783.01 Mandamus, return to first writ. Mandamus is a civil action. The writ of mandamus shall specify the time within which the defendant shall make return thereto. Before such time expires the defendant may move to quash the writ and such motion shall be deemed a motion to dismiss the complaint under s. 802.06 (2).

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 585, 762 (1975); 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.01.

The necessity of resolving by construction an apparent ambiguity in statutes to arrive at the nature of the duty sought to be compelled does not preclude resort to mandamus as a remedy. Morrisette v. DeZonia, 63 W (2d) 429, 217 NW (2d) 377.

Mandamus does not lie where petition shows completely naked legal right. Burns v. City of Madison, 92 W (2d) 232, 284 NW (2d) 631 (1979).

Writ of mandamus to compel town officials to enforce ordinances was properly denied. Vretenar v. Hebron, 144 W (2d) 655, 424 NW (2d) 714 (1988).

783.02 Pleadings and proceedings. Whenever a return is made to the writ the plaintiff may move to strike the return. Otherwise the defenses alleged in the return shall be deemed controverted and like proceedings shall be had as in other civil actions.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 585, 762 (1975); 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.02.

783.03 Issues of fact; election cases, trial of. (1) Issues of fact in mandamus proceedings instituted in the supreme court shall be tried in the circuit court of the county within which the cause of action arose or in such other county as the supreme court, for cause shown, may order, and the circuit courts may try the issues of fact and may summon a jury for that purpose and prescribe the manner of summoning the jury.

(2) In mandamus against a board of canvassers in the supreme court to compel the execution and delivery of a certificate of election to any person claiming to have been elected state senator or member of the assembly, or United States senator or representative in congress, or presidential elector, the court may if deemed necessary inquire into the facts of such election, irrespective of the election returns, and determine who received the greater number of legal votes cast, and the certificate issued in pursuance of such determination shall be the only lawful certificate of election to such office, and any other certificate of election to the same office shall be null and void. Such issue of fact may be tried as hereinbefore provided or according to such rules as the court may prescribe.

History: 1977 c. 449; 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.03; 1993 a. 184.

783.04 Damages and costs. If judgment be for the plaintiff, the plaintiff shall recover damages and costs.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; 1979 c. 176; Stats. 1979 s. 783.04.

783.05 Recovery to bar another action. A recovery of damages by virtue of this chapter against any party who shall have made a return to a writ of mandamus shall be a bar to any other action against the same party for the making of such return.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.05.

783.07 Fine or imprisonment. Whenever a peremptory mandamus shall be directed to any public officer, body, board or person, commanding the performance of any duty specially enjoined by law, if it shall appear to the court that such officer or person or any member of such body or board has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to perform the duty so enjoined the court may impose a fine, not exceeding $5,000, upon every such officer, person or member of such body or board, or sentence the officer, person or member to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

NOTE: This section is amended eff. 12–31–99 by 1997 Wis. Act 283 to read:

783.07 Fine or imprisonment. Whenever a peremptory mandamus shall be directed to any public officer, body, board or person, commanding the performance of any duty specially enjoined by law, if it shall appear to the court that such officer or person or any member of such body or board has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to perform the duty so enjoined the court may impose a fine, not exceeding $5,000, upon every such officer, person or member of such body or board, or sentence the officer, person or member to imprisonment for not more than 7 years and 6 months.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; 1979 c. 176; Stats. 1979 s. 783.07; 1981 c. 20; 1997 a. 283.

783.08 Writs of prohibition, how issued. Writs of prohibition issued out of the supreme court shall be applied for upon relation or affidavits filed in the same manner as for writs of mandamus; and if the cause shown shall appear to the court to be sufficient a writ shall be thereupon issued, which shall command the court and party to whom it shall be directed to desist and refrain from any further proceedings in the action or matter specified therein until a day therein named to be fixed by the court and the further order of such court thereon; and then to show cause why they should not be absolutely restrained from any further proceedings in such action or matter.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.08.

In a petition for writ of prohibition to prevent the ILHR department from conducting a hearing upon a sex discrimination complaint by a department of public instruction employe, the circuit court, after concluding that ILHR department had no jurisdiction to hear the complaint, abused its discretion in denying the writ, because although provision for judicial review of ILHR department's action existed under s. 227.20 (1) (b), 1983 stats. [now s. 227.57 (8)], a remedy after the entire proceeding had been conducted would be grossly inadequate, the required extraordinary harm being "inherent in the situation." State ex rel. Dept. of Pub. Instruction v. ILHR, 68 W (2d) 677, 229 NW (2d) 591.

In seeking a writ of prohibition to restrain the county court from proceeding to trial in a traffic violation case, petitioner failed to meet her burden of alleging facts sufficient to show inadequacy of appeal, extraordinary hardship and a clear absence of jurisdiction where: (1) The speeding violation was a routine matter of minor significance both in terms of possible sanction and time involved; (2) there is nothing to indicate that appeal would not be an adequate method of correcting any errors in the proceeding; and (3) the asserted grounds for dismissal required basic changes in Wisconsin law, which the court had no clear duty to overturn. State ex rel. Prentice v. County Court, 70 W (2d) 230, 234 NW (2d) 283.

783.09 Service and return of. Such writ shall be served upon the court and party to whom it shall be directed in the same manner as a writ of mandamus; and a return shall in like manner be made thereto by such court, which may be enforced by attachment.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.09.

783.10 Proceedings on adoption of return. If the party to whom such writ of prohibition shall have been directed shall, by an instrument in writing to be signed by the party and annexed to such return, adopt the same return and rely upon the matters therein contained as sufficient cause why such court should not be restrained, as mentioned in the writ, said party shall thenceforth be deemed the defendant in such matter; and the person prosecuting such writ may take issue or move to strike the matters so relied upon by such defendant; and the like proceedings shall be had for the trial of issues of law or fact joined between the parties and for the rendering of judgment thereupon as in personal actions.

History: Sup. Ct. Order, 67 W (2d) 585, 763 (1975); 1975 c. 218; 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.10.

783.11 Proceedings if return not adopted. If the party to whom such writ of prohibition shall be directed shall not adopt such return, as above provided, the party prosecuting such writ shall bring on the argument of such return, as upon a rule to show cause, and may, by personal affidavit and other proofs, controvert the matters set forth in such return.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; 1979 c. 176; Stats. 1979 s. 783.11.

783.12 Judgment. The court, after hearing the proofs and allegations of the parties, shall render judgment either that a prohibition absolute, restraining the said court and party from proceeding in such action or matter, do issue, or a writ of consultation, authorizing the court and party to proceed in the action or matter in question.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.12.

783.13 Judgment if return adopted. If the party to whom such first writ of prohibition shall be directed shall adopt the return of the court thereto, as above provided, and judgment shall be rendered for the party prosecuting such writ, a prohibition absolute shall be issued; but if judgment be given against such party a writ of consultation shall be issued as above provided.

History: 1979 c. 32 s. 60; Stats. 1979 s. 783.13.
