

Penalty, &c.

§ 6. That if any person or persons shall wilfully and unlawfully injure, damage or destroy said bridge, or any part thereof, such person or persons shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of fifty dollars, in addition to the penalty provided in the statute for such offences, and pay all damages consequent upon such offence over and above such forfeiture.

§ 7. This act shall be liable at any time to be altered, amended or repealed by the Legislature.

APPROVED, February 17, 1842.

AN ACT to authorize George Lurwick to build and maintain a dam across the Oconto river.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

Dam where to be built.

§ 1. That George Lurwick and his associates, be and are hereby authorized and empowered to build and maintain a dam across the Oconto river, in the county of Brown, on lots numbered six and seven, in section numbered twenty-four, in township numbered twenty-eight, of range numbered twenty-one east, of the fourth principal meridian, on lands owned by him or his associates, sufficient to make and create a head of seven feet, and to make use of the water of said river for hydraulic purposes.

Subject to law of 1840.

§ 2. That the general law, approved January thirteenth, eighteen hundred and forty, "Relating to mills and mill dams," shall be and hereby is declared to be applicable to any dam which may be constructed by virtue of this act.

To build slide.

§ 3. This act shall be subject to amendment or alteration whenever the said river shall be so improved above said dam as to admit of the passage of boats and barges, by any future Legislature of Territory or State of Wisconsin; and the said Lurwick, his associates or successors, shall construct and keep in good repair a sufficient slide, not less than thirty feet wide, and so constructed as not to cause a fall of more than one foot to every ten feet of smooth surface, to admit of the passage of all rafts of lumber, &c. down said stream.

APPROVED, February 16, 1842.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of the expenses of the Legislative Assembly therein named, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

§1.. That there shall be appropriated out of the sum appropriated by Congress for defraying the expenses of the Legislative Assembly for the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two—

To John Dowling, for bill of stove pipe furnished for capitol, one hundred and sixty-three dollars.

To Kingsland & Lightner, for bill of stoves furnished for capitol, two hundred and fifty-six dollars.

To Grashet & Childs, for freight and charges on stoves, eighty-nine dollars and twenty-eight cents.

To Yates Scoville, for transportation of furniture from Milwaukee to Madison, one hundred and forty-five dollars.

To Alexander P. Field, for one year's postage, to July first, 1842, one hundred dollars: Also, for desk for secretary's office, twelve dollars; for hauling books from Mineral Point, fifteen dollars; for purchasing a press and screw for the great seal of the Territory, seventy-five dollars; for going to St. Louis and Milwaukee for the purpose of purchasing furniture for capitol, one hundred and twenty-five dollars; for amount advanced to Yates Scoville, Benoni W. Finch and William Moorehead, for transporting furniture, one hundred and fifty-eight dollars; for office rent from June to December, 1841, and stationery, one hundred dollars.

To B. W. Finch, for hauling furniture, forty-five dollars.

To David Hyer, for labor in putting up stoves, three dollars.

To George Beatty, for locks for desks for Council and House of Representatives, three dollars and seventy-five cents.

To Otis & Gove, for chairs and cushions for Council Chamber and Representatives' Hall, three hundred and sixty dollars.