub. (1) (d) or (e) is not stated the petition shall be dismissed or amended under s. 48.263 (2).

(4) A copy of the petition shall be given to the child if the child is 12 years of age or older or alleged to have committed a delinquent act and to the parents, guardian, legal custodian and physical custodian.

History: 1977 c. 354.

48.263 Amendment of petition. (1) Except as provided in s. 48.255 (3), no petition, process or other proceeding may be dismissed or reversed for any error or mistake if the case and the identity of the child named in the petition may be readily understood by the court; and the court may order an amendment curing the defects.

(2) With reasonable notification to the interested parties and prior to the taking of a plea under s. 48.30, the petition may be amended at the discretion of the court or person who filed the petition. After the taking of a plea, if the child is alleged to be delinquent, the court may allow amendment of the petition to conform to the proof if the amendment is not prejudicial to the child. If the child is alleged to be in need of protection or services, the petition may be amended provided any objecting party is allowed a continuance for a reasonable time.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

48.27 Notice; summons. (1) After a citation is issued or a petition has been filed relating to facts concerning a situation specified under ss. 48.12, 48.125 and 48.13, unless the parties under sub. (3) voluntarily appear, the court may issue a summons requiring the person who has legal custody of the child to appear personally, and, if the court so orders, to bring the child before the court at a time and place stated.

(2) Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any other person whose presence, in the opinion of the court, is necessary.

(3) The court shall also notify, under s. 48.273, the child and any parent, guardian and legal custodian of the child of all hearings involving the child except hearings on motions for which notice need only be provided to the child and his or her counsel. Where parents entitled to notice have the same place of residence, notice to one shall constitute notice to the other. The first such written notice to any interested party shall have a copy of the petition attached to it.

(4) The notice shall:

(a) Contain the name of the child, and the nature, location, date and time of the hearing.

(b) Advise the child and any other party, if applicable, of his or her right to legal counsel regardless of ability to pay.

(5) The court shall make every reasonable effort to identify and notify any person who has filed a declaration of interest under s. 48.025 and any person who has been adjudged to be the biological father of the child in a judicial proceeding unless the biological father's rights have been terminated.

(6) When a proceeding is initiated under s. 48.14, all interested parties shall receive notice and appropriate summons shall be issued in a manner specified by the court, consistent with applicable governing statutes.

(7) When a citation has been issued under s. 48.17 (2) and the child's parent or guardian has been notified of the citation, subs. (3) and (4) do not apply.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300, 331, 359

48.273 Service of summons or notice; expense. (1) Service of summons or notice required by s. 48.27 may be made by mailing a copy thereof to the persons summoned or notified. If the persons fail to appear at the hearing or otherwise to acknowledge service, a continuance shall be granted, except where the court determines otherwise because the child is in secure custody, and service shall be made personally by delivering to the persons a copy of the summons or notice; except that if the court is satisfied that it is impracticable to serve the summons or notice personally, it may make an order providing for the service of the summons or notice by certified mail addressed to the last-known addresses of the persons. The court may refuse to grant a continuance when the child is being held in secure custody, but in such a case the court shall order that service of notice of the next hearing be made personally or by certified mail to the last-known address of the person who failed to appear at the hearing. Personal service shall be made at least 72 hours before the time of the hearing. Mail shall be sent at least 7 days before the time of the hearing, except where the petition is filed under s. 48.13 and the person to be notified lives outside the state, in which case the mail shall be sent at least 14 days before the time of the hearing.

(2) Service of summons or notice required by this chapter may be made by any suitable person under the direction of the court.

(3) The expenses of service of summons or notice or of the publication of summons or notice and the traveling expenses and fees as allowed in ch. 885 incurred by any person summoned or required to appear at the hearing of any case coming within the jurisdiction of the court under ss. 48.12 to 48.14, shall be a charge on the county when approved by the court.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

48.275 Parents contribution to cost of court services. If the court finds a child to be delinquent under s. 48.12, in violation of a civil law or ordinance under s. 48.125 or in need of protection or services under s. 48.13, the court shall order the parents of the child to contribute toward the expense of post-adjudication services to the child the proportion of the total amount which the court finds the parents are able to pay.

History: 1977 c. 29, 354, 449.

48.28 Failure to obey summons; capias. If any person summoned fails without reasonable cause to appear, he or she may be proceeded against for contempt of court. In case the summons cannot be served or the parties served fail to obey the same, or in any case when it appears to the court that the service will be ineffectual a capias may be issued for the parent or guardian or for the child. Subchapter IV governs the taking and holding of a child in custody.

History: 1977 c. 354 s. 41; 1979 c. 331, 359

48.29 Substitution of judge. (1) The child, or the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian, either before or during the plea hearing, may file a written request with the clerk of the court or other person acting as the clerk for a substitution of the judge assigned to the proceeding. Upon filing the written request, the filing party shall immediately mail or deliver a copy of the request to the judge named therein. In a proceeding under s. 48.12 or 48.13 (12), only the child may request a substitution of the judge. Whenever any person has the right to request a substitution of judge, that person's counsel or guardian ad litem may file the request. Except as provided in sub. (2), after a request has been filed, the judge shall be disqualified to act in relation to the matter and shall promptly request assignment of another judge under s. 751.03. Not more than one such written request may be filed in any one proceeding, nor may any single request name more than one judge. This section shall not apply to proceedings under s. 48.21.

(2) If the request for substitution of a judge is made for the judge scheduled to conduct a waiver hearing under s. 48.18, the request shall be filed before the close of the working day preceding the day that the waiver hearing is scheduled. However, the judge may allow an authorized party to make a request for substitution on the day of the waiver hearing. If the request for substitution is made subsequent to the waiver hearing, the judge who conducted the waiver hearing may also conduct the plea hearing.

History: 1977 c 354; 1979 c 32 s 92 (1); 1979 c 300.

48.293 Discovery. (1) Copies of all peace officer reports, including but not limited to the officer's memorandum and witnesses' statements, shall be made available upon request to counsel or guardian ad litem prior to a plea hearing. The reports shall be available through the representative of the public designated under s. 48.09. The child, through counsel or guardian ad litem, is the only party who shall have access to the reports in proceedings under ss. 48.12, 48.125 and 48.13 (12). The identity of a confidential informant may be withheld pursuant to s. 905.10.

(2) All records relating to a child which are relevant to the subject matter of a proceeding under this chapter shall be open to inspection by a guardian ad litem or counsel for any party, upon demand and upon presentation of releases where necessary, at least 48 hours before the proceeding. Persons entitled to inspect the records may obtain copies of the records with the permission of the custodian of the records or with permission of the court. The court may instruct counsel not to disclose specified items in the materials to the child or the parent if the court reasonably believes that the disclosure would be harmful to the interests of the child. Sections 971.23 to 971.25 shall be applicable in all delinquency proceedings under this chapter except the court shall establish the timetable for s. 971.23 (3) and (8).

History: 1977 c 354.

48.295 Physical, psychological, mental or developmental examination. (1) After the filing of a petition and upon a finding by the court that reasonable cause exists to warrant an examination, the court may order any child coming within its jurisdiction to be examined as an outpatient by a physician, psychiatrist or licensed psychologist, or by another expert appointed by the court holding at least a masters degree in social work or another related field of child development, in order that the child's physical, psychological, mental or developmental condition may be considered. The court may also order an examination of a parent, guardian or legal custodian whose ability to care for a child is at issue before the court. The court shall hear any objections by the child, the child's parents, guardian or legal custodian to the request for such an examination before ordering the examination. The expenses of an examination, if approved by the court, shall be paid by the county of the court ordering the examination.

(2) If there is probable cause to believe that the child has committed the alleged offense and is not competent to proceed, or upon entry of a plea under s. 48.30 (4) (c) the court shall order the child to be examined by a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist. The expenses of an examination, if approved by the court, shall be paid by the county of the court ordering the examination. Evaluation shall be made on an outpatient basis unless the child presents a substantial risk of physical harm to the child or others; or the child, parent or guardian, and legal counsel or guardian ad litem consent to an inpatient evaluation. Any inpatient evaluation shall be for a specified period no longer than is necessary to complete the evaluation.

(3) If the child or a parent objects to a particular physician, psychiatrist, licensed psychologist or other expert as required under this section, the court shall appoint a different physician, psychiatrist, psychologist or other expert as required under this section.

History: 1977 c 354; 1979 c 300.

48.297 Motions before trial. (1) Any motion which is capable of determination without trial of the general issue may be made before trial.

(2) Defenses and objections based on defects in the institution of proceedings, lack of probable cause on the face of the petition, insufficiency of the petition or a citation or invalidity in whole or in part of the statute on which the petition or a citation is founded shall be raised not later than 10 days after the plea hearing or be deemed waived. Other motions capable of determination without trial may be brought any time before trial.

(3) Motions to suppress evidence as having been illegally seized or statements illegally obtained shall be made before fact-finding on the issues. The court may entertain the motion at the fact-finding hearing if it appears that a party is surprised by the attempt to introduce such evidence and that party waives jeopardy. Only the child may waive jeopardy in cases under s. 48.12, 48.125 or 48.13 (12).

(4) Although the taking of a child into custody is not an arrest, it shall be considered an arrest for the purpose of deciding motions which require a decision about the propriety of taking into custody, including but not limited to motions to suppress evidence as illegally seized, motions to suppress statements as illegally obtained and motions challenging the lawfulness of the taking into custody.

(5) If the child is in custody and the court grants a motion to dismiss based upon a defect in the petition or a citation or in the institution of the proceedings, the court may order the child continued in custody for not more than 48 hours pending the filing of a new petition or citation.

(6) A motion required to be served on a child may be served upon his or her attorney of record.

The failure of police to notify parents or guardian does not per se render the confession inadmissible. Therault v. State, 66 W (2d) 33, 223 NW (2d) 850

48.299 Procedures at hearings. (1) The general public shall be excluded from hearings under this chapter and from hearings by courts exercising jurisdiction under s. 48.17 (2) unless a public fact-finding hearing is demanded by a child through his or her counsel. However, the court shall refuse to grant the public hearing if the victim of an alleged sexual assault objects or, in a nondelinquency proceeding, if a parent or guardian objects. If a public hearing is not held, only the parties, their counsel, witnesses and other persons requested by a party and approved by the court may be present. Any other person the court finds to have a proper interest in the case or in the work of the court, including a member of the bar, may be admitted by the court. Any person who divulges any information which would identify the child or the family involved in any proceeding under this chapter shall be subject to ch. 785.

(2) Every hearing under this chapter shall be reported. The record may be transcribed upon the request of any party with the approval of the court or under s. 48.47 (2).

(3) If the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child, and if the child's counsel or guardian ad litem consents, the child may be temporarily excluded by the court from a hearing on a petition alleging that the child is in need of protection or services. If the court finds that a child under 7 years of age is too young to comprehend the hearing, and that it is in the best interest of the child, the child may be excluded from the entire hearing.

(4) (a) Chapters 901 to 911 shall govern the presentation of evidence at the fact-finding hearings under ss. 48.31 and 48.42.

(b) Neither common law nor statutory rules of evidence are binding at a waiver hearing under s. 48.18, a hearing for a child held in custody under s. 48.21, a runaway home hearing under s. 48.227 (4), a dispositional hearing, or a hearing about changes in placement, revision of dispositional orders or extension of dispositional orders. At those hearings, the court shall admit all testimony having reasonable probative value, but shall exclude immaterial, irrelevant or unduly repetitious testimony. Hearsay evidence may be admitted if it has demonstrable circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness. The court shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. The court shall apply the basic principles of relevancy, materiality and probative value to proof of all questions of fact. Objections to evidentiary offers and offers of proof of evidence not admitted may be made and shall be noted in the record.

History: 1979 c. 300.

48.30 Plea hearing. (1) The hearing to determine the child's plea to a citation or a petition under s. 48.12, 48.125 or 48.13 (12), or to determine whether any party wishes to contest an allegation that the child is in need of protection or services, shall take place on a date which allows reasonable time for the parties to prepare but is within 30 days of the filing of a petition or issuance of a citation for a child who is not being held in secure custody or within 10 days of the filing of a petition or issuance of a citation for a child who is being held in secure custody.

(2) At the commencement of the hearing under this section the child and the parent, guardian or legal custodian shall be advised of their rights as specified in s. 48.243 and shall be informed that a request for a jury trial or for a substitution of judge must be made before the end of the plea hearing or be waived, except where the child is before the court on a uniform municipal citation, issued under ch. 800 in which case the court shall inform the child that a request for a jury trial may be made at any time prior to the fact-finding hearing and within 20 days after the plea hearing. Nonpetitioning parties, including the child, shall be granted a continuance of the plea hearing if they wish to consult with an attorney on the request for a jury trial or substitution of a judge.

(3) If a petition alleges that a child is in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 (1) to (11), the nonpetitioning parties and the child, if he or she is 12 years of age or older or is otherwise competent to do so, shall state whether they desire to contest the petition.

(4) If a delinquency petition under s. 48.12, a civil law or ordinance violation petition or citation under s. 48.125, or a petition alleging that a child is in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 (12) is filed, the child may plead as follows:

(a) Admit some or all of the facts alleged in the petition or citation; however, such a plea is an admission only of the commission of the acts and does not constitute an admission of delinquency or in need of protection or services;

(b) Deny the facts alleged in the petition or citation. If the child stands mute or refuses to plead, the court shall direct entry of a denial of the facts alleged in the petition or citation on the child's behalf; or

(bm) Plead no contest to the allegations, subject to the approval of the court.

(c) Except pursuant to petitions or citations under s. 48.125, state that he or she is not responsible for the acts alleged in the petition by reason of mental disease or defect. This plea shall be joined with an admission under par. (a), a denial under par. (b) or a plea of no contest under par. (bm).

(5) If the child enters a plea of not responsible by reason of mental disease or mental defect the court shall order an examination under s. 48.295 and set a date for hearing as follows:

(a) If the child admits or pleads no contest to the allegations in the petition, the hearing to determine whether the child was not responsible by reason of mental disease or mental defect shall be held no more than 10 days from the plea hearing for a child held in secure custody and no more than 30 days from the plea hearing for a child who is not held in secure custody.

(b) If the child denies the allegations in the petition or citation, the court shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the allegations in the petition or citation as provided under s. 48.31. If, at the end of the fact-finding hearing, the court finds that the allegations in the petition have been proven, the court shall immediately hold a hearing to determine whether the child was not responsible by reason of mental disease or mental defect.

(c) If the court finds that the child was not responsible by reason of mental disease or mental defect, the court shall dismiss the petition with prejudice and the court may order the filing of a petition under ch. 51. If the court does not so find, the court shall proceed to a dispositional hearing.

(6) If a petition is not contested, the court shall set a date for the dispositional hearing which allows reasonable time for the parties to prepare but is no more than 10 days from the plea hearing for the child who is held in secure custody and no more than 30 days from the plea hearing for a child who is not held in secure custody. If all parties consent the court may proceed immediately with the dispositional hearing. If a citation is not contested, the court may proceed immediately to enter a dispositional order.

(7) If the citation or the petition is contested, the court shall set a date for the fact-finding hearing which allows reasonable time for the parties to prepare but is no more than 20 days from the plea hearing for a child who is held in secure custody and no more than 30 days from the plea hearing for a child who is not held in secure custody.

(8) Except when a child fails to appear in response or stipulates to a citation before accepting an admission or plea of no contest of the alleged facts in a petition or citation, the court shall:

(a) Address the parties present including the child personally and determine that the plea or admission is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the acts alleged in the petition or citation and the potential dispositions.

(b) Establish whether any promises or threats were made to elicit a plea and alert unrepresented parties to the possibility that a lawyer may discover defenses or mitigating circumstances which would not be apparent to them.

(c) Make such inquiries as satisfactorily establishes that there is a factual basis for the child's plea or parent and child's admission.

(9) If a court commissioner conducts the plea hearing and accepts an admission of the alleged facts in a petition brought under s. 48.12 or 48.13, the judge shall review the admission at the beginning of the dispositional hearing by addressing the parties and making the inquires set forth in sub. (8).

48.305 Hearing upon the involuntary removal of a child. Notwithstanding other time periods for hearings under this chapter, if a child is removed from the physical custody of the child's parent or guardian under s. 48.19 (1) (c) or (d) 5 without the consent of the parent or guardian, the court shall schedule a plea hearing and fact-finding hearing within 30 days of a request from the parent or guardian from whom custody was removed. The plea hearing and fact-finding hearing may be combined. This time period may be extended only with the consent of the requesting parent or guardian.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

48.31 Fact-finding hearing. (1) In this section, "fact-finding hearing" means a hearing to determine if the allegations of a petition under s. 48.12 or 48.13 (12) are supported beyond a reasonable doubt or a hearing to determine if the allegations in a petition or citation under s. 48.125 or 48.13 (1) to (11) or a petition to terminate parental rights are proved by clear and convincing evidence.

(2) The hearing shall be to the court unless the child, parent, guardian or legal custodian exercises the right to a jury trial by demanding a jury trial at any time before or during the plea hearing. Chapters 756 and 805 shall govern the selection of jurors except that ss. 972.03 and 972.04 shall apply in cases in which the juvenile is alleged to be delinquent under s. 48.12. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court or jury shall make a determination of the facts. If the court finds that the child is not within the jurisdiction of the court or the court or jury finds that the facts alleged in the petition or citation have not been proved, the court shall dismiss the petition or citation with prejudice.

(4) The court or jury shall make findings of fact and the court shall make conclusions of law relating to the allegations of a petition filed under s. 48.13 (1) to (11). In cases alleging a child to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 (11), the court shall not find that the child is suffering serious emotional damage unless a licensed physician specializing in psychiatry or a licensed psychologist appointed by the court to examine the child has testified at the hearing that in his or her opinion the condition exists, and adequate opportunity for the cross-examination of the physician or psychologist has been afforded. The judge may use the written reports if the right to have testimony presented is voluntarily, knowingly and intelligently waived by the guardian ad litem or legal counsel for the child and the parent or guardian. In cases alleging a child delinquent or in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 (12) the court shall make findings relating to the proof of the violation of law and to the proof that the child named in the petition committed the violation alleged.

(7) At the close of the fact-finding hearing, the court shall set a date for the dispositional hearing which allows a reasonable time for the parties to prepare but is no more than 10 days from the fact-finding hearing for a child in secure custody and no more than 30 days from the fact-finding hearing for a child not held in secure custody. If all parties consent, the court may immediately proceed with a dispositional hearing.

See note to Art. I, sec. 5, citing McKeiver v. Pennsylvania, 402 US 528.

48.315 Delays, continuances and extensions. (1) The following time periods shall be excluded in computing time requirements within this chapter:

(a) Any period of delay resulting from other legal actions concerning the child, including an examination under s. 48.295 or a hearing related to the child's mental condition, prehearing motions, waiver motions and hearings on other matters.

(b) Any period of delay resulting from a continuance granted at the request of or with the consent of the child and counsel.

(c) Any period of delay caused by the disqualification of a judge.

(d) Any period of delay resulting from a continuance granted at the request of the representative of the public under s. 48.09 if the continuance is granted because of the unavailability of evidence material to the case when he or she has exercised due diligence to obtain the evidence and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the evidence will be available at the later date, or to allow him or her additional time to prepare the case and additional time is justified because of the exceptional circumstances of the case.

(e) Any period of delay resulting from the imposition of a consent decree.

(f) Any period of delay resulting from the absence or unavailability of the child.

(g) A reasonable period of delay when the child is joined in a hearing with another child as to whom the time for a hearing has not expired under this section if there is good cause for not hearing the cases separately.

(2) A continuance shall be granted by the court only upon a showing of good cause in open court on the record and only for so long as is necessary, taking into account the request or consent of the district attorney or the parties and the interest of the public in the prompt disposition of cases.

History: 1977 c. 354.

48.317 Jeopardy. Jeopardy attaches:

(1) In a trial to the court, when a witness is sworn.

(2) In a jury trial, when the jury selection is completed and the jury sworn.

History: 1977 c. 354.

48.32 Consent decree. (1) At any time after the filing of a petition for a proceeding relating to s. 48.12 or 48.13 and before the entry of judgment, the judge or juvenile court commissioner may suspend the proceedings and place the child under supervision in the child's own home or present placement. The court may establish terms and conditions applicable to the parent, guardian or legal custodian, and to the child. The order under this section shall be known as a consent decree and must be agreed to by the child if 12 years of age or older; the parent, guardian or legal custodian; and the person filing the petition under s. 48.25. The consent decree may include provisions for payment of the services under s. 48.36. The consent decree shall be reduced to writing and given to the parties.

(2) A consent decree shall remain in effect up to 6 months unless the child, parent, guardian or legal custodian is discharged sooner by the judge or juvenile court commissioner. Upon the motion of the court or the application of the child, parent, guardian, legal custodian, intake worker or any agency supervising the child under the consent decree, the court may, after giving notice to the parties to the consent decree and their counsel, if any, extend the decree for up to an additional 6 months in the absence of objection to extension by the parties to the initial consent decree. If the parent, guardian or legal custodian objects to the extension, the judge shall schedule a hearing and make a determination on the issue of extension.

(3) If, prior to discharge by the court, or the expiration of the consent decree, the court finds that the child or parent, legal guardian or legal custodian has failed to fulfill the express terms and conditions of the consent decree or that the child objects to the continuation of the consent decree, the hearing under which the child was placed on supervision may be continued to conclusion as if the consent decree had never been entered.

(4) No child who is discharged by the court or who completes the period of supervision without reinstatement of the original petition may again be proceeded against in any court for the same offense alleged in the petition or an offense based on the same conduct, and the original petition shall be dismissed with prejudice. Nothing in this subsection precludes a civil suit against the child or parent for damages arising from the child's conduct.

(5) A court which, under this section, elicits or examines information or material about a child which would be inadmissible in a hearing on the allegations of the petition shall not, over objections of one of the parties, participate in any subsequent proceedings if:

(a) The court refuses to enter into a consent decree and the allegations in the petition remain to be decided in a hearing where the child denies the allegations of delinquency or one of the parties denies the allegations forming the basis for a child in need of protection or services petition; or

(b) A consent decree is granted but the petition under s. 48.12 or 48.13 is subsequently reinstated.

SUBCHAPTER VI

DISPOSITION

48.33 Court reports. Before the disposition of cases of children adjudged to be delinquent or in need of protection or services an agency under s. 48.069 designated by the judge shall submit a report as specified in this section to the judge. The report shall recommend a plan of rehabilitation or treatment and care which employs the least restrictive means necessary to accomplish the purpose. The report may be presented orally at the dispositional hearing if all the parties consent to an oral report and if the report does not recommend placement of the child outside the child's home or outside the child's present placement. If an oral report is made, a record of the report shall be transcribed and shall be made a part of the court record. The report shall include:

(1) The social history of the child.

(2) A statement of the objectives of the rehabilitation or treatment and care to be provided including desirable behavior changes and academic, social and vocational skills to be achieved.

(3) The identity of the agency or person recommended to be made primarily responsible for provision of services mandated by the judge and the identity of the proposed legal custodian if custody is to be transferred to effect the treatment plan.

(4) If placement outside the child's home is recommended, substantiation that care and services that would permit the child to remain at home have been investigated and considered and are not available or likely to become available within a reasonable time to meet the needs of the child or, if available, why such services are not appropriate. Specifically, the report shall describe:

(a) What alternatives to the plan are available;

(b) What alternatives have been explored; and

(c) Why the explored alternatives are not appropriate.

(5) If placement outside the child's home is recommended, the name of the place or facility where the child shall be cared for or treated except that in the case of individual foster home treatment where the name and address of the foster parent is not available at the time of the report, that information shall be furnished to the court and the child's parent within 21 days of the court order. If after a hearing on the issue held with due notice to the parent or guardian, the judge finds that disclosure of the identity of the foster parent would result in imminent danger to the child or to the foster parent, the judge may order the name and address of the foster parent withheld from the parent or guardian.

(6) If placement more than 60 miles away from the child's home is recommended, documentation that placement within 60 miles of the child's home is either unavailable or inappropriate for the child.

History: 1977 c 354; 1979 c 300.

48.335 Dispositional hearings. (1) The court shall conduct a hearing to determine the disposition of a case in which a child is adjudged to be delinquent under s. 48.12, to have violated a civil law or ordinance under s. 48.125 or to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13, except the court shall proceed as provided by s. 48.237 (2) if a citation is issued and the child fails to contest the citation.

(3) At hearings under this section, any party may present evidence relevant to the issue of disposition, including expert testimony, and may make alternative dispositional recommendations.

(5) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall make a dispositional order in accordance with s. 48.355.

History: 1977 c 354; 1979 c 300, 331, 359.

48.34 Disposition of child adjudged delinquent. If the judge adjudges a child delinquent, he or she shall enter an order deciding one or more of the dispositions of the case as provided in this section under a care and treatment plan, except that subs. (4m) and (8) shall be exclusive dispositions:

(1) Counsel the child or the parent, guardian or legal custodian.

(2) Place the child under supervision of an agency, the department if the department approves or a suitable adult, including a friend of the child, under conditions prescribed by the judge including reasonable rules for the child's conduct and the conduct of the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian, designed for the physical, mental and moral well-being and behavior of the child.

(3) Designate one of the following as the placement for the child:

(a) The home of a relative of the child.

(b) A home which need not be licensed if placement is for less than 30 days.

(c) A foster home licensed under s. 48.62 or a group home licensed under s. 48.625.

(d) A residential treatment center licensed under s. 48.60.

(4) If it is shown that the rehabilitation or the treatment and care of the child cannot be accomplished by means of voluntary consent of the parent or guardian, transfer legal custody to:

(a) A relative of the child;

(b) A county agency;

(c) A licensed child welfare agency; or

(4m) Transfer legal custody to the subunit of the department administering corrections for placement in a secured correctional facility, but only if:

(a) The child has been found to be delinquent for the commission of an act which if committed by an adult would be punishable by a sentence of 6 months or more; and

(b) The child has been found to be a danger to the public and to be in need of restrictive custodial treatment.

(5) If the child is found to have committed a delinquent act which has resulted in damage to the property of another, or actual physical injury to another excluding pain and suffering, the judge may order the child to repair damage to property or to make reasonable restitution for the damage or injury if the judge considers it beneficial to the well-being and behavior of the child. Any such order shall include a finding that the child alone is financially able to pay and shall allow up to 12 months for the payment. Objection by the child to the amount of damages claimed shall entitle the child to a hearing on the question of damages before the amount of restitution is ordered.

(6) If the child is in need of special treatment and care the judge may order the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian to provide such care. If the parent, guardian or legal custodian fails or is financially unable to provide the care, the judge may order the care provided by an appropriate agency whether or not legal custody has been taken from the parents.

(7) The judge may restrict, suspend or revoke the operating privilege, as defined in s. 340.01 (40), of a child who is adjudicated delinquent under a violation of any law in which a motor vehicle is involved. Any limitation of the operating privilege shall be endorsed upon the operator's license and notice of the limitation forwarded to the department of transportation.

(8) If the judge finds that no other court services or alternative services are needed or appropriate it may impose a maximum forfeiture of $50 based upon a determination that this disposition is in the best interest of the child and in aid of rehabilitation, except that the court may raise the maximum ceiling on the amount of the forfeiture by $50 for every subsequent adjudication of delinquency concerning an individual child. Any such order shall include a finding that the child alone is financially able to pay the forfeiture and shall allow up to 12 months for payment. If the child fails to pay the forfeiture, the judge may vacate the forfeiture and order other alternatives under this section, in accordance with the conditions specified in this chapter; or the judge may suspend any license issued under ch. 29 for not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, or suspend the child's operating privilege as defined in s. 340.01 (40) for not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days. If the judge suspends any license under this subsection, the clerk of the court shall immediately take possession of the suspended license and forward it to the department which issued the license, together with a notice of suspension clearly stating that the suspension is for failure to pay a forfeiture imposed by the court. If the forfeiture is paid during the first 30 days after the license is suspended, the suspension shall be reduced to the minimum period of 30 days. If it is paid after the end of the 30 days, the suspension shall be reduced to the time period which has already elapsed and the court shall immediately notify the department which shall then return the license to the child.

(9) SUPERVISED WORK PROGRAM. (a) The judge may utilize as a dispositional alternative court-ordered participation in a supervised work program. The judge shall set standards for the program within the budgetary limits established by the county board. The work program may provide the child reasonable compensation reflecting a reasonable market value of the work performed, or it may consist of uncompensated community service work, and shall be administered by the county department of public welfare or a community agency approved by the judge.

(b) The supervised work program shall be of a constructive nature designed to promote the rehabilitation of the child, shall be appropriate to the age level and physical ability of the child and shall be combined with counseling from a member of an agency staff or other qualified person. The program may not conflict with the child's regular attendance at school. The amount of work required shall be reasonably related to the seriousness of the child's offense.

(10) SUPERVISED INDEPENDENT LIVING. (a) The judge may order that a child 17 or more years of age be allowed to live independently, either alone or with friends, under such supervision as the judge deems appropriate.

(b) If the plan for independent living cannot be accomplished with the consent of the parent or guardian, the judge may transfer custody of the child as provided in sub. (4) (a) to (c).

(c) The judge may order independent living as a dispositional alternative only upon a showing that the child is of sufficient maturity and judgment to live independently and only upon proof of a reasonable plan for supervision by an appropriate person or agency.

History: 1971 c. 213 s. 5; 1973 c. 328; 1975 c. 39; 1977 c. 156, 354, 447; 1979 c. 300.

48.343 Disposition of child adjudged to have violated a civil law or an ordinance.

Except as provided by s. 48.344, if the court finds that the child violated a civil law or an ordinance, it shall enter an order making one or more of the following dispositions:

(1) Counsel the child or the parent or guardian.

(2) Impose a forfeiture not to exceed $25. Any such order shall include a finding that the child alone is financially able to pay and shall allow up to 12 months for the payment. If a child fails to pay the forfeiture, the court may suspend any license issued under ch. 29 or suspend the child's operating privilege as defined in s. 340.01 (40), for not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days. The court shall immediately take possession of the suspended license and forward it to the department which issued the license, together with the notice of suspension clearly stating that the suspension is for failure to pay a forfeiture imposed by the court. If the forfeiture is paid during the first 30 days after the license is suspended, the suspension shall be reduced to the minimum period of 30 days. If it is paid thereafter, the court shall immediately notify the department, which will thereupon return the license to the person.

(3) Order the child to participate in a supervised work program under s. 48.34 (9).

(4) If the violation has resulted in damage to the property of another, or actual physical injury to another excluding pain and suffering, the court may order the child to make repairs of the damage to property or reasonable restitution for the damage or injury if the court considers it beneficial to the well-being and behavior of the child. Any such order requiring payment for repairs or restitution shall include a finding that the child alone is financially able to pay and shall allow up to 12 months for the payment. Objection by the child to the amount of damages claimed shall entitle the child to a hearing on the question of damages before the amount of restitution is ordered.

(5) If the violation is related to unsafe use of a boat, order the child to attend a safety course under s. 30.74 (1).

(6) If the violation is of ch. 29, suspension of the license or licenses of the child issued under that chapter for not more than one year or until the child is 18 years of age, whichever occurs first.

(7) If the violation is related to the unsafe use of firearms, order the child to attend a safety course under s. 29.225.

(8) If the violation is one under ch. 350 concerning the use of snowmobiles, order the child to attend a safety course under s. 350.055.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300, 331.

48.344 Disposition; intoxicating liquor and beer violations. (1) In this section:

(a) "Court" means a municipal court or the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter.

(b) "Violation" means a violation of s. 66.054 (19), (20), (22) or (24), 176.29, 176.30 (2), 176.31 or 176.32 (1) or a local ordinance which strictly conforms to one of those statutes.

(2) If a court finds a child committed a violation it shall impose a forfeiture of not more than $25. A court shall also suspend the operating privilege of a child found to have committed a violation as provided by s. 343.30 (6).

(3) If a child fails to pay the forfeiture ordered by the court under this section, the court shall not impose a jail sentence but may, subject to sub. (4), suspend the child's operating privilege, as defined in s. 340.01 (40), for not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days. If a court suspends a license under this subsection, it shall immediately take possession of the suspended license and forward it to the department of transportation, together with the notice of suspension clearly stating that the suspension is for failure to pay a forfeiture imposed by the court. If the forfeiture is paid during the first 30 days after the license is suspended, the suspension shall be reduced to the minimum period of 30 days. If it is paid thereafter, the court shall immediately notify the department of transportation, which shall thereupon return the license to the person.

(4) (a) Except as provided by par. (b), the suspension of the operating privilege under sub. (3) shall commence on the date of disposition.

(b) If the person subject to suspension under this section does not hold a valid license under ch. 343 other than a license under s. 343.07 or 343.08 on the date of disposition, the suspension under sub. (3) shall commence on the date that such a license would otherwise be reinstated or issued after the person applies and qualifies for reinstatement or issuance or on the date the person attains the age of 19, whichever first occurs.

History: 1979 c. 331, 359

48.345 Disposition of child adjudged in need of protection or services. If the judge finds that the child is in need of protection or services, it shall enter an order deciding one or more of the dispositions of the case as provided in s. 48.34 under a care and treatment plan except that the plan shall not:

(1) Transfer the custody of the child to the subunit of the department administering corrections;

(2) Order restitution;

(3) Order payment of a forfeiture;

(4) Restrict, suspend or revoke the driving privileges of the child; or

(5) Place any child not specifically found under chs. 46, 49, 51, 115 and 880 to be developmentally disabled, mentally ill or to have exceptional educational needs in facilities which exclusively treat those categories of children.

(6) Order the child to participate in a supervised work program under s. 48.34 (9).

History: 1971 c. 125; 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300

48.35 Effect of judgment and disposition.

(1) The judge shall enter a judgment setting forth his or her findings and disposition in the proceeding.

(a) A judgment in proceedings on a petition under this chapter is not a conviction of a crime, shall not impose any civil disabilities ordinarily resulting from the conviction of a crime and shall not operate to disqualify the child in any civil service application or appointment.

(b) The disposition of a child, and any record of evidence given in a hearing in court, shall not be admissible as evidence against the child in any case or proceeding in any other court except:

1. In sentencing proceedings after conviction of a felony or misdemeanor and then only for the purpose of a presentence study and report;

2. In a proceeding in any court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter; or

3. In a court of civil or criminal jurisdiction while it is exercising the jurisdiction of a family court and is considering the custody of children.

(c) Disposition by the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter of any allegation under s. 48.12 shall bar any future proceeding on the same matter in criminal court when the child reaches the age of 18. This paragraph does not affect proceedings in criminal court which have been transferred under s. 48.18.

(e) If a child is found to be not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect the petition shall be dismissed with prejudice.

(2) Except as specifically provided in sub. (1), this section does not preclude the court from disclosing information to qualified persons if the court considers the disclosure to be in the best interests of the child or of the administration of justice.

History: 1971 c. 213 s. 5; 1973 c. 328; 1975 c. 39; 1977 c. 29; 1977 c. 354 ss. 59, 63; 1977 c. 447, 449; 1979 c. 32, 300, 331, 359

48.355 Dispositional orders. (1) INTENT. In any order under s. 48.34 or 48.345 the judge shall decide on a placement and treatment finding based on evidence submitted to the judge. The disposition shall employ those means necessary to maintain and protect the child's well-being which are the least restrictive of the rights of the parent or child and which assure the care, treatment or rehabilitation of the child and the family. Wherever possible the family unit shall be preserved and there shall be a policy of transferring custody from the parent only where there is no less drastic alternative.

(2) CONTENT OF ORDER. (a) In addition to the order, the judge shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law based on the evidence presented to the judge to support the disposition of each individual coming before him or her.

(b) The court order shall be in writing and shall contain:

1. The identity of the agency which is to be primarily responsible for the provision of the services mandated by the judge and, if custody is to be transferred to effect the treatment plan, the identity of the legal custodian.

2. If the child is placed outside the home, the name of the place or facility, including transitional placements, where the child shall be cared for or treated, except that in the case of individual foster home treatment where the name and address of the foster parent shall be furnished to the court and the parent within 21 days of the order, except that if, after a hearing on the issue with due notice to the parent or guardian, the judge finds that disclosure of the identity of the foster parent would result in imminent danger to the child or the foster parent, the judge may order the name and address of the prospective foster parents withheld from the parent or guardian.

3. The date of the expiration of the court's order.

4. A designation of the amount of support, if any, to be paid by the child's parent, guardian or trustee.

5. If the child is placed outside his or her home pursuant to a finding under s. 48.13 that the child is in need of protection or services, the conditions necessary for the child to be returned home, including any required changes in the conduct of the parent, the nature of the home or the conduct of the child.

(2m) TRANSITIONAL PLACEMENTS. The court order may include the name of transitional placements, but may not designate a specific time when transitions are to take place. The procedures of ss. 48.357 and 48.363 shall govern when such transitions take place. However, the court may place specific time limitations on interim arrangements made for the care of the child pending the availability of the dispositional placement.

(3) PARENTAL VISITATION. If, after a hearing on the issue with due notice to the parent or guardian, the judge finds that it would be in the best interest of the child, the judge may set reasonable rules of parental visitation.

(3m) ORDERS BASED ON EVIDENCE. Dispositional orders under s. 48.343 or 48.344 shall be based upon the evidence except this subsection does not require a dispositional hearing for the disposition of an uncontested citation.

(4) TERMINATION OF ORDERS. All orders under this section shall terminate at the end of one year unless the judge specifies a shorter period of time. Extensions or revisions shall terminate at the end of one year unless the judge specifies a shorter period of time. No extension under s. 48.365 of an original dispositional order may be granted for a child whose legal custody has been transferred to the department under s. 48.34 (4m) if the child is 18 years of age or older when the original dispositional order terminates. Any order made before the child reaches the age of majority shall be effective for a time up to one year after its entry unless the judge specifies a shorter period of time.

NOTE: Sub. (4) is shown as amended by chapter 295, laws of 1979, effective July 1, 1981. Chapter 295 added the 3rd sentence commencing "No extension" and ending "terminates".

(5) EFFECT OF COURT ORDER. Any party, person or agency who provides services for the child under this section shall be bound by the court order.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 295, 300, 359

48.356 Duty of court to warn. (1) Whenever the judge orders a child to be placed outside the home because the child has been adjudged to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.345, 48.357, 48.363 or 48.365, the judge shall orally inform the parent or parents who appear in court of any grounds for termination of parental rights under s. 48.415 which may be applicable.

(2) In addition to sub. (1), any written order which places a child outside the home under sub. (1) shall notify the parent or parents of the grounds for termination of parental rights under s. 48.415.

History: 1979 c. 330.

48.357 Change in placement. (1) The person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order may request a change in the placement of the child, whether or not the change requested is authorized in the dispositional order and shall cause written notice to be sent to the child or the child's counsel or guardian ad litem, parent, guardian and legal custodian. The notice shall contain the name and address of the new placement, the reasons for the change in placement, a statement describing why the new placement is preferable to the present placement and a statement of how the new placement satisfies objectives of the treatment plan ordered by the court. Any party receiving the notice under this subsection or notice of the specific foster placement under s. 48.355 (2) (b) 2 may obtain a hearing on the matter by filing an objection with the court within 10 days of receipt of the notice. Placements shall not be changed until 10 days after such notice is sent to the court unless the parent, guardian or legal custodian and the child, if 12 or more years of age, sign written waivers of objection, except that placement changes which were authorized in the dispositional order may be made immediately if notice is given as required in this subsection. In addition, a hearing is not required for placement changes authorized in the dispositional order except where an objection filed by a party who received notice alleges that new information is available which affects the advisability of the court's dispositional order.

(2) If emergency conditions necessitate an immediate change in the placement of a child placed outside the home, the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order may remove the child to a new placement, whether or not authorized by the existing dispositional order, without the prior notice provided in sub. (1). The notice shall, however, be sent within 48 hours after the emergency change in placement. Any party receiving notice may demand a hearing under sub. (1). In emergency situations, the child may be placed in a licensed public or private shelter care facility as a transitional placement for not more than 20 days, as well as in any placement authorized under s. 48.34 (3).

(2m) The child, parent, guardian, legal custodian or any person or agency primarily bound by the dispositional order, other than the person or agency responsible for implementing the order, may request a change in placement under this subsection. The request shall contain the name and address of the place of the new placement requested and shall state what new information is available which affects the advisability of the current placement. This request shall be submitted to the court. In addition, the court may propose a change in placement on its own motion. The court shall hold a hearing on the matter prior to ordering any change in placement under this subsection if the request states that new information is available which affects the advisability of the current placement, unless written waivers of objection to the proposed change in placement are signed by all parties entitled to receive notice under sub. (1) and the court approves. If a hearing is scheduled, the court shall notify the child, parent, guardian, legal custodian and all parties who are bound by the dispositional order at least 3 days prior to the hearing. A copy of the request or proposal for the change in placement shall be attached to the notice. If all the parties consent, the court may proceed immediately with the hearing.

(3) If the proposed change in placement would involve placing the child with the subunit of the department administering corrections notice shall be given as provided in sub. (1). A hearing shall be held, unless waived by the child, parent, guardian and legal custodian, before the judge makes a decision on the request. The child shall be entitled to counsel at the hearing, and any party opposing or favoring the proposed new placement may present relevant evidence and cross-examine witnesses. The proposed new placement may be approved only if the judge finds, on the record, that the conditions set forth in s. 48.34 (4m) have been met.

(4) When the child is placed with the subunit of the department administering corrections, the department may, after an examination under s. 48.50, place the child in a secured correctional facility or on aftercare, either immediately or after a period of placement in a secured correctional facility. The department shall send written notice of the change to the parent, guardian, legal custodian and committing court.

(5) If a child placed with the subunit of the department administering corrections has been released on aftercare, revocation of aftercare shall not require prior notice under sub. (1). A child on aftercare status may be taken into custody only as provided in ss. 48.19 to 48.21. The child shall be entitled to representation by counsel at all stages of the revocation proceeding. The hearing shall be conducted under ch. 227 by an independent officer of the department. Review of a revocation decision shall be by certiorari to the court by whose order the child was placed with the subunit of the department administering corrections.

(6) No change in placement may extend the expiration date of the original order.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

48.36 Payment for services. (1) If legal custody is transferred from the parent or guardian or the court otherwise designates an alternative placement for the child by a disposition made under s. 48.34 or 48.345, the duty of the parent or guardian to provide support shall continue even though the legal custodian or the placement designee may provide the support. A copy of the order transferring custody or designating alternative placement for the child shall be submitted to the agency or person receiving custody or placement and the agency or person may apply to the court for an order to compel the parent or guardian to provide the support. Support payments for residential services, when purchased or otherwise funded or provided by the department, a county department of public welfare or a board under s. 46.23, 51.42 or 51.437, shall be subject to the payment provisions under ss. 46.03 (18) and 46.10 (14). However, if at the time the child is placed into such residential services a court order for support already exists under ch. 52 or 767 the amount of parental payment to be applied to residential services shall not be less than the amount specified in that court order.

(2) If a child whose legal custody has not been taken from a parent or guardian is given educational and social services, or medical, psychological or psychiatric treatment by order of the court, the cost thereof, if ordered by the court, shall be a charge upon the county. This section does not prevent recovery of reasonable contribution toward the costs from the parent or guardian of the child as the court may order based on the ability of the parent or guardian to pay. This subsection shall be subject to s. 46.03 (18).

(3) In determining county liability, this section does not apply to services specified in ch. 115 or provided by mental health boards under ch. 51.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 221.

48.363 Revision of dispositional orders. The parent, child, guardian or legal custodian or any person or agency bound by a dispositional order may request a revision in the order which does not involve a change in placement, or the court may on its own motion propose such a revision. The request or court proposal shall set forth in detail the nature of the proposed revision and what new information is available which affects the advisability of the court's disposition. The request or court proposal shall be submitted to the court. The court shall hold a hearing on the matter if the request or court proposal indicates that new information is available which affects the advisability of the court's dispositional order and prior to any revision of the dispositional order, unless written waivers of objections to the revision are signed by all parties entitled to receive notice and the court approves. If a hearing is held, the court shall notify the parent, child, guardian and legal custodian, and all parties bound by the dispositional order at least 3 days prior to the hearing. A copy of the request or proposal shall be attached to the notice. If all parties consent, the court may proceed immediately with the hearing. No revision may extend the effective period of the original order.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

48.365 Extension of orders. (1) The parent, child, guardian, legal custodian, any person or agency bound by the dispositional order, or the court on its own motion, may request an extension of an order under s. 48.355. The request shall be submitted to the court which entered the order. No order under s. 48.355 may be extended except as provided in this section.

(2) An order may be extended only pursuant to a hearing before the judge which shall include:

(a) Notice to the child or the child's guardian ad litem or counsel, and to the parent, guardian, legal custodian and all the parties present at the original hearing.

(b) A signed and filed court report by the person or agency designated by the judge who is primarily responsible for the provision of services to the child. The report shall contain a statement to what extent the disposition has been meeting the objectives of treatment, care or rehabilitation as specified in the judge's findings of fact. The statement shall contain:

1. In cases of placements outside the home, an evaluation of the child's adjustment to the placement, progress he or she has made, anticipated future planning for the child, a description of efforts that have been made by all parties concerned towards returning the child to his or her parental home, including efforts of the parents to remedy factors which contributed to the transfer of the child, and an explanation of why returning the child to his or her home is not feasible.

2. In cases where the child has not been placed outside the home, a description of efforts that have been made by all parties concerned toward meeting the objectives of treatment, care or rehabilitation, an explanation of why these efforts have not yet succeeded in meeting the objective, and anticipated future planning for the child.

(c) Any party may present evidence relevant to the issue of extension. The judge shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law based on the evidence. An order shall be issued under s. 48.355.

(3) The appearance of any child may be waived by consent of the child, counsel or guardian ad litem.

(4) The judge shall determine which dispositions are to be considered for extensions.

(5) All orders shall be for a specified length of time not to exceed one year.

(6) If a request to extend a dispositional order is made prior to the termination of the order, but the court is unable to conduct a hearing on the request prior to the termination date, the court may extend the order for a period of not more than 30 days.

(7) Nothing in this section may be construed to allow any changes in placement or revocation of aftercare. Revocation and other changes in placement may take place only under s. 48.357.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 300.

48.37 Costs. No costs or penalty assessments may be assessed against any child in a court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter. Courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction exercising jurisdiction under s. 48.17 may assess the same costs and penalty assessment against children as they may assess against adults, except that witness fees shall not be charged to the child.

History: 1977 c. 354, 449; 1979 c. 300, 359.

48.373 Medical authorization. The court may authorize medical services including surgical procedures when needed if the court determines that reasonable cause exists for the services and that the minor is within the jurisdiction of the court and consents.

History: 1971 c. 105; 1977 c. 354 s. 64; 1977 c. 449.

SUBCHAPTER VII

RECORDS

48.39 Disposition by court bars criminal proceeding. Disposition by the court of any violation of state law coming within its jurisdiction under s. 48.12 bars any future criminal proceeding on the same matter in circuit court when the child reaches the age of 18. This section does not affect criminal proceedings in circuit court which were transferred under s. 48.18.

History: 1977 c. 449

48.396 Records. (1) Peace officers' records of children shall be kept separate from records of persons 18 or older and shall not be open to inspection or their contents disclosed except by order of the court or according to s. 48.293. This subsection shall not apply to the representatives of newspapers or other reporters of news who wish to obtain information for the purpose of reporting news without revealing the identity of the child involved or to the confidential exchange of information between the police and officials of the school attended by the child or other law enforcement or social welfare agencies or to children 16 or older who are transferred to the criminal courts.

(2) Records of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter and of courts exercising jurisdiction under s. 48.17 (2) shall be entered in books or deposited in files kept for that purpose only. They shall not be open to inspection or their contents disclosed except by order of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter.

(3) This section does not apply to proceedings for violation of chs. 340 to 349 and 351 or any county or municipal ordinance enacted under ch. 349, except that this section does apply to proceedings for violations of ss. 342.06 (2) and 344.48 (1), and s. 346.67 when death or injury occurs.

(4) When a court revokes, suspends or restricts a child's operating privilege under s. 48.17 (2), 48.237, 48.34 (7) or (8) or 48.343 (2), the department of transportation shall not disclose information concerning or relating to the revocation, suspension or restriction to any person other than a court, district attorney, county corporation counsel, city, village or town attorney, law enforcement agency, or the minor whose operating privilege is revoked, suspended or restricted, or his or her parent or guardian. Persons entitled to receive this information shall not disclose the information to other persons or agencies.

SUBCHAPTER VIII

TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

48.40 Definitions. In this subchapter:

(1) "Agency" means the department, a county department of social services or a licensed child welfare agency.

(2) "Termination of parental rights" means that, pursuant to a court order, all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties and obligations existing between parent and child are permanently severed.

History: 1979 c 330.

Parents whose rights have been terminated do not inherit from a child; his brothers and sisters (whether parental rights as to them have been terminated or not) are his heirs. Estate of Pamanet, 46 W (2d) 514, 175 NW (2d) 234

48.41 Voluntary consent to termination of parental rights. (1) The court may terminate the parental rights of a parent after the parent has given his or her consent as specified in this section. When such voluntary consent is given as provided in this section, the judge may proceed immediately to a disposition of the matter after considering the standard and factors specified in s. 48.426.

(2) The court may accept a voluntary consent to termination of parental rights only as follows:

(a) The parent appears personally at the hearing and gives his or her consent to the termination of his or her parental rights. The judge may accept the consent only after the judge has explained the effect of termination of parental rights and has questioned the parent and is satisfied that the consent is informed and voluntary; or

(b) If the court finds that it would be difficult or impossible for the parent to appear in person at the hearing, the court may accept the written consent of the parent given before a judge of any court of record. This written consent shall be accompanied by the signed findings of the judge who accepted the parent's consent. These findings shall recite that the judge questioned the parent and found that the consent was informed and voluntary before the judge accepted the consent of the parent.

(c) A person who may be the father of a child born out of wedlock, but who has not been adjudicated to be the father, may consent to the termination of any parental rights that he may have as provided in par. (a) or (b) or by signing a written, notarized statement which recites that he has been informed of and understands the effect of an order to terminate parental rights and that he voluntarily disclaims any rights that he may have to the child, including the right to notice of proceedings under this subchapter.

(3) The consent of a minor or incompetent person to the termination of his or her parental rights shall not be accepted by the court unless it is joined by the consent of his or her guardian ad litem. If the guardian ad litem joins in the consent to the termination of parental rights with the minor or incompetent person, minority or incompetence shall not be grounds for a later attack on the order terminating parental rights.

History: 1979 c 330.

48.415 Grounds for involuntary termination of parental rights. At the fact-finding hearing the court may make a finding that grounds exist for the termination of parental rights. Grounds for termination of parental rights shall be one of the following:

(1) ABANDONMENT. (a) Abandonment may be established by a showing that:

1. The child has been left without provision for its care or support, the petitioner has investigated the circumstances surrounding the matter and for 60 days the petitioner has been unable to find either parent;

2. The child has been placed, or continued in a placement, outside the parent's home by a court order containing the notice required by s. 48.356 (2) and the parent has failed to visit or communicate with the child for a period of 6 months or longer; or

3. The child has been left by the parent with a relative or other person, the parent knows or could discover the whereabouts of the child and the parent has failed to visit or communicate with the child for a period of one year or longer.

(b) Incidental contact between parent and child shall not preclude the court from finding that the parent has failed to visit or communicate with the child under par. (a) 2 or 3. The time periods under par. (a) 2 or 3 shall not include any periods during which the parent has been prohibited by judicial order from visiting or communicating with the child.

(c) A showing under par. (a) that abandonment has occurred may be rebutted by other evidence that the parent has not disassociated himself or herself from the child or relinquished responsibility for the child's care and well-being.

(2) CONTINUING NEED OF PROTECTION OR SERVICES. Continuing need of protection or services may be established by a showing that the child has been adjudged to be in need of protection or services and placed, or continued in a placement, outside his or her home pursuant to one or more court orders under s. 48.345, 48.357, 48.363 or 48.365 containing the notice required by s. 48.356 (2), that the agency responsible for the care of the child and the family has made a diligent effort to provide the services required by the court, and:

(a) The child has been outside the home for a cumulative total period of one year or longer pursuant to such orders and the parent has substantially neglected or wilfully refused to remedy the conditions which resulted in the removal of the child from the home; or

(b) The child has been outside the home for a cumulative total period of 2 years or longer pursuant to such orders, the parent has been unable to remedy the conditions which resulted in the removal of the child from the home and there is a substantial likelihood that the parent will not be able to remedy these conditions in the future.

(3) CONTINUING PARENTAL DISABILITY. Continuing parental disability may be established by a showing that:

(a) The parent is presently, and for a cumulative total period of at least 2 years within the 5 years immediately prior to the filing of the petition has been, an inpatient at one or more hospitals as defined in s. 50.33 (1) (a), (b) or (c), licensed treatment facilities as defined in s. 51.01 (2) or state treatment facilities as defined in s. 51.01 (15) on account of mental illness as defined in s. 51.01 (13) (a) or (b) or developmental disability as defined in s. 55.01 (2) or (5);

(b) The condition of the parent is likely to continue indefinitely; and

(c) The child is not being provided with adequate care by a relative who has legal custody of the child, or by a parent or a guardian.

(4) CONTINUING DENIAL OF VISITATION RIGHTS. Continuing denial of visitation rights may be established by a showing that:

(a) The parent has been denied visitation rights by court order in an action affecting marriage;

(b) At least 2 years have elapsed since the order denying visitation rights was issued and the court has not subsequently modified its order so as to permit visitation rights; and

(c) The parent would not be entitled to visitation rights if he or she were to seek such rights at the time the petition for termination of parental rights is filed.

(5) REPEATED ABUSE. Repeated abuse may be established by a showing that on more than one occasion the parent has caused death or injury to a minor or minors living in the parent's household resulting in 2 or more separate felony convictions.

(6) FAILURE TO ASSUME PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY. (a) Failure to assume parental responsibility may be established by a showing that a child has been born out of wedlock, not subsequently legitimated or adopted, that paternity was not adjudicated prior to the filing of the petition for termination of parental rights and:

1. The person or persons who may be the father of the child have been given notice under s. 48.42 but have failed to appear or otherwise submit to the jurisdiction of the court and that such person or persons have never had a substantial parental relationship with the child; or

2. That although paternity to the child has been adjudicated under s. 48.423, the father did not establish a substantial parental relationship with the child prior to the adjudication of paternity although the father had reason to believe that he was the father of the child and had an opportunity to establish a substantial parental relationship with the child.

(b) In this subsection, "substantial parental relationship" means the acceptance and exercise of significant responsibility for the daily supervision, education, protection and care of the child. In evaluating whether the person has had a substantial parental relationship with the child, the court may consider such factors, including, but not limited to, whether the person has ever expressed concern for or interest in the support, care or well-being of the child or the mother during her pregnancy and whether the person has neglected or refused to provide care or support even though the person had the opportunity and ability to do so.

History: 1979 c. 330.

Consent by the mother subsequent to the birth of the child to termination of her parental rights in its best interests so that the child might be placed for adoption constituted an abandonment, and although she was permitted to withdraw that consent by a previous decision of the supreme court, the best interests of the child require modification of the county court order to effect a termination of her parental rights. State ex rel. Lewis v. Lutheran Social Services, 68 W (2d) 36, 227 NW (2d) 643.

48.42 Procedure. (1) PETITION. A proceeding for the termination of parental rights shall be initiated by petition which may be filed by the child's parent, an agency or a person authorized to file a petition under s. 48.25. The petition shall be entitled "In the interest of ..... (child's name), a person under the age of 18" and shall set forth with specificity:

(a) The name, birth date and address of the child;

(b) The names and addresses of the child's parent or parents, guardian and legal custodian;

(c) A statement that consent will be given to termination of parental rights as provided in s. 48.41 or a statement of the grounds for involuntary termination of parental rights under s. 48.415 and a statement of the facts and circumstances which the petitioner alleges gives rise to these grounds.

(2) WHO MUST BE SUMMONED. Except as provided in sub. (2m), the petitioner shall cause the summons and petition to be served upon the following persons:

(a) The parent or parents of the child.

(b) If the child was born out of wedlock, and not subsequently legitimated or adopted and paternity has not been established:

1. A person who has filed a declaration of interest under s. 48.025.

2. A person or persons alleged to the court to be the father of the child or who may, based upon the statements of the mother or other information presented to the court, be the father of the child unless that person has waived the right to notice under s. 48.41 (2) (c).

3. A person who has lived in a familial relationship with the child and who may be the father of the child.

(c) The guardian, guardian ad litem and legal custodian of the child.

(d) Any other person to whom notice is required to be given by ch. 822, excluding foster parents.

(e) To the child if the child is 12 years of age or older.

(2m) NOTICE NOT REQUIRED. Notice is not required to be given to a person who may be the father of a child conceived as a result of a sexual assault or of incest if a physician attests to his or her belief that a sexual assault or incest has occurred.

(3) CONTENTS OF SUMMONS. The summons shall:

(a) Contain the name and birth date of the child, and the nature, location, date and time of the initial hearing.

(b) Advise the party, if applicable, of his or her right to legal counsel, regardless of ability to pay under s. 48.23 and ch. 977.

(c) Advise the parties of the possible result of the hearing and the consequences of failure to appear or respond.

(4) MANNER OF SERVING SUMMONS AND PETITION. (a) Personal service. A copy of the summons and petition shall be served personally upon the parties specified in sub. (2), if known, at least 10 days before the date of the hearing, except that service of summons is not required if the party submits to the jurisdiction of the court. Service upon parties who are not natural persons and upon persons under a disability shall be as prescribed in s. 801.11.

(b) Constructive notice. 1. If with reasonable diligence a party specified in sub. (2) cannot be served under par. (a), service shall be made by publication of the notice under subd. 4.

2. If the child is born out of wedlock and not legitimated or adopted and paternity has not been adjudicated, the court may, as provided in

s. 48.422 (6) (b), order publication of a notice under subd. 4.

3. At the time the petition is filed, the petitioner may move the court for an order waiving the requirement of constructive notice to a person who, although his identity is unknown, may be the father of a child born out of wedlock.

4. A notice published under this subsection shall be published as a class 1 notice under ch. 985. In determining which newspaper is likely to give notice as required under s. 985.02 (1), the petitioner or court shall consider the residence of the party, if known, or the residence of the relatives of the party, if known, or the last-known location of the party. If the party's post-office address is known or can, with due diligence, be ascertained, a copy of the summons and petition shall be mailed to the party upon or immediately prior to the first publication. The mailing may be omitted if the petitioner shows that the post-office address cannot be obtained with due diligence. Except as provided in subd. 5, the notice shall include the date, place and circuit court branch for the hearing, the court file number, the name, address and telephone number of the petitioner's attorney and information the court determines to be necessary to give effective notice to the party or parties. Such information shall include the following, if known:

a. The name of the party or parties to whom notice is being given;

b. A description of the party or parties;

c. The former address of the party or parties;

d. The approximate date and place of conception of the child; and

e. The date and place of birth of the child.

5. The notice shall not include the name of the mother unless the mother consents. The notice shall not include the name of the child unless the court finds that inclusion of the child's name is essential to give effective notice to the father.

(c) The notice under par. (a) or (b) shall also inform parties that the parental rights of a parent or alleged parent who fails to appear may be terminated, of the party's right to have an attorney present and that if a person desires to contest termination of parental rights and believes that he or she cannot afford an attorney, the person may ask the state public defender to represent him or her.

History: 1973 c. 263; 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 330

48.422 Hearing on the petition. (1) The hearing on the petition to terminate parental rights shall be held within 30 days after the petition is filed. At the hearing on the petition to terminate parental rights the court shall determine whether any party wishes to contest the petition and inform the parties of their rights under sub. (4) and s. 48.423.

(2) If the petition is contested the court shall set a date for a fact-finding hearing to be held within 45 days of the hearing on the petition, unless all of the necessary parties agree to commence with the hearing on the merits immediately.

(3) If the petition is not contested the court shall hear testimony in support of the allegations in the petition, including testimony as required in sub. (7).

(4) Any party who is necessary to the proceeding or whose rights may be affected by an order terminating parental rights shall be granted a jury trial upon request if the request is made before the end of the initial hearing on the petition.

(5) Any nonpetitioning party, including the child, shall be granted a continuance of the hearing for the purpose of consulting with an attorney on the request for a jury trial or concerning a request for the substitution of a judge.

(6) (a) If the child was born out of wedlock and not legitimated or adopted and paternity has not been established, the court shall hear testimony concerning the paternity of the child. Based on the testimony, the court shall determine whether all interested parties who are known have been notified under s. 48.42 (2). If not, the court shall adjourn the hearing and order appropriate notice to be given.

(b) If the court determines that an unknown person may be the father of the child and notice to that person has not been waived under s. 48.42 (4) (b) 3, the court shall determine whether constructive notice will substantially increase the likelihood of notice to that person. If the court does determine that it would substantially increase the likelihood of notice and the petitioner has not already caused the notice to be published or the court determines that the publication used was not sufficient, the court shall adjourn the hearing for a period not to exceed 30 days and shall order constructive notice under s. 48.42 (4) (b). If the court determines that constructive notice will not substantially increase the likelihood of notice to that person, the court shall order that the hearing proceed.

(c) If paternity is adjudicated under this subchapter and parental rights are not terminated, the court may make and enforce such orders for the suitable care, custody and support of the child as a court having jurisdiction over actions affecting marriage may make under ch. 767. If there is a finding by the court that the child is in need of protection or services, the court may make dispositional orders under s. 48.345.

(7) Before accepting an admission of the alleged facts in a petition, the court shall:

(a) Address the parties present and determine that the admission is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the acts alleged in the petition and the potential dispositions.

(b) Establish whether any promises or threats were made to elicit an admission and alert all unrepresented parties to the possibility that a lawyer may discover defenses or mitigating circumstances which would not be apparent to them.

(c) Make such inquiries as satisfactorily establish that there is a factual basis for the admission.

(8) If the petition for termination of parental rights is filed by an agency enumerated in s. 48.069 (1) or (2), the court shall order the agency to submit a report to the court as provided in s. 48.425.

History: 1979 c. 330.

48.423 Rights of persons alleging paternity. If a man who alleges that he is the father of the child appears at the hearing and wishes to contest the termination of his parental rights, the court shall set a date for a hearing on the issue of paternity or, if all parties agree, the court may immediately commence hearing testimony concerning the issue of paternity. The court shall inform the man claiming to be the father of the child of any right to counsel under s. 48.23. The man claiming to be the father of the child must prove paternity by clear and convincing evidence.

History: 1979 c. 330

Putative father's right to custody of his child. 1971 WLR 1262.

48.424 Fact-finding hearing. (1) The purpose of the fact-finding hearing is to determine whether grounds exist for the termination of parental rights in those cases where the termination was contested at the hearing on the petition under s. 48.422.

(2) The fact-finding hearing shall be conducted according to the procedure specified in s. 48.31 except that:

(a) The court may exclude the child from the hearing; and

(b) The hearing shall be closed to the public.

(3) If the facts are determined by a jury, the jury may only decide whether any grounds for the termination of parental rights have been proven. The court shall decide what disposition is in the best interest of the child.

(4) If grounds for the termination of parental rights are found the court shall proceed immediately to hear evidence and motions related to the dispositions enumerated in s. 48.427. The court may delay making the disposition and set a date for a dispositional hearing no later than 45 days after the fact-finding hearing if:

(a) All parties to the proceeding agree; or

(b) The court has not yet received a report to the court on the history of the child as provided in s. 48.425 from an agency enumerated in s. 48.069 (1) or (2) and the court now directs the agency to prepare this report to be considered before the court makes the disposition on the petition.

(5) If the court delays making a permanent disposition under sub. (4), it may transfer temporary custody of the child to an agency for placement of the child until the dispositional hearing.

History: 1979 c. 330.

48.425 Court report by an agency. (1) If the petition for the termination of parental rights is filed by the department, a county department of public welfare or social services or a licensed child welfare agency, or if the court orders a report under s. 48.424 (4) (b), the agency shall file a report with the court which shall include:

(a) The social history of the child.

(b) A statement of the facts supporting the need for termination.

(c) If the child has been previously adjudicated to be in need of protection and services, a statement of the steps the agency or person responsible for provision of services has taken to remedy the conditions responsible for court intervention and the parent's response to and cooperation with these services. If the child has been removed from the home, the report should also include a statement of the reasons why the child cannot be returned to the family, and the steps the person or agency has taken to effect this return.

(d) A statement of other appropriate services, if any, which might allow the child to return to the home of the parent.

(e) A statement applying the standards and factors enumerated in s. 48.426 (2) and (3) to the case before the court.

(f) If the report recommends that the parental rights of both of the child's parents or the child's only living or known parent are to be terminated, the report shall contain a statement of the likelihood that the child will be adopted. This statement shall be prepared by an agency designated in s. 48.427 (2) (a) and include a presentation of the factors which might prevent adoption, those which would facilitate it, and the agency which would be responsible for accomplishing the adoption.

(g) If an agency designated under s. 48.427 (2) (a) determines that it is unlikely that the child will be adopted, or if adoption would not be in the best interests of the child, the report shall include a plan for placing the child in a permanent family setting, including the agency to be named guardian of the child.

(2) The court may waive the report required under this section if consent is given under s. 48.41.

(3) The court may order a report as specified under this section to be prepared by an agency in those cases where the petition is filed by someone other than an agency.

History: 1979 c. 330.

48.426 Standard and factors. (1) COURT CONSIDERATIONS. In making a decision about the appropriate disposition under s. 48.427, the court shall consider the standard and factors enumerated in this section and any report submitted by an agency under s. 48.425.

(2) STANDARD. The best interests of the child shall be the prevailing factor considered by the court in determining the disposition of all proceedings under this subchapter.

(3) FACTORS. In considering the best interests of the child under this section the court shall consider but not be limited to the following:

(a) The likelihood of the child's adoption after termination.

(b) The age and health of the child, both at the time of the disposition and, if applicable, at the time the child was removed from the home.

(c) Whether the child has substantial relationships with the parent or other family members, and whether it would be harmful to the child to sever these relationships.

(d) The wishes of the child.

(e) The duration of the separation of the parent from the child.

(f) Whether the child will be able to enter into a more stable and permanent family relationship as a result of the termination, taking into account the conditions of the child's current placement, the likelihood of future placements and the results of prior placements.

History: 1979 c. 330.

See note to 48.86, citing In Matter of Adoption of R.P.R. 95 W (2d) 573, 291 NW (2d) 591 (Ct. App. 1980).

48.427 Dispositions. Any party may present evidence relevant to the issue of disposition, including expert testimony, and may make alternative dispositional recommendations to the court. After receiving any evidence related to the disposition, the court shall enter one of the following dispositions within 10 days:

(1) Dismiss the petition if the court finds that the evidence does not warrant the termination of parental rights.

(2) (a) Enter an order permanently terminating the parental rights of one or both parents. If the rights of both parents or of the only living parent are terminated, the court shall:

1. Transfer guardianship and custody of the child pending adoptive placement to:

a. A county department of social services in counties having a population of 500,000 or more;

b. A county department of social services licensed to accept guardianship under s. 48.57 (1) (hm);

c. A child welfare agency licensed under s. 48.60; or

d. The department; or

2. Transfer guardianship of the child to one of the agencies listed in subd. 1 and physical custody of the child to a suitable individual in whose home the child has resided for at least 12 consecutive months immediately prior to the termination of parental rights or to a relative.

(b) The guardian appointed under par. (a) shall report to the court on the status of the child 6 months after the date the order was made and thereafter every year on the anniversary date that the first report was made until the child is adopted.

(3) Enter an order terminating the parental rights of one or both parents and placing the child in sustaining care under s. 48.428.

History: 1979 c. 330.

48.428 Sustaining care. (1) A court may place a child in sustaining care whenever the court has terminated the parental rights of the parent or parents of the child and the court finds that the child is unlikely to be adopted or that adoption is not in the best interest of the child.

(2) When a court places a child in sustaining care, the court shall transfer legal custody of the child to the county department of social services or a licensed child welfare agency, transfer guardianship of the child to an agency listed in s. 48.427 (2) (a) and place the child in the home of a licensed foster parent with whom the child has resided for 6 months or longer. Pursuant to such a placement, this licensed foster parent shall be a sustaining parent with the powers and duties specified in sub. (3).

(3) Subject to the authority of the guardian and legal custodian of the child and to any treatment or dispositional plans for the child established by the court, the sustaining parent has the rights and responsibilities necessary for the day-to-day care of the child, including but not limited to:

(a) The authority to consent to routine and emergency health care for the child.

(b) The authority to sign the child's application for a license under s. 343.15.

(c) The authority to approve the child's participation in school and youth group activities.

(d) The authority to travel out of state with the child and consent to the child's travel out of state.

(e) The authority to act as the child's parent under ss. 115.80, 115.81 and 118.125.

(4) Before a licensed foster parent may be appointed as a sustaining parent, the foster parent shall execute a contract with the agency responsible for providing services to the child, in which the foster parent agrees to provide care for the child until the child's 18th birthday unless the placement order is changed by the court because the court finds that the sustaining parents are no longer able or willing to provide the sustaining care or the court finds that the behavior of the sustaining parents toward the child would constitute grounds for the termination of parental rights if the sustaining parent was the natural parent of the child.

(5) The agency appointed as legal custodian for a child in sustaining care shall report to the court annually on the status of the child.

(6) The court may order or prohibit visitation by a natural parent of a child placed in sustaining care.

History: 1979 c. 330.

48.43 Court orders; contents and effect.

(1) The court shall enter a judgment setting forth its findings and disposition in accordance with s. 48.426 in an order implementing the disposition chosen. The order shall contain:

(a) The identity of the agency which will receive guardianship and custody of the child upon termination, if the rights of both parents are terminated, and which will be responsible for securing the adoption of the child or establishing the child in a permanent family setting; and

(b) If the child will be in need of continued care and treatment after termination, the agencies and persons responsible, and the plan for treatment.

(2) An order terminating parental rights permanently severs all legal rights and duties between the parent and the child.

(3) If only one parent consents under s. 48.41 or if the grounds specified in s. 48.415 are found to exist as to only one parent, the rights of only that parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent.

(4) A certified copy of the order terminating parental rights, a certified copy of the birth certificate of the child, and a transcript of the testimony in the termination of parental rights hearing shall be furnished by the court to the agency given guardianship for placement for adoption of the child or to the person or agency given custodianship or guardianship for placement of the child in sustaining care.

(5) Any guardian receiving a child for placement for adoption or for sustaining care appointed under this subchapter shall file with the court a report in writing on the status of the child at the end of 6 months following the date of the order appointing the guardian and on each anniversary date of the order. The court order may specify details regarding particular aspects of the care and treatment, development and special needs of the child to be included in the guardian's report.

(6) Judgments under this subchapter terminating parental rights are final and appealable under s. 48.47, except that appeal shall be taken within 30 days of the date the order is entered.

SUBCHAPTER IX

JURISDICTION OVER PERSON 18 OR OLDER

48.44 Jurisdiction over persons 18 or older. The court has exclusive jurisdiction over persons 18 or older in the case of contributing to a condition of a child as described in s. 48.12 or 48.13, and over persons subject to an order under s. 48.355 (4).

History: 1971 c. 213 s. 5; 1975 c. 39; 1977 c. 354.

48.45 Contributing to the adverse condition of children. (1) If in the hearing of a case of a child alleged to be in a condition described in s. 48.12 or 48.13 it appears that any person 18 or older has been guilty of contributing to, encouraging, or tending to cause by any act or omission, such condition of the child, the judge may make orders with respect to the conduct of such person in his or her relationship to the child, including orders determining the ability of the person to provide for the maintenance or care of the child and directing when, how and where funds for the maintenance or care shall be paid.

(2) No order to any person 18 or older under sub. (1) may be entered until the person is given an opportunity to be heard upon the allegation against him or her and the contemplated order of the court. The court shall cause notice of the time, place and purpose of the hearing to be served on the person personally at least 10 days before the date of hearing. The procedure in these cases shall, as far as practicable, be the same as in other cases in the court, and shall otherwise be the procedure followed in courts of equity. Any person 18 or older who fails to comply with any order issued by a court under this section may be proceeded against for contempt of court. If the person's conduct involves a crime, the person may be proceeded against under the criminal law.

(3) If it appears at a court hearing that any person 18 or older has violated s. 947.15, the judge shall refer the record to the district attorney for criminal proceedings as may be warranted in the district attorney's judgment. This subsection does not prevent prosecution of violations of s. 947.15 without the prior reference by the judge to the district attorney, as in other criminal cases.

(4) An act or failure to act contributes to a condition of a child as described in s. 48.12 or 48.13, although the child is not actually adjudicated to come within the provisions of s. 48.12 or 48.13, if the natural and probable consequences of that act or failure to act would be to cause the child to come within the provisions of s. 48.12 or 48.13.

History: 1977 c. 354, 449.

SUBCHAPTER X

REHEARING AND APPEAL

48.46 New evidence. The parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child or the child whose status is adjudicated by the court may at any time within one year after the entering of the court's order petition the court for a rehearing on the ground that new evidence has been discovered affecting the advisability of the court's original adjudication. Upon a showing that such evidence does exist, the court shall order a new hearing.

48.47 Appeal. (1) Any person aggrieved by an adjudication of the court under this chapter and directly affected thereby has the right to appeal to the court of appeals in accordance with s. 809.40. Appeal from an order granting or denying an adoption under s. 48.91 and from any circuit court review under s. 48.64 (4) (c) shall be to the court of appeals.

(2) A child who has filed a notice of appeal shall be furnished a transcript of the proceedings appealed from or as much of it as is requested without cost upon the filing of an affidavit that the child or the person who is legally responsible for his or her care and support is financially unable or the person responsible is unwilling to purchase the transcript.

(1) When the court transfers legal custody of a child to the department, the court shall immediately notify the department of that action. The court shall, in accordance with procedures established by the department, provide transportation for the child to a receiving center designated by the department or deliver the child to personnel of the department.

(2) When the court transfers legal custody of a child to the department, the court shall also immediately transfer to the department a copy of the report submitted to it under s. 48.33 and shall immediately notify the child's last school district in writing of its obligation under s. 118.125 (4).

48.50 Examination of children in legal custody of department. (1)

The department shall examine all children whose legal custody is transferred to it by the court to determine the type of placement best suited to the child and, in the case of children who have violated a state law, to the protection of the public. (2) In making this examination the department may use any facilities, public or private, which offer aid to it in the determination of the correct aftercare placement for the child.

(f) Other facilities deemed by the department to be appropriate for the child, except that no state funds may be used for the maintenance of a child in the home of a parent or relative eligible for aid under s. 49.19 if such funds would reduce federal funds to this state.

(2) USE OF OTHER FACILITIES. (a) In addition to the facilities and services described in sub. (1), the department may use other facilities and services under its jurisdiction. The department may also contract for and pay for the use of other public facilities or private facilities for the care and treatment of children in its care; but placement of children in private or public facilities not under its jurisdiction does not terminate the legal custody of the department. Placements in institutions for the mentally ill or developmentally disabled shall be made in accordance with ss. 48.14 (5) and 48.63 and ch. 51.

(b) Public facilities are required to accept and care for persons placed with them by the department in the same manner as they would be required to do had the legal custody of these persons been transferred by a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require any public facility to serve the department inconsistently with its functions or with the laws and regulations governing their activities; or to give the department authority to use any private facility without its consent.

(c) The department shall have the right to inspect all facilities it is using and to examine and consult with persons in its legal custody who have been placed in that facility.

48.53 Duration of control over delinquents. It shall have authority:

(a) To investigate the conditions surrounding delinquent children, children born out of wedlock and children in need of protection or services including developmentally disabled children within the county and to take every reasonable action within its power to secure for them the full benefit of all laws enacted for their benefit. Unless provided by another agency, county agencies shall offer social services to the caretaker of any child who is referred to the agencies as coming within the conditions specified in this paragraph. This duty shall be discharged in cooperation with the court and with the public officers or boards legally responsible for the administration and enforcement of these laws;

Disputes between the county agency and the school district shall be resolved by the state superintendent of public instruction;

48.62 Licensing of foster homes. (1) No person may receive, with or without transfer of legal custody, 4 or fewer children to provide care and maintenance for those children unless he or she obtains a license to operate a foster home from the department or from a county agency or licensed child welfare agency as provided in s. 48.75.

The department or a county agency or licensed child welfare agency as provided in s. 48.75 may issue a license to operate a foster home to those relatives who have no duty of support under s. 52.01 (1) (a) and who request a license to operate a foster home.

History: 1977 c. 354 s. 101; 1977 c. 418, 447.

Foster homes owned, operated or contracted for by the department or a county agency are immune from local zoning ordinances. Foster homes owned, operated or contracted for by licensed child welfare agencies are not immune. All family operated foster homes are subject to local zoning. Municipal foster home licensing ordinances are unenforceable. 63 Atty. Gen. 34.

State-licensed foster homes are immune from local zoning ordinances restricting number of unrelated occupants of single family dwellings. 66 Atty. Gen. 342.

48.625 Licensing of group homes. No person may receive, with or without transfer of legal custody, 5 to 8 children, to provide care and maintenance for those children unless that person obtains a license to operate a group home from the department.

History: 1977 c. 418.

NOTE: See s. 48.66 for the department's licensing authority.

48.627 Liability insurance for foster parents. The department shall, from the appropriation under s. 20.435 (2) (de), purchase insurance for foster parents to cover the liability of the foster parents, to the extent not provided in the foster parent's homeowner's insurance policy, for injuries sustained or property damage caused by foster children in the foster parent's care, subject to the limitations contained in the policy.

History: 1979 c. 221

48.63 Restrictions on placements. (1) Acting pursuant to court order or voluntary agreement, the child's parent or guardian or the department, a county agency performing child welfare services under s. 48.56 (1) or a child welfare agency licensed to place children in foster homes, may place a child or negotiate or act as intermediary for the placement of a child in a foster home. Voluntary agreements under this subsection may not be used for placements in facilities other than foster homes. Placements made under this subsection under a voluntary agreement shall be for a period of time not to exceed 6 months and shall not be extended. The 6-month limitation does not apply to placements made under ss. 48.34 and 48.345. Voluntary agreements can only be made under this subsection and shall be in writing and shall specifically state that the agreement can be terminated at any time by the parent or by the child if the child's consent to the agreement is required. The child's consent to the agreement is required whenever the child is 12 years of age or older.

(2) No parent or guardian, except a licensed child welfare agency or public agency authorized to place children for adoption, may place a child in a foster home for adoption without obtaining the written approval of the circuit court prior to placement, and no person shall receive a child into his or her home for adoption without the prior written approval for placement having been received from the court. Every person appointed to furnish services to the court under ss. 48.06 and 48.07 is eligible to petition the circuit court for approval of a foster home for placement of a child. The circuit court shall, before taking action to approve or disapprove, have an investigation of the facts and a report made by the department, a county agency performing child welfare services under s. 48.56 or a child welfare agency licensed to place children in foster homes. The report on the investigation for placement shall be filed with the circuit court within 30 days after entry of the circuit court's order for the investigation unless the time is extended by the circuit court for good cause shown. If the circuit court does not approve, it shall refer the matter to the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter for appropriate action.

(3) No person may place a child or offer or hold himself or herself out as able to place a child, except as provided in this section. Enrollment of a child by a parent or guardian in an educational institution shall not constitute a placement for the purposes of this section.

History: 1977 c. 354, 449; 1979 c. 300.

48.64 Placement of children in foster homes and group homes. (1) FOSTER HOME AND GROUP HOME AGREEMENTS. If the department, a county agency specified in s. 48.56, or a child welfare agency authorized to do so, places a child in a foster home under a court order or voluntary agreement under s. 48.63, it shall enter into a written agreement with the head of the home. The agreement shall provide that the agency shall have access at all times to the child and the home, and that the child will be released to the agency whenever, in the opinion of the agency placing the child or the department, the best interests of the child require it. If a child has been in a foster home or group home for 6 months or more, the department or agency shall give the head of the home written notice of intent to remove the child, stating the reasons for the removal. The child shall not be removed before completion of the hearing under sub. (4) (a) or (c), if requested, or 30 days from the receipt of the notice, whichever is later, unless the safety of the child requires it. If the safety of the child requires earlier removal, s. 48.19 shall apply. If a child is removed from an adoptive placement, the head of the home shall have no claim against the placing agency for the expense of care, clothing or medical treatment.

(2) SUPERVISION OF FOSTER HOME AND GROUP HOME PLACEMENTS. Every child in a foster home or group home shall be under the supervision of a county agency, specified in s. 48.56, a child welfare agency authorized to place children in foster homes or group homes, or of the department.

(4) ORDERS AFFECTING THE HEAD OF A HOME OR THE CHILDREN. (a) Any decision or order issued by a division of the department of health and social services, a county welfare department or department of social services, or a child welfare agency affecting the head of a foster or group home or the children involved may be appealed to the department of health and social services under fair hearing procedures established under department rules. The department shall, upon receipt of such petition, give the head of the home reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing. The department may make such additional investigation as it deems necessary. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the head of the home and to the division, the county department or child welfare agency. They shall be entitled to be represented at the hearing. At all hearings conducted under this subsection, the head of the home, or a representative of the head of the home, shall have an adequate opportunity, notwithstanding s. 48.78, to examine all documents and records to be used at the hearing at a reasonable time before the date of the hearing as well as during the hearing, to bring witnesses, to establish all pertinent facts and circumstances, and to question or refute any testimony or evidence, including opportunity to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses. A continuance for a reasonable period of time shall be granted when an issue is raised for the first time during a hearing. This requirement may be waived with the consent of the parties. The decision of the department shall be based exclusively on evidence introduced at the hearing. A transcript of testimony and exhibits, or an official report containing the substance of what transpired at the hearing, together with all papers and requests filed in the proceeding, and the findings of the hearing examiner shall constitute the exclusive record for decision by the department and shall be available to the head of the home or the representative, at a place accessible to them, at any reasonable time. Decisions by the department shall specify the reasons for the decision and identify the supporting evidence. No person participating in a departmental or agency action being appealed shall participate in the final administrative decision on such action. The department shall render its decision as soon as possible after the hearing and shall send a certified copy of its decision to the head of the home, the division, the county department or the child welfare agency. The decision shall be binding on all parties concerned.

(b) Judicial review of the department's decision may be had as provided in ch. 227.

(c) The circuit court for the county where the child is has jurisdiction upon petition of any interested party over a child who is placed in a foster home or group home. The circuit court may call a hearing, at which the head of the home and the supervising agency under sub. (2) shall be present, for the purpose of reviewing any decision or order of said agency involving the placement and care of the child. The court shall determine the case so as to promote the best interests of the child.

No license may be granted to a child welfare agency or group home until the 30-day period has expired or until the department receives the response of the planning commission or agency, whichever is sooner. ## SUBCHAPTER XVII

GENERAL PROVISIONS ON RECORDS

48.78 Confidentiality of records. Records kept or information received by the department, county agencies specified in s. 48.56, licensed child welfare agencies, licensed day care centers and licensed maternity hospitals regarding individuals in their care or legal custody shall not be open to inspection or their contents disclosed except by order of the court. This section does not apply to the confidential exchange of information between these agencies or other social welfare or law enforcement agencies regarding individuals in the care or legal custody of one of the agencies. This section does not prohibit the department or a county department of public welfare or social services from using in the media a picture or description of a child in the guardianship of the department or a county department of public welfare or social services for the purpose of finding adoptive parents for that child.

History: 1979 c. 34.

Since a juvenile has a constitutional right to both inspect and reply to a hearing examiner's report, 48.78 does not prevent a juvenile from having access to such a report. State ex rel. R.R. v. Schmidt, 63 W (2d) 82, 216 NW (2d) 18.

Exclusions of 48.78, Stats 1969, relating to confidentiality of child welfare records apply to advisory committees but not to county welfare boards. The statute does not preclude release of non-identifying data to such committees. 59 Atty. Gen. 240.

SUBCHAPTER XVIII COMMUNITY SERVICES

48.79 Powers of the department. The department shall have authority and power:

(1) To collect and to collaborate with other agencies in collecting statistics and information useful in determining the cause and amount of delinquency and crime in this state or in carrying out the powers and duties of the department.

(2) To render assistance to communities in their efforts to combat delinquency and social breakdown likely to cause delinquency and crime and assist them in setting up programs for co-ordinating the total community program, including the improvement of law enforcement.

(3) To assist schools in extending their particular contribution in locating and helping children vulnerable to delinquency and in improving their services to all youth.

(4) To assist communities in setting up recreational commissions and to assist them in extending and broadening recreational programs so as to reach all children.

(5) To assist in extending the local child care programs so as to reach all homes needing such help.

(6) To assist in recruiting and training voluntary leaders for youth-serving organizations.

(7) To assist localities in securing needed specialized services such as medical, psychiatric, psychological and social work services when existing agencies are not able to supply them.

(8) To assist localities in making surveys of needs and available resources.

(9) To assist in appraising the achievement of local programs.

(10) To serve in a general consultative capacity, acting as a clearing house, developing materials, arranging conferences and participating in public addresses and radio programs.

(11) To develop and maintain an enlightened public opinion in support of a program to control delinquency.

48.80 Municipalities may sponsor activities. (1) Any municipality is hereby authorized and empowered to sponsor the establishment and operation of any committee, agency or council for the purpose of co-ordinating and supplementing the activities of public and private agencies devoted in whole or in part to the welfare of youth therein. Any municipality may appropriate, raise and expend funds for the purpose of establishing and of providing an executive staff to such committees, agencies or councils; may levy taxes and appropriate money for recreation and welfare projects; and may also receive and expend moneys from the state or federal government or private persons for such purposes.

(2) No provision of this section shall be construed as vesting in any youth committee, council or agency any power, duty or function enjoined by law upon any municipal officer, board or department or as vesting in such committee, council or agency any supervisory or other authority over such officer, board or department.

(3) In this section municipality means a county, city, village or town.

SUBCHAPTER XIX

ADOPTION OF MINORS

48.81 Who may be adopted. Any minor present within this state at the time the petition for adoption is filed may be adopted.

48.82 Who may adopt. The following persons are eligible to adopt a minor if they are residents of this state:

(1) A husband and wife jointly, or either the husband or wife if the other spouse is a parent of the minor;

(2) An unmarried adult;

(3) When practicable, the petitioners shall be of the same religious faith as the natural parents of the person to be adopted. No person shall be denied the benefits of this chapter because of a religious belief in the use of spiritual means of prayer for healing.

(5) Although otherwise qualified, no person shall be denied the benefits of this section because he is deaf, blind or has other physical handicaps.

See note to 48.86, citing In Matter of Adoption of R P R, 95 W (2d) 573, 291 NW (2d) 591 (Ct. App 1980).

48.83 Jurisdiction and venue. (1) The circuit court of the county where the child is shall, upon the filing of a petition for adoption of such child, have exclusive jurisdiction over such child which jurisdiction shall continue until such petition is withdrawn, denied or granted. Venue shall be in the county where the child is at the time of the filing of the petition.

(2) If the adoption is denied, the jurisdiction over the child shall immediately revert to the court which appointed the guardian.

History: 1975 c. 39; 1977 c. 449 s. 497.

48.84 Persons required to consent to adoption. (1) No adoption of a minor may be ordered without the written consent of the following to the adoption of the minor by the petitioner:

(a) The parent or parents, if living, but consent shall not be required from one whose parental rights have been legally terminated; and

(b) The minor himself if he is 14 or older.

(2) (a) The consent required by sub. (1) (a) shall be given in writing before a judge of any court of record, unless the court orders otherwise, after the judge has explained to the parent that such consent is irrevocable, except as provided in s. 48.86, and has examined the parent and is satisfied that the parent gives his consent voluntarily. In the case of a minor parent, his minority shall not be grounds for revoking consent, but a guardian ad litem shall be appointed for him and his consent shall be effective only when concurred in by the written consent of the guardian ad litem.

(b) The consent of the minor required by sub. (1) (b) shall be given in writing before the circuit court unless otherwise ordered.

(3) The consent of the father of a minor born out of wedlock and not subsequently legitimated or adopted shall be necessary unless his rights have been legally terminated.

(4) In the case of a minor brought to this state pursuant to the displaced persons act of 1948, as amended, a certification of the displaced persons commission or of the department stating that such child is available for adoption shall be in lieu of any further proof of death of parents, valid release by parents, termination of parental rights or other similar requirements.

History: 1973 c. 263; 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 300.

There is no authority holding that in an adoption proceeding the grandparents accede to whatever rights the natural parents may have had. Adoption of Randolph, 68 W (2d) 64, 227 NW (2d) 634.

48.841 Persons required to file recommendation as to adoption. (1) No adoption of a minor may be ordered without the written recommendation, favorable or unfavorable, of the guardian of the minor, if there is one, as set forth in s. 48.85.

(2) If the guardian refuses or neglects to file its recommendation within the time specified in s. 48.85, the court may proceed as though the guardian had filed a favorable recommendation.

48.85 Recommendation of guardian. (1) At least 10 days prior to the hearing, the guardian shall file its recommendation with the court.

(2) The guardian's recommendation shall be presumed to be in the best interests of the child unless the fair preponderance of the credible evidence is to the contrary. If the guardian's recommendation is in opposition to the granting of the petition, the court shall take testimony as to whether or not the proposed adoption is in the best interests of the child.

(3) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall enter its order in accordance with s. 48.91 (3).

History: 1973 c 263

48.86 Withdrawal of consent. Withdrawal of any consent filed in connection with a petition for adoption hereunder shall not be permitted, except that the court, after notice and opportunity to be heard is given to the petitioner in the adoption proceedings, to the person seeking to withdraw consent and to any agency participating in the adoption proceedings, may, if it finds that the best interests of the child will be furthered thereby, issue a written order permitting the withdrawal of such consent. The entry of an order of adoption renders any consent irrevocable.

There is no presumption favoring biological parents in adoption proceedings. Trial court abused discretion in allowing revocation of consent. In Matter of Adoption of R.P.R. 95 W (2d) 573, 291 NW (2d) 591 (Ct App 1980)

48.87 Filing of consents. Written consents required by s. 48.84 shall be filed with the court at the time of the filing of the petition.

48.871 Filing of recommendation by guardian. In the case of a recommendation by a guardian, the guardian shall file with its recommendation satisfactory evidence of its authority to file such recommendation relative to the adoption of the minor. In the case where the parents' rights have been judicially terminated, this evidence shall be a certified copy of the order terminating their rights and appointing the guardian. In other cases of a guardian appointed by a court, this evidence shall be a certified copy of the order appointing it guardian. In the case of a guardian having the authority to consent or file its recommendation under an instrument other than a court order, valid under the laws of another state, that instrument shall serve as evidence of the authority to consent or file its recommendation.

48.88 Notice of hearing; investigation.

(1) (a) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall set a time and place for hearing the petition, allowing time for the investigation and report required by sub. (2), which must be received prior to the hearing. Notice of the hearing shall be mailed, not later than 3 days from the date of the order for hearing and investigation, to the guardian of the child, if any; to the agency making the investigation, and to the department when its recommendation is required by s. 48.89.

(b) After a petition for adoption is filed the court may determine the placement of the child until the hearing on adoption is completed.

(2) (a) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall order a licensed child welfare agency or a county agency specified in s. 48.56 to make an investigation of the environment and antecedents of the person to be adopted to ascertain whether the person is a proper subject for adoption and of the home of the petitioner to determine whether it is a suitable home. The court may request the department to perform such a study and the department may furnish such requested service. The agency making the investigation shall make a report to the court within 90 days of the entry of the order for hearing unless the time is reduced for good cause shown by the petitioner or extended by the court. The report shall be part of the record of the proceedings.

(b) The investigation and report required by par. (a) is not necessary where the guardian of the child whose recommendation is required files a favorable recommendation and such guardian is either the department, a licensed child welfare agency or a county department of social services or public welfare authorized by s. 48.57 to accept guardianship of a child; but that agency shall file with the court a report on its investigation of the environment and antecedents of the person to be adopted and of the home of the petitioners.

(3) If the report of the investigation is unfavorable or if it discloses a situation which, in the opinion of the court, raises a serious question as to the suitability of the proposed adoption, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor whose adoption is proposed. The guardian ad litem may have witnesses subpoenaed and present proof at the hearing.

History: 1975 c 39, 199, 307; 1977 c 271.

48.89 Recommendation of the department. (1) The recommendation of the department is required for the adoption of the following minors:

(a) A minor born out of wedlock and not subsequently legitimated or adopted;

(b) A minor who has no living parents or whose parents have had their rights legally terminated;

(c) A nonresident minor;

(d) A minor whose nonresident parent has executed a written consent to the adoption, valid at the time of its execution.

(2) The department shall make its recommendation to the court within 90 days of the entry of the order for hearing unless the time is extended by the court. The recommendation shall be part of the record of the proceedings.

(3) The recommendation of the department shall not be required if the recommendation of that department, a licensed child welfare agency, a county department of social services or public welfare or a county children's board authorized by s. 48.57 to accept guardianship of a child is required by s. 48.841, or if one of the petitioners is a stepparent.

History: 1973 c. 263; 1977 c. 271.

48.90 Preadoption residence. (1) No petition for adoption may be filed unless the child has been in the home of the petitioners for 6 months, except where:

(a) One of the petitioners is related to the child by blood, excluding parents whose parental rights have been terminated and persons whose relationship to the child is derived through such parents; or

(b) The petitioner is related to the child as a stepparent; or

(c) The petition is accompanied by a written approval of the guardian.

(2) Where the placement of the child proposed to be adopted was in violation of s. 48.98 or 48.992, no petition may be filed unless there is an affirmative showing that the petitioners have complied with the provisions of the section violated.

History: 1973 c. 263; 1977 c. 354; 1977 c. 418 s. 929 (18).

Once administrative proceedings have commenced under 48.64 and the person with whom the child had been placed is seeking a review of the removal order, a children's court has no jurisdiction of an attempted adoption. Adoption of Shawn, 65 W (2d) 190, 222 NW (2d) 139.

48.91 Hearing; order. (1) The hearing may be in chambers unless an interested person objects. The petitioner and the minor to be adopted, if 14 or older, shall attend unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) In an adoption proceeding for a child born out of wedlock and not subsequently legitimated or adopted, the court shall establish whether the rights of any persons who have filed declarations of paternal interest under s. 48.025 have been determined or whether paternity has been adjudicated in this state or in another jurisdiction. If the court finds that no such determination has been made, the court shall proceed, prior to any action on the petition for adoption, to attempt to ascertain the paternity of the child and the rights of any person who has filed a declaration under s. 48.025. The termination of a parent's parental rights is required as provided in subch. VIII prior to the adoption of the child unless the parent consents to the adoption under s. 48.84.

(3) If after the hearing and a study of the report required by s. 48.88 and the recommendation required by s. 48.89, the court is satisfied that the necessary consents or recommendations have been filed and that the adoption is in the best interests of the child, the court shall make an order granting the adoption. The order may change the name of the minor to that requested by petitioners.

History: 1973 c. 263; 1979 c. 330.

Meaning of "best interests of the child" discussed. Adoption of Tachick, 60 W (2d) 540, 210 NW (2d) 865.

48.911 Appeal in adoption proceedings. Notwithstanding the provisions of chs. 808, 809 and 879, any appeal from an order in an adoption proceeding is limited to 40 days from the date of the entry of the order.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 773; 1977 c. 187 s. 135.

48.92 Effect of adoption. (1) After the order of adoption is entered the relation of parent and child and all the rights, duties and other legal consequences of the natural relation of child and parent thereafter exists between the adopted person and the adoptive parents.

(2) After the order of adoption is entered the relationship of parent and child between the adopted person and his natural parents, unless the natural parent is the spouse of the adoptive parent, shall be completely altered and all the rights, duties and other legal consequences of the relationship shall cease to exist.

(3) Rights of inheritance by, from and through an adopted child are governed by s. 851.51.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate the right of the department to make payments to adoptive families under s. 48.48 (12).

History: 1973 c. 90.

A valid adoption of petitioner by his aunt would preclude his right to inherit as the son of his natural mother, although he would be entitled to inherit as a nephew. Estate of Komarr, 68 W (2d) 473, 228 NW (2d) 681.

48.93 Records closed. (1) Except as provided in ss. 46.03 (29) and 48.57 (1) (j), all records and papers pertaining to an adoption proceeding shall be kept in a separate locked file. No person shall have access to such records except on order of the court for good cause shown. No person in charge of adoption records shall disclose the names of the natural or adoptive parents of a child unless ordered to do so by the court.

(2) All correspondence and papers, relating to the investigation, which are not a part of the court record, except those in the custody of agencies authorized to place children for adoption shall be transferred to the department and placed in its closed files.

History: 1979 c. 34.

48.94 New birth certificate. After entry of the order granting the adoption the clerk of the court shall promptly mail a copy thereof to the state bureau of vital statistics and furnish any additional data needed for the new birth certificate. Whenever the parents by adoption request, or the adopting parent and his spouse who is the natural parent of the person adopted request, that the birth certificate for the person adopted be not changed, then the court shall so order. In such event no new birth certificate shall be filed by the state registrar of vital statistics, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 69.33 or any other law of this state.

48.95 Withdrawal or denial of petition. If the petition is withdrawn or denied, the circuit court shall order the case transferred to the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter for appropriate action, except that if parental rights have been terminated and the guardian of the minor is the department, a licensed child welfare agency, a county department of social services in counties having a population of 500,000 or more, a county department of public welfare or a county children's board licensed for such purpose by the department, the minor shall remain in the legal custody of that department or agency.

History: 1977 c. 271, 449

48.96 Subsequent adoption. The adoption of an adopted person is authorized and, in that case, the references to parent and natural parent are to adoptive parent.

48.97 Foreign adoption orders. When the relationship of parent and child has been created by an order of adoption of a court of any other state or nation, the rights and obligations of the parties as to matters within the jurisdiction of this state shall be determined by s. 48.92. If the adoptive parents were residents of this state at the time of the foreign adoption, the preceding sentence applies only if the state department or a county department authorized to make adoption placements has approved of the adoptive parents and adoptive home. A child whose adoption would otherwise be valid under this section may be readopted in accordance with this chapter if such readoption is necessary under federal law to permit the child to enter this country.

History: 1971 c. 187.

48.975 Subsidized adoption. (1) DEFINITION. In this section, "subsidized adoption" means payments by the department to the parents of an adopted child which are designed to assist in the cost of care of a child after legal adoption.

(2) APPLICABILITY. The department may subsidize an adoption only when it has determined that such assistance is necessary to assure the child's adoption.

(3) TYPES. Either type of adoption subsidy specified in this subsection may be granted alone or in conjunction with the other.

(a) Maintenance. For support of a child who was in foster care immediately prior to adoption, the maintenance subsidy shall be equivalent to the amount of that child's foster care payment. For support of a child not in foster care immediately prior to placement with a subsidy, the subsidy shall be equivalent to the uniform foster care rate.

(b) Medical. A medical assistance subsidy shall be sufficient to pay expenses due to a physical, mental or emotional condition of the child which is not covered by a health insurance policy insuring the child or the parent.

(4) PROCEDURE. A written agreement shall be made prior to legal adoption only for children in the guardianship of the department or other agency authorized to place children for adoption. The subsidy may be continued after the child reaches the age of 18 if that child is a full-time high school student.

(5) RULES. The department shall promulgate rules necessary to implement this section.

SUBCHAPTER XX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

48.98 Interstate placement of children.

(1) No person shall bring or cause to be brought or send or cause to be sent into this state or take, or cause to be taken, or send, or cause to be sent, out of this state any child for the purpose of placing such child in a foster home or of procuring his adoption, without first obtaining the consent of the department.

(2) Such consent by the department shall be given only upon the following conditions:

(a) Any person who brings or sends children into this state for the purpose of placing such children in foster homes or of procuring their adoption must file with the department a bond to the state of Wisconsin, approved by the department, in the penal sum of $1,000, conditioned that he will not bring or send into this state any child who is incorrigible or unsound of mind or body and that he will remove any such child who becomes a public charge or who, in the opinion of the department, becomes a menace to the community prior to his adoption or becoming of legal age, and conditioned further that all placements shall be made under the same conditions as placements may be made by licensed child welfare agencies. The department may waive the bond herein provided for, whenever in the opinion of said department such waiver is warranted. This paragraph shall not apply to child welfare agencies licensed in this state and no bond shall be required from such agencies.

(b) Before any child is brought or sent into this state or taken from or sent out of this state for placement in a foster home, the person bringing, taking or sending such child must obtain a certificate from the department that such home is a suitable home for such child.

(c) The person bringing, taking or sending such child into or out of this state, shall make a report to the department, at least once each year and at such other times as the department may require, as to the location and well-being of such child, until he shall be 18 years of age or until he shall be legally adopted.

(3) The department may make all necessary rules for the enforcement of this section, not in conflict therewith, and all persons bringing, taking or sending children into or out of this state shall comply with all such rules.

(4) This section applies only to those interstate placements of children which are not covered under s. 48.988.

History: 1977 c. 354; 1979 c. 32 s. 92 (1).

48.981 Abused or neglected children. (1) DEFINITIONS. In this section:

(a) "Abuse" means any physical injury inflicted on a child by other than accidental means, or sexual intercourse or sexual contact under s. 940.225. In this paragraph, "physical injury" includes but is not limited to severe bruising, lacerations, fractured bones, burns, internal injuries or any injury constituting great bodily harm under s. 939.22 (14).

(b) "Child" means any person under 18 years of age.

(c) "County agency" means the county child welfare agency as defined in s. 48.56 (1).

(d) "Neglected child" means a child whose parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person exercising temporary or permanent control over the child neglects, refuses or is unable for reasons other than poverty to provide necessary care, food, clothing, medical or dental care or shelter so as to seriously endanger the physical health of the child.

(2) PERSONS REQUIRED TO REPORT CASES OF SUSPECTED CHILD ABUSE OR NEGLECT. A physician, coroner, medical examiner, nurse, dentist, chiropractor, optometrist, or any other medical or mental health professional, social or public assistance worker, school teacher, administrator or counselor, child care worker in any day care center or child caring institution or police or law enforcement officer having reasonable cause to suspect that a child seen in the course of professional duties has been abused or neglected shall report as provided in sub. (3). Any other person having reason to believe that a child has been abused or neglected may make such a report. No person making a report under this subsection may be discharged from employment for so doing.

(3) PROCEDURES. (a) Initial report. Persons required to report under sub. (2) shall immediately contact, by telephone or personally, the county agency, sheriff or city police department and shall inform the agency or department of the facts and circumstances contributing to a suspicion of child abuse or neglect. The sheriff or police department shall within 24 hours, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays, refer to the county agency all cases reported to it. The county agency may require that a subsequent report be made in writing.

(b) Duties of local law enforcement agencies.
1. Any person reporting suspected abuse or neglect of a child may request an immediate investigation by the sheriff or police department if the person has reason to believe that the child's health or safety is in immediate danger. Upon receiving such a request, the sheriff or police department shall immediately investigate to determine if there is reason to believe that the child's health or safety is in immediate danger and take any necessary action to protect the child.

2. If the investigating officer has reason under s. 48.19 (1) (c) or (d) 5 to take a child into custody, the investigating officer shall place the child in protective custody and deliver the child to the intake worker under s. 48.20.

3. If the police or other law enforcement officials determine that criminal action is necessary, they shall refer the case to the district attorney for criminal prosecution.

(c) Duties of county agencies. 1. The county agency shall act in accordance with s. 48.57. Within 24 hours of the receipt of an initial report of suspected child abuse or neglect, the county agency shall commence an appropriate and thorough investigation to determine whether the report is "indicated" or "unfounded". The complete investigation shall, if possible, include a visit to the child's home or usual place of abode, observation of the child and an interview with the child and the child's parents or custodians.

2. Additionally, within 72 hours after receipt of an initial report the county agency shall complete and forward to the department under sub. (7) a preliminary investigative report containing the name, address, age and sex of each child involved and the type of abuse or neglect suspected. The preliminary report shall not contain any information which identifies any person other than the child.

3. An investigative report shall be classified as "indicated" or "unfounded". A finding of "indicated" for child abuse reports shall be supported by a preponderance of the evidence available to the agency; a finding of "indicated" for neglect reports shall be supported by a clear and convincing preponderance of the evidence available to the agency. Whenever there is less than the required standard of evidence indicating child abuse or neglect, the report shall be classified as "unfounded". The county agency director or his or her designee shall review and approve the investigative report prior to transmitting the report to the central registry. The person reviewing and approving the report shall not have participated in investigating the suspected abuse or neglect. A report shall not be classified "indicated" solely because the child's parent, or another person exercising temporary or permanent control over the child's care, in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or cure of disease or for remedial care of the child. This subdivision does not preclude a court from ordering that medical services be provided for the child, if the child's health requires it. Reports classified as "indicated" shall include a description of the services being provided to the child and those responsible for his or her care, as well as all relevant dispositional information, and shall be updated at 6-month intervals. The agency shall make findings as required under this subdivision no later than 60 days after receipt of an initial report, and shall immediately transmit the investigative report to the central registry under sub. (8).

4. After transmitting its investigative report to the central registry, the agency shall destroy its reports concerning cases of child abuse or neglect classified as "unfounded".

5. If the person investigating on behalf of the county agency has grounds to take the child into custody under s. 48.08 (2) or 48.19 (1) (c), the person shall place the child in protective custody and shall deliver the child to the intake worker under s. 48.20.

6. The county agency shall take necessary steps to protect other children in the home.

7. The investigator shall inform any person required to report suspected cases of child abuse or neglect that the report was unfounded or that steps were taken to protect the health and welfare of a child who is the subject of a report made by the person. At least one contact shall be made under this subdivision within 60 days after receipt of the initial report by the agency.

8. The county agency shall cooperate with law enforcement officials, courts of competent jurisdiction and other human service agencies to prevent, identify and treat child abuse and neglect. To the extent possible, the county agency shall coordinate the development and provision of services to children found to be abused or neglected under this section.

9. The county agency shall forward a copy of its investigative report of alleged child abuse or neglect alleging that a child's safety is endangered, classified as "indicated" or "unfounded", to the central registry under sub. (8).

(d) Independent investigation. If an agent of an investigating agency is the subject of the initial report, an independent investigation shall be conducted by the department or by another agency designated by the department.

(4) IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY. Any person or institution participating in good faith in the making of a report, ordering or taking of photographs or ordering or performing medical examinations of a child under this section shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that results by reason of the action. For the purpose of any proceeding, civil or criminal, the good faith of any person reporting under this section shall be presumed.

(5) CORONER'S REPORT. Any person or official required to report cases of suspected child abuse or neglect who has reasonable cause to suspect that a child died as a result of child abuse or neglect shall report the fact to the appropriate medical examiner or coroner. The medical examiner or coroner shall accept the report for investigation and shall report the findings to the appropriate district attorney, the department, the county agency and, if the institution making the report initially is a hospital, to the hospital.

(6) PENALTY. Whoever wilfully violates this section by failure to file a report as required, may be fined not more than $100 or imprisoned not more than 6 months or both.

(7) FILE OF PRELIMINARY REPORTS. The department shall maintain preliminary reports filed under sub. (3) (c) 2 in a separate file. The reports shall not be copied or duplicated, and all information contained therein shall be confidential except as provided in this subsection. The department may, in response to an inquiry from a county agency about a specific child, notify the agency only that a preliminary report has been filed which names the child and identify the county agency which filed the report. Each preliminary report shall be destroyed 60 days after receipt. No information from the preliminary report may be placed in the central registry.

(8) CENTRAL REGISTRY. (a) The department shall maintain a confidential statewide central registry of child abuse and neglect reports made under sub. (3) (c) 3. The registry shall receive and maintain written reports under sub. (3) (c) 3 from county agencies of suspected child abuse or neglect cases and shall transmit information to authorized persons and agencies under sub. (10).

(b) The central registry shall be operated in such a manner as to enable the department to:

1. Provide historical information to aid local child protective service agencies in determining adequate and necessary services for abused children and their families, including immediate identification and location of prior reports of child abuse and neglect.

2. Serve as a case management tool for the department in reviewing the adequacy of local child protective efforts.

3. Aid research efforts aimed at increasing the general knowledge of child abuse and neglect.

(c) Reports of child abuse and neglect shall be maintained at the central registry in one of 2 categories: unfounded or indicated.

1. A report may be classified as "indicated" only when such a finding is supported by the required standard of evidence available to the county agency, as provided in sub. (3) (c) 3. Indicated reports may be maintained in the central registry only when supplemental information as required under sub. (3) (c) 3 is attached.

2. A report determined by the county agency to be "unfounded" shall be classified "unfounded by reason of insufficient evidence".

(d) Investigative reports classified as "indicated" shall contain the following information: the names and addresses of the child and the child's parents or other persons responsible for his or her health and welfare; the child's age, sex and race; the nature and extent of the child's abuse or neglect, including any evidence of prior injuries, abuse or neglect, to the child or siblings; the names of the persons alleged to be responsible for the abuse or neglect; family composition, including names, ages, sexes and races of other children in the home; demographic data related to census tract data; the source of the report; the person making the report, his or her occupation, and where the reporter can be reached; and the medical, legal or social disposition, including a description of any services provided. The names, addresses and all other identifying characteristics of persons named in such investigative reports shall not be placed in the central registry until the requirements of sub. (9) are met.

(e) Investigative reports classified as "unfounded" shall contain all the information required under par. (d) except names, addresses and other identifying characteristics of the persons specified in par. (d).

(f) An "indicated" report and all names, addresses and other identifying characteristics placed in the central registry from an "indicated" report shall be destroyed 7 years after receipt of the report, unless representatives of the county agency show good reason why the information should not be destroyed.

(9) NOTIFICATION AND HEARING. (a) Within 24 hours after receipt of an investigative report classifying any case as "indicated" under sub. (3) (c) 3, a notice of the finding shall be sent by registered mail or by personal contact from the department to the suspected person. The notice shall contain the following information:

1. An explanation of the finding of "indicated".

2. An explanation that unless a hearing is requested within 15 days from the date of the notice, the names, addresses and other identifying characteristics of persons named in the report shall be placed on the central registry.

3. A description of individuals and institutions who have access to information contained in the central registry.

4. An explanation of the procedure for requesting a hearing, a brief description of the purpose of the hearing and the hearing process, including a statement that the hearing will be held no later than 30 days after a request is made, and a statement that the suspected person has a right to representation by counsel at the hearing at his or her expense.

(b) The department shall keep a record of the notice indicating the manner in which notice was given, the name and position of the person giving notice, the name of the person notified and the time and place of the notification. The information contained in this record shall not be placed on the central registry until the deadline for requesting a hearing has passed without a request being made or if a request for a hearing is made, until after a decision by the hearing examiner sustaining the finding of "indicated" in the investigative report.

(c) The suspected person shall have a right to a hearing no later than 30 days after the request is made. The person has a right to a hearing to determine whether the finding of "indicated" in the investigative report is based on inaccurate or insufficient evidence which would justify reclassifying the report as unfounded or modifying the information to be placed on the central registry consistent with the findings of the hearing examiner. The county agency shall be given notice of the hearing and the burden of proof in the hearing shall be on the county agency. In the hearing, the fact that there was a court finding of child abuse or neglect shall be presumptive evidence that the report was substantiated.

(d) The department shall comply with the findings of the hearing examiner regarding the reclassification of a report or the modification of information to be placed on the central registry and if the report is reclassified as "unfounded", shall destroy the report but may maintain in the central registry the information specified in sub. (8) (e). Any notices, records and other documents relating to the hearing shall be confidential and shall not be made available to any individual or institution except by court order.

(10) CONFIDENTIALITY. (a) 1. All reports and records made under this section and maintained by the department, county agencies, the central registry and other appropriate persons, officials and institutions shall be confidential, except that confidentiality of and access to preliminary investigative reports maintained by the department shall be governed solely by sub. (7). Information shall not be made available to any individual or institution except to:

a. The subject of any report, except that the department or other governmental agency shall not release data that would identify the initial reporter;

b. Appropriate staff of the department or county agencies, who may release information to their agents or to an attending physician for treatment and diagnosis, but prior reports or a lack of prior reports shall not be the basis for the determination of whether child abuse or neglect has occurred;

c. Any court conducting child protective proceedings or any court conducting dispositional proceedings under subch. VI in which child abuse or neglect is an issue; and

d. Any person engaged in bona fide research, with the permission of the department, provided, however, that information identifying the subjects of the reports and the reporters shall not be made available to the researcher.

2. Notwithstanding subd. 1, if the parents are the subject of a report, they may authorize the information to be made available to other persons. The authorization shall be in writing.

3. In this paragraph:

a. "County agency agent" means a foster parent or other person given custody of the child or a human service professional of a community board under s. 51.42 if the professional is working with the child under contract with or under the supervision of the county agency.

b. "Subject" means the child, parents and any person who is alleged or determined to have abused or neglected the child, who is mentioned by name in a report.

c. "Reporters" means all persons and institutions who report abuse or neglect under this section.

(b) Any person who violates this subsection, or who permits or encourages the unauthorized dissemination or use of information contained in the central registry and in reports and records made under this section may be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than 6 months or both.

(11) EDUCATION, TRAINING AND PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT AND COORDINATION. (a) The department and county agencies to the extent feasible shall conduct continuing education and training programs for state and county department staff, persons and officials required to report, the general public and others as appropriate. The programs shall be designed to encourage reporting of child abuse and neglect, to encourage self-reporting and voluntary acceptance of services and to improve communication, cooperation and coordination among all agencies in the identification, prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. The department and county agencies shall develop public information programs about child abuse and neglect.

(b) The department shall to the extent feasible ensure that there are available in the state administrative procedures, personnel trained in child abuse and neglect, multidisciplinary programs and operational procedures and capabilities to deal effectively with child abuse and neglect cases. These procedures and capabilities may include, but are not limited to, receipt, investigation and verification of reports; determination of treatment or ameliorative social services; or referral to the appropriate court.

(c) In meeting its responsibilities under par. (a) or (b), the department or a county agency may contract with any public or private organization which meets the standards set by the department. In entering into the contracts the department or county agency shall give priority to parental organizations combating child abuse and neglect.

(12) ANNUAL REPORTS. No later than August 1 of each year the department shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature a report on the status of child abuse and neglect programs. The report shall include a full statistical analysis of the child abuse and neglect reports made through the last calendar year, an evaluation of services offered under this section and their effectiveness, and recommendations for additional legislative and other action to

48.988 Interstate compact on the placement of children. (1) The interstate compact on the placement of children is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

Article I

Purpose and Policy.

It is the purpose and policy of the party states to cooperate with each other in the interstate placement of children to the end that:

(a) Each child requiring placement shall receive the maximum opportunity to be placed in a suitable environment and with persons or institutions having appropriate qualifications and facilities to provide a necessary and desirable degree and type of care.

(b) The appropriate authorities in a state where a child is to be placed may have full opportunity to ascertain the circumstances of the proposed placement, thereby promoting full compliance with applicable requirements for the protection of the child.

(c) The proper authorities of the state from which the placement is made may obtain the most complete information on the basis of which to evaluate a projected placement before it is made.

(d) Appropriate jurisdictional arrangements for the care of children will be promoted.

Article II

Definitions.

As used in this compact:

(a) "Child" means a person who, by reason of minority, is legally subject to parental, guardianship or similar control.

(b) "Sending agency" means a party state, officer or employe thereof; a subdivision of a party state, or officer or employe thereof; a court of a party state; a person, corporation, association, charitable agency or other entity which sends, brings or causes to be sent or brought any child to another party state.

(c) "Receiving state" means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

(d) "Placement" means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family free or boarding home or in a child-caring agency or institution but does not include any institution caring for the mentally ill, mentally defective or epileptic or any institution primarily educational in character, and any hospital or other medical facility.

Article III

Conditions for Placement.

(a) No sending agency shall send, bring or cause to be sent or brought into any other party state any child for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption unless the sending agency shall comply with each and every requirement set forth in this article and with the applicable laws of the receiving state governing the placement of children therein.

(b) Prior to sending, bringing or causing any child to be sent or brought into a receiving state for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption the sending agency shall furnish the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state written notice of the intention to send, bring, or place the child in the receiving state. The notice shall contain:

(1) The name, date and place of birth of the child.

(2) The identity and address or addresses of the parents or legal guardian.

(3) The name and address of the person, agency or institution to or with which the sending agency proposes to send, bring or place the child.

(4) A full statement of the reasons for such proposed action and evidence of the authority pursuant to which the placement is proposed to be made.

(c) Any public officer or agency in a receiving state which is in receipt of a notice pursuant to paragraph (b) of this article may request of the sending agency, or any other appropriate officer or agency of or in the sending agency's state, and shall be entitled to receive therefrom, such supporting or additional information as it may deem necessary under the circumstances to carry out the purpose and policy of this compact.

(d) The child shall not be sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought into the receiving state until the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state shall notify the sending agency, in writing, to the effect that the proposed placement does not appear to be contrary to the interests of the child.

Article IV

Penalty for Illegal Placement.

The sending, bringing, or causing to be sent or brought into any receiving state of a child in violation of the terms of this compact shall constitute a violation of the laws respecting the placement of children of both the state in which the sending agency is located or from which it sends or brings the child and of the receiving state. Such violation may be punished or subjected to penalty in either jurisdiction in accordance with its laws. In addition to liability for any such punishment or penalty, any such violation shall constitute full and sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of any license, permit, or other legal authorization held by the sending agency which empowers or allows it to place, or care for children.

Article V

Retention of Jurisdiction.

(a) The sending agency shall retain jurisdiction over the child sufficient to determine all matters in relation to the custody, supervision, care, treatment and disposition of the child which it would have had if the child had remained in the sending agency's state, until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes self-supporting or is discharged with the concurrence of the appropriate authority in the receiving state. Such jurisdiction shall also include the power to effect or cause the return of the child or its transfer to another location and custody pursuant to law. The sending agency shall continue to have financial responsibility for support and maintenance of the child during the period of the placement. Nothing contained herein shall defeat a claim of jurisdiction by a receiving state sufficient to deal with an act of delinquency or crime committed therein.

(b) When the sending agency is a public agency, it may enter into an agreement with an authorized public or private agency in the receiving state providing for the performance of one or more services in respect of such case by the latter as agent for the sending agency.

(c) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in the receiving state from performing services or acting as agent in that state for a private charitable agency of the sending state; nor to prevent the agency in the receiving state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of the sending agency without relieving the responsibility set forth in paragraph (a) hereof.

Article VI

Institutional Care of Delinquent Children.

A child adjudicated delinquent may be placed in an institution in another party jurisdiction pursuant to this compact but no such placement shall be made unless the child is given a court hearing on notice to the parent or guardian with opportunity to be heard, prior to being sent to such other party jurisdiction for institutional care and the court finds that:

1. Equivalent facilities for the child are not available in the sending agency's jurisdiction and

2. Institutional care in the other jurisdiction is in the best interest of the child and will not produce undue hardship.

Article VII

Compact Administrator.

The executive head of each jurisdiction party to this compact shall designate an officer who shall be general coordinator of activities under this compact in his or her jurisdiction and who, acting jointly with like officers of other party jurisdictions, shall have power to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

Article X

Construction and Severability.

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

(6) Any requirements for visitation, inspection or supervision of children, homes, institutions or other agencies in another party state which may apply under the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to be met if performed pursuant to an agreement entered into by appropriate officers or agencies of this state or a subdivision thereof as contemplated by paragraph (b) of article V of the interstate compact on the placement of children.

48.991 Interstate compact on juveniles. The following compact, by and between the state of Wisconsin and any other state which has or shall hereafter ratify or legally join in the same, is ratified and approved:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

The contracting states solemnly agree:

Article I

Findings and Purposes.

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The co-operation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to (1) co-operative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole; (2) the return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded; (3) the return, from one state to another, of non-delinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and (4) additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any 2 or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake co-operatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformatory and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

Article II

Existing Rights and Remedies.

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

Article III

Definitions.

That, for the purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

Article IV

Return of Runaways.

(a) That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by 2 certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding 90 days as will enable his return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

(b) That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

(c) That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of such minor.

Return of Escapees and Absconders.

(a) That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by 2 certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

(b) That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Article VI

Voluntary Return Procedure.

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV (a) or of Article V (a), may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

Co-operative Supervision of Probationers and Parolees.

(a) That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

(b) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

(c) That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

(d) That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

(a) That the provision of Articles IV (b), V (b) and VII (d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

(b) That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV (b), V (b) or VII (d) of this compact.

Article IX

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the co-operative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody; (3) provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and (7) make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the co-operating states.

Article XI

Acceptance of Federal and Other Aid.

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

Article XIV

Renunciation.

That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending 6 months notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the 6 months' renunciation notice of the present Article.

Article XV

Severability.

That the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.
